Weekly Message

Gospel Meditation

Encouraging Deeper Understanding of Scripture

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives. ©LPI

Child and Family Ministry

Catholic Ecology Center

Last week we shared the story about the new Children's Memorial Garden located on the grounds of the Catholic Ecology Center in Neosho. In this article, learn more about the amazing Catholic Ecology Center. (Content taken from the Catholic Ecology Center website)

"The Catholic Ecology Center is a ministry of Laudato Si' Project, a tax-deductible, non-profit. Laudato Si' Project began in 2016, responding to Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home. The mission of the Catholic Ecology Center is to deepen faith and foster a stewardship ethic through hands-on encounters with the natural world. This is done through educational programming, stewardship projects, retreats, recreational outings and partnerships with schools and parishes. It was the vision of Ernie & Karen Meyer's son Joe Meyer, the Executive Director.

Joe has always had a passion for his Catholic faith and a love for ecology. As a result of these passions and his desire to teach, he graduated from UW Milwaukee with a BS in biology/environmental science education. He later earned a Master's in education from UW-La Crosse. Joe taught in National Parks and environmental education centers across the country and strives to connect people with Christ and His creation. As a result of his deep Catholic faith, he founded Laudato Si' Project, and most recently the Catholic Ecology Center.

Joe currently also teaches science at Marquette University High School in Milwaukee. "From the moment I walked on to the property, I knew this was holy ground. This is a place to learn more about God through the beauty of His creation. I am grateful to the Meyer family for their part in this great ministry.

Can you spare 15 minutes after Mass on Sunday?

SCRIP Help is Needed!

Dear Parents, Grandparents or Parishioners, we are seeking additional volunteers to sell SCRIP GIFT CARDS after mass on Sundays. SCRIP is an integral fundraiser for our school. Selling on Sundays simply includes a brief 30 minute training and 15-20 minutes of your time after Mass on occasional Sundays. This is an easy way to accrue volunteer time, and so helpful to our school. Please contact Merideth Sutton 262-753-3578 or Ellen Knaflc at 262-689-7938 or stbrunoscrip@gmail.com if interested.

Thank you and God Bless!

Adult Faith Formation

GENEROUS SERVING

Whether it is 2022 or 54 A.D., Paul's message to all of us is clear: you were called for freedom [to] serve one another through love. Both of our parishes have had the privilege and opportunity to serve through love this past year: St Bruno's Thanksgiving Food Drive, St Paul's Easter Food Drive, monthly through St Ben's Community Meal, gifts for the Giving Tree, and support for the bereaved through our support groups and annual Mass of Remembrance, just to name a few. THANK YOU for your generous service and love in all our parish ministries. We might not feel Elijah's cloak directly on us as Elisha did when he was called, but by virtue of our baptism we do live in the Spirit, we ARE all called. Come, Holy Spirit, fill us abundantly with your gifts so we may better love our neighbors, serve one another through love, and proclaim the kingdom of God.

~Mary Kral Director of Adult Faith Formation & Human Concerns

Keepin' the Faith at St. Camillus

St. Camillus is in need for volunteers to help with transporting (pushing wheelchairs) our assisted living residents to Mass and from Mass on Sundays at Guardian Angel and Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel (located on Campus). As you can imagine, many of our residents have an extremely strong faith, but are unable to transport themselves to Mass.

We are excited to say that we have such great attendance to the services, that our Staff needs help!! The residents would greatly appreciate the assistance of being escorted to Mass and also having someone to sit next to during the Mass! Both of these Masses are at 10:30am, so commitment would be from 10am until 12pm on Sundays.
