

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME † OCTOBER 17, 2021

ST. BRUNO PARISH

"While the world changes, the cross stands firm."

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Bruno Parish is a community of people sharing a common faith in the teachings of the Catholic tradition. We come together to worship God and to spread the Good News that Jesus gave us. Through celebrating Christian unity, we provide emotional support and practice the works of mercy.

Father Dan's Weekly Message

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the well-being of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege. ©LPi

Sing to the Lord with Thanksgiving

We are thankful for the musicians providing music for our liturgies as we search for a new Director of Liturgy and Music. In the meantime, support our musicians as it says in Psalm 96-sing to the Lord, bless His name; proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.

Ways YOU can be involved!

CIRCLE OF LIFE BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

St. Bruno's Circle of Life is looking for new members to help with our ministry. Our mission is to offer support and comfort to those who are grieving. We hold several meetings per year, only as needed. Our activities include sending cards on the anniversary of the death of loved ones, providing materials for those who are mourning, and offering an 8-week bereavement support group in the spring/summer. One of our favorite activities yearly is to make angels for those who attend the Mass of Remembrance, a special liturgy hosted each year in Nov. For more information about our ministry, please contact Sandy, 262-968-4422 Peggy, 262-424-4567 or Pam, 715-223-5523. As it states in the Bible (Mt. 5:3), "Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be consoled."

COMMUNION MINISTRY

If you know someone who would like communion visits contact Amy Golden. We are also looking for more volunteers who are willing to serve as home communion ministers.

Contact Amy Golden at aldgolden@gmail.com or 262-965-2332

OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Please invite someone who is looking for a church home to join the Catholic faith, sessions begin in October and meet until the Easter season. We also welcome people who would like to brush up on some of our Catholic faith or would like to be Confirmed. If you would like to attend, please let our team leaders, Beth and Peter McFadden (bpmc90@wi.rr.com) know so they can send you the reading materials ahead of time or contact Mary Kral in the parish office. The sessions run from 10-11:30am in the Family Room at St. Paul.

Register Now for the 2021 Women of Christ Conference

The 14th annual WOMEN OF CHRIST® CONFERENCE will take place on November 6th, 2021 at Washington County Fair Park. This year's theme, Let Him In, inspires us to invite Jesus into our hearts.

Register: womenofchrist.net /E-Mail: womenofchrist@gmail.com / Phone: 262-689-9725

Child and Family Ministry

Meet our CGS Team (Kindergarten and Grade 1)

We are happy to welcome Katy Zignego to our team this year. She joins Samantha Wyman-Davis who has been helping with Catechesis of the Good Shepherd since we opened in 2017.

Samantha Wyman-Davis (left) originally from Connecticut, I currently live in North Prairie with my husband Bradley and my 3 daughters: Hayden, Camryn, and Emersyn. I work for the school district of Waukesha, in the Special Education Department. I've been an aide in the Atrium, and am training to assume a lead role. Reading and coloring are two things I love doing in my free time.

Katy Zignego (right) Katy is an aide in the K-1 Faith Formation classroom. Katy is a librarian at the Delafield Public Library, and she and her husband, Tony, have three daughters: Frannie (7) and twins Sara and Mia (5). Katy is originally from Canton, Illinois, and graduated from Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois, with a degree in history. She earned her Master's degree in public history from UW-Milwaukee. Katy was not raised Catholic, but officially became a Catholic here at St. Bruno this year!

Children in grades K and 1 participate in a program called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. This is a beautifully simple, "hands on" method of instruction based on the Montessori Method of education. There are 2 simple goals: 1. to help bring children into full participation at Mass. 2. to help bring children into a deeper relationship with God. The classroom is called the Atrium. All of the materials are handmade, and the children learn by using these materials. It is a quiet place, where children can ponder the parables, wonder about the life of Jesus, practice setting the model altar, and celebrate the liturgical seasons.

Adult Formation

Are you here to SERVE or BE SERVED?

James and John ask for places of honor and Jesus reminds them that to be great is to be a servant. Among his followers He does not want them to be lording authority over anyone else. Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve. Through His example, Jesus lived a life of service and in the greatest act of service and love, gave His life to release all of us from sin. What is our response to this? The Baltimore Catechism of my youth comes to mind: Why did God make you? God made me to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in heaven. Jesus experienced it all; he "gets" us because He was one of us. So how can you serve Him? How do you know which gifts you are supposed to be using for His purpose? Well, have you asked Him? Have you opened His Word and read it, chewed on a passage? Find a quiet spot in nature to sit with Him.

He made you, he "gets" you, so start with Him. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way...so let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help. Mary Kral, mkral@stpaulgenese.net

St. Bruno Parish School

Two Part Time Positions Available

- ★ Our school seeks a half-time 4K teacher for afternoons as our preschool is expanding to two afternoon classrooms in order to maintain small class sizes. This position is open now and interviews will be held within the week. Qualifications include a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education and Wisconsin Teacher Certification that includes 4 year and 3 year Kindergarten. St. Bruno Parish School Early Childhood program follows the Wisconsin Model Early Learning Standards (WMELS). Safeguarding All God's Family training and a successful background check are required. A Catholic educator is preferred but not essential.
- ★ We have an opening for an adult supervisor for our After School Care Program. This position will be for 2-3 days/week, from 3:30 - 6:00 p.m.

If you have questions or are interested in either position please contact Mary MacDonald, Principal, at 262-965-2291 or mary.macdonald@stbrunoparishschool.com

YOUR DONATION WILL BE MATCHED!

Support St. Bruno Parish School

Catholic school students, parents, teachers, alumni and friends gathered together on October 16, for the annual Soles for Catholic Education Walk.

Donations made to our team stay right here at St. Bruno Parish School to help us reach our school's fundraising goal of $5000.00 for Technology Improvements.

The impact of your donation will do even more to help our school. Generous Soles Walk sponsors have stepped up to match a proportion of donations that we receive.

Donate today by texting Soles1550 to 71777, or visit catholicsschoolswalk.org.

To donate with cash or check, contact Tammy Price at 262-965-2291 or tammy.price@stbrunoparishschool.com

Donations can be made through November 1, 2021.

Thank you for supporting Catholic education.

Pro Life Saint of the Week

St. Gianna Berett Molla was an Italian wife, mother, doctor, and devout Catholic. She is the patron saint of pregnant women and the patron against abortion. As a pious mother of four, she worked with mothers, babies, the elderly, and the poor, affirming the value of every human life.

While pregnant with her fourth child, life-threatening complications arose. Her doctor urged her to abort the child so she could live, but she refused, opting instead to protect the life of her unborn child. She died a week after giving birth.

"As to the past, let us entrust it to God's mercy, the future to divine Providence. Our task is to live holy the present moment."
