Second Sunday of LENT

Then from the cloud
came a voice that said,
"This is my chosen Son;
listen to him."

Message from Father Tom

Lord, it is wonderful for us to be here.

In this morning's gospel reading, Peter is enchanted by the vision of the glorious Jesus, flanked by Moses and Elijah, and he wants to prolong this experience for as long as possible, 'Master, it is wonderful for us to be here'.

The voice from the cloud called on Peter, and on James and John, to listen to Jesus, the beloved Son of God, especially when Jesus spoke of himself as the suffering Son of Man. The transfiguration scene in the gospels comes immediately after Jesus speaks of himself as the Son of Man who must undergo great suffering and be killed. Jesus and the disciples then set out on the journey to Jerusalem, the city where Jesus would be crucified; it was the beginning of the way of the cross.

The Transfiguration brings to us a joyous message, a great affirmation: God is accessible to personal experience. He shares His life with humanity; we can go up to the mountain of God and meet Him there as He descends from the infinite heights of heaven. And it is our loving Lord and Savior who leads us by the hand up to the mountain of God. The disciples first went up to a high mountain and spent the entire night in prayer with Christ. It was during this spiritual experience in prayer that the disciples saw Jesus transfigured in such glory and splendor and heard the heavenly voice of God the Father affirming His beloved Son Jesus.

Hopefully we have all known transfiguration moments when, with Peter, we say, "It is wonderful for us to be here". We will certainly have known Calvary moments when such a sentiment would have been very far from our lips. The Lord is equally present to us in both of those very different experiences. In both our moments of darkness and of light, God says to us, this is my Son, the Chosen One. Listen to him. The Lord speaks as powerfully to us in the darkness as in the light.

What happens to the disciples on Mount Tabor during the Transfiguration of Jesus also happens to us whenever we approach the Eucharist for adoration. These moments strengthen us for what happens after we walk out the Church door, when real life hits us like a ton of bricks. You may be a wife, a mother, father, a working person, a student, and called to live in the world. So just like the apostles had to come down from Mount Tabor, we too have to return to our duties and obligations. But we return renewed and refreshed because of that time being in the presence of Jesus.

Here at Corpus Christi, we are blessed to have consistent times each week to come before the Lord in Adoration, what a gift!

Adoration takes place every day immediately following the 8:00 morning Mass until 10am; on Wednesdays from 9am – 6:00pm; and on the first and third Monday in Spanish after the 7:00pm Mass.

Lord, it is wonderful for us to be here!

God's Eucharistic blessings,
Fr. Tom Smithson, SSS
Pastor

Reminders about Giving

We are grateful to all of our parishioners who generously give to Corpus every week and/or month.

Your gifts enable Corpus to cover the many expenses of the parish. There are several ways to make your gifts count even more:

† Consider online giving
† If you are donating through online giving, prayerfully consider adding 2% to your gift to cover our fees for that service.
† Or select the bill pay option directly through your own bank.
† And let the parish office know if you no longer need monthly envelope packets.

Again, we thank you for your faithfulness.

Rice Bowls

Perseverance to Succeed

Raúl and Lilian have faced many challenges while trying to provide for their family and pursue their dreams in Guatemala. With support from Catholic Relief Services, they have been able to overcome these obstacles and grow their business while helping their community along the way. ## Who are Associates of the Blessed Sacrament?

Associates of the Blessed Sacrament are lay Catholic women and men-single and married.

In partnership with the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament, we are a community of friendship and faith whose center of life is the Eucharist celebrated, contemplated, and lived. We share in the charism of Saint Peter Julian Eymard and in the mission of eucharistic evangelizing by our personal witness to the love of God in our lives, through active participation in liturgical and parish ministries, parish and community service, and adoration and prayer in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament wherever possible.

We come together for regular meetings for prayer, faith sharing, on-going spiritual enrichment, and hospitality, to help us live and grow as a witness to the Eucharist.

Security Cameras in Church

Through the generous donation of a parish family, we have been able to install security cameras in the church building. They will compliment the security cameras already operational outside the church. We hope these cameras will deter further theft of items from the church and help us to identify those who would be responsible for such activity. The cameras will be always on and recording.

DSF 2022

All for the Glory of God

The DSF theme, “All for the glory of God” was selected because the work done by the DSF-supported ministries glorifies the name of the Lord. Life within the love of Christ brings glory to God from simple acts of kindness to the big goals we work hard to accomplish with the talents He’s given us. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

To make your gift, you can complete the mail-in giving envelope available at church or make a gift online at: www.archgh.org/dsf

Scam Alerts

Our priests will NEVER solicit donations of gift cards through email. If you have received emails like this or any other odd emails from one of our priests, please do not respond and do delete them.

Second Sunday of Lent

We can imagine the splendor of the Transfiguration in our Gospel, and in a manner similar to the Baptism of the Lord, we hear the voice of God booming down announcing Jesus the Son. It is another of the great epiphanies. But if you think about it, each reading this weekend has a sort of "Aha" moment to it. A moment of mutual commitment, of trust.

In Genesis, God makes a covenant with Abram, promising him descendants numerous as the stars in the sky. The Psalmist professes his faith and hope: "I believe that I shall see the bounty of the LORD in the land of the living." Paul's letter to the Philippians lays it out simply in "drop the mic" fashion: "Our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ."

That's it. Boom.

Mensaje del Padre Tom

Señor, es maravilloso para nosotros estar aquí.

En la lectura del evangelio de esta mañana, Pedro está maravillado por la visión glorioso de Jesús, flanqueado por Moisés y Elías, y quiere prolongar esta experiencia el mayor tiempo posible: "Maestro, es maravilloso para nosotros estar aquí".

La voz de la nube llamó a Pedro, Santiago y Juan, a escuchar a Jesús, el hijo amado de Dios, especialmente cuando Jesús habló de sí mismo como el Hijo sufriente del hombre. La escena de la transfiguración en los evangelios viene inmediatamente después de que Jesús habla de sí mismo como el Hijo del Hombre que debe sufrir y ser asesinado. Jesús y los discípulos emprendieron entonces el viaje a Jerusalén, la ciudad donde Jesús sería crucificado; el comienzo del Vía Crucis.

La Transfiguración nos transmite un mensaje gozoso, una gran afirmación: Dios es accesible a la experiencia personal. Él comparte su vida con la humanidad; podemos subir a la montaña de Dios y encontrarnos con Él allí mientras desciende de las infinitas alturas del cielo. Y es nuestro amoroso Señor y Salvador quien nos guía de la mano hasta la montaña de Dios. Los discípulos primero subieron a una montaña alta y pasaron toda la noche en oración con Cristo. Fue durante esta experiencia espiritual en oración que los discípulos vieron a Jesús transfigurado con tal gloria y esplendor y escucharon la voz celestial de Dios el Padre afirmando a Su amado Hijo Jesús.

Espero que todos hayamos experimentado momentos de transfiguración en los que, como Pedro, hayamos dicho: "Es maravilloso para nosotros estar aquí". Definitivamente hemos reconocido momentos del Calvario cuando tal sentimiento ha estado muy lejos de nuestros labios. El Señor está igualmente presente para nosotros en ambas experiencias tan diferentes. Tanto en nuestros momentos de oscuridad como de luz, Dios nos dice: este es mi Hijo, el Elegido. Escúchalo. El Señor nos habla tan poderosamente en las tinieblas como en la luz.

Lo que les sucede a los discípulos en el Monte Tabor durante la Transfiguración de Jesús también nos sucede a nosotros cada vez que nos acercamos a la Eucaristía para la adoración. Estos momentos nos fortalecen para lo que sucede después de que salimos por la puerta de la Iglesia, cuando la vida real nos golpea como una tonelada de ladrillos. Puedes ser una esposa, una madre, un padre, una persona trabajadora, un estudiante, llamados a vivir en el mundo. Así que así como los apóstoles tuvieron que bajar del Monte Tabor, nosotros también tenemos que volver a nuestros deberes y obligaciones. Pero regresamos renovados debido a que ese tiempo lo pasamos en la presencia de Jesús.

Aquí en Corpus Christi, tenemos la bendición de tener tiempos consistentes cada semana para venir ante el Señor en Adoración, ¡qué regalo!

La adoración se lleva a cabo todos los días inmediatamente después de la Mísa de las 8:00 de la mañana hasta las 10 am; los miércoles de 9am a 6:00pm; y el primer y tercer lunes en español después de la Mísa de las 7:00pm.

¡Señor, es maravilloso para nosotros estar aquí!

Bendiciones eucarísticas de Dios,
P. Tom Smithson, SSS

Estaciones de la Cruz Viacrucis

Las Estaciones de la Cruz se llevarán a cabo los viernes comenzando el durante la Cuaresma a las 6:30 pm en inglés y a las 7:30 pm en español.

Cámaras de Seguridad en la Iglesia

Gracias a la generosa donación de una familia parroquial, hemos podido instalar cámaras de seguridad dentro de la iglesia. Complementarán las cámaras ya operativas afuera de la iglesia. Esperamos que estas cámaras disuadan más robos de artículos de la iglesia y nos ayuden a identificar a aquellos que serían responsables de tal actividad. Las cámaras estarán siempre encendidas y grabando.

¡Lo necesitamos!

El Consejo de Mujeres Católicas organiza una venta de plantas, artes y artesanía el viernes 8 de abril (junto con el Knights Fish Fry) y el sábado 9 de abril. La última venta fue un gran éxito y necesitamos que lo haga de nuevo! Los voluntarios donando su tiempo y talentos para hacer artículos artesanales de arte y artesanía recaudarán dinero para ayudar a nuestra iglesia con el mantenimiento y la reparación. Por favor contacte a Nanci Totah, 832-247-5176 para más información o para inscribirse.

Una Visión de Dios

¿Alguna vez has tenido una visión de Dios? Quizá percibiste la presencia de Dios en un momento tranquilo de oración, en una conversación amable con un ser querido o en una situación difícil que se resolvió inesperadamente. En el Evangelio de hoy, Pedro, Santiago y Juan tuvieron en la montaña una visión de la gloria de Cristo, cuando Jesús se transfiguró ante ellos. Abram puso su fe en Dios y vio el poder de Dios en una maravillosa señal de amor de alianza. Tenemos la promesa de la vida eterna con Dios en el cielo. Esta promesa trae consigo misma responsabilidad, como pueblo estamos llamados a vivir en el mundo la vida misma de Cristo. La Cuaresma es el tiempo perfecto para resolver y escuchar más atentamente al Señor y seguir los caminos de Dios, con la seguridad de que, al hacerlo ponemos nuestra fe en el Dios único, verdadero y fiel.

La Recapitulación

Cuando se ve una serie de televisión, a menudo se ofrece una sinopsis de los acontecimientos clave de los dos últimos programas para preparar el escenario para el episodio actual. Si hacemos un repaso rápido del Evangelio de Lucas, antes, en el capítulo nueve, Jesús enviaba a los discípulos en su ministerio por primera vez, y tuvimos la alimentación de los cinco mil. Pedro se da cuenta de que Jesús es el Mesías, Jesús nos da el primer indicio de su propia muerte y les dice a los discípulos que tomen su cruz y lo sigan. Después de todo ese estrés físico, espiritual y emocional, Jesús sale a orar a la montaña, llevando a Pedro, Juan y Santiago con él.
