Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned its quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control; the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to you, O Loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach heavenly Jerusalem where a stormless eternity

As you may have noticed, all the Live Oaks have been trimmed. They were also fertilized to restore the health of the trees in order to preserve for many years to come. Oak trees in the cemetery were also trimmed and uplifted. There was also a dead pine tree taken down behind St. Charles Chapel. All work done totaled a cost of $12,000.

A HUMBLE KING

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today's readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches "from the River to the ends of the earth" (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!

Hidden Treasure of the Community

We are so lucky to have a community library in Sunset that every person can enjoy. No matter the age, gender, interest, talent or ability—there is a unique spot for you at the library on Marie Street. Pick up a schedule of events for adults and children at the front desk. A library card is the key to discovery and it costs nothing. Learn artistic crafts, attend classes, speak a foreign language, garden for health. ACT practice, contests, computer skills, join clubs, meet friends, little theater; satisfy your curiosity! It's time to discover what others have found at the library.

Our Prized Possession

Brothers and Sisters, think of your most prized possession. The one thing that you cherish above everything else that you have. Think about how hard you had to work to get it. Think about how long you had to wait to get it. Think about how you felt when you got it. Think about how it makes you feel when you see it. And how you feel when you think about it now? Now, the question that Jesus poses for all of us is can we say the same things about the Kingdom of Heaven? Do we work hard to get there? Are we desperately waiting for it? Do we think about how we will feel when we get there? What do we think about it now? If we find that we hardly think about it much less work toward building it, then let us spend some time this week praying about what we need to do to help bring it about. So that at the end of the age, we will be considered righteous and kept for the Kingdom of Heaven instead of being considered wicked and thrown in the fiery furnace.

Please continue to pray for peace around the world.
Pray for all world leaders and especially for our men and women in military service.
