From Father Mike

St. Paul reminds the Corinthians in today's second reading that "we walk by faith, not by sight." (2 Corinthians 5:7). Faith gives us a different vision that drives our efforts, and vision is what inspires us to move in different directions. A Pastoral Vision is the vision that the Holy Spirit is giving us to go in bold new directions as a pastorate in order to better share Christ and the Gospel with our local communities. Soon we will be engaged in assessing everything in our pastorate to understand better our current situation from which we can move forward. The Uniting in Heart Pastoral Plan is part of this process of refining our vision because it invites us to be realistic about our current resources, to be clear about what our mission is as church, and to be smarter about matching our resources to our mission. Because many of us come from a background where generations of our families grew up as Catholics, we have not had to consider that our faith and Christian values are not supported anymore by our wider culture. We also do not like admitting that the number of available priests is diminishing nor that less of our younger people are staying involved with the church. Even if our current conditions were not changing, we also have rarely envisioned ourselves as a church who reaches out to the unchurched to invite them to make us their spiritual home. Nevertheless, as we develop a clearer Pastoral Vision, we can become more focused on what God is calling us to do for this moment. Perhaps what we have lacked the most in our Catholic communities is a certain boldness about the abundant grace we have as followers of Jesus and our unapologetic desire for others to be a part of this life in Christ, including our own children and grandchildren. In this spirit St. Paul recalls this boldness when he states that, as a people of faith, "we are always courageous." (2 Corinthians 5:6)

De Padre Miguel

San Pablo recuerda a los Corintios en la segunda Lectura de hoy que "caminamos guiados por la fe, sin ver todavía." (II Corintios 5, 7). La fe nos da una visión diferente que da valor a nuestros esfuerzos, y la visión es lo que nos inspira a movernos en diferentes direcciones. Una Visión Pastoral es la visión que el Espíritu Santo nos está dando para ir en nuevas y valientes direcciones como Pastorado a fin de compartir mejor a Cristo y el Evangelio con nuestras comunidades locales. Dentro de poco tiempo nos dedicaremos a evaluar todo en nuestro Pastorado para comprender mejor nuestra actual situación, lo cual nos ayudará a saber de dónde partir para poder seguir avanzando. El Plan Pastoral Unidos de Corazón es parte de este proceso de refinamiento de nuestra visión porque nos invita a ser realistas acerca de nuestros recursos actuales. Nos ayuda a tener claro cuál es nuestra misión como Iglesia y a ser más inteligentes en cuanto a hacer coincidir nuestros recursos con nuestra misión. Debido a que muchos de nosotros venimos de un entorno en el que generaciones de nuestras familias crecieron como Católicos, no hemos tenido que considerar que nuestra fe y nuestros valores cristianos ya no están respaldados por nuestra cultura en general. Tampoco nos gusta admitir que el número de Sacerdotes disponibles está disminuyendo ni que menos de nuestros jóvenes se mantienen involucrados con la Iglesia. Incluso si nuestras condiciones actuales no estuvieran cambiando, también rara vez nos hemos imaginado como una Iglesia que se acerca a los que no asisten a la parroquia para invitarlos a hacer de nosotros su hogar espiritual. Sin embargo, a medida de que desarrollamos una Visión Pastoral más clara, podemos enfocarnos mejor en lo que Dios nos está llamando a hacer en este momento. Quizás lo que más nos ha faltado en nuestras comunidades católicas es cierta audacia en cuanto a la abundante gracia que tenemos como seguidores de Jesús y nuestro deseo incondicional de que otros sean parte de esta vida en Cristo, incluyendo a nuestros propios hijos y nietos. Con este espíritu, San Pablo nos recuerda de este valor cuando afirma que, como pueblo de fe, "siempre tenemos confianza". (II Corintios 5, 6)
