Gospel Meditation

Encouraging Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God's unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis)." While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the "details" of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us! ©LPi

Child and Family Ministry

Make Time To Listen

Martha and Mary lived in Bethany, a small village near Jerusalem. They were close friends of Jesus, who often came to visit them when he was near their home.

Jesus and his disciples had been invited to stay for a meal, so Martha had to prepare a lot of food. While Martha was busy in the kitchen, her sister Mary sat down beside Jesus to listen to him.

How did Martha feel about this? She became angry with Mary, because she felt it unfair for her to have to do all of the work! Martha was also probably jealous, because she too wanted to hear what Jesus had to say!

Jesus tells Martha that Mary did the right thing! He was grateful for all of the work that Martha did, but what really made him happy was when people made time to listen to the word of God. Nothing was more important to him.

What lesson does this story teach us? We all have busy and sometimes overscheduled lives, and sometimes we forget what is really important, to make time for Jesus and to listen as he speaks to us.

This lesson is a good reminder to take the time to listen to our children, our parents, our spouse, our friends. Make the effort to be TRULY present, and practice active listening. Sometimes the best gift you can give is a listening ear.

As a family, answer this question, who do you relate to Martha or Mary? Do you get angry when you feel like you're doing all of the work while everyone else is relaxing? How do you think Martha felt when Jesus said that Mary did the right thing?

Try to really listen this week to your loved ones.

Peace, Amy Golden—Shared Director of Child and Family Ministry

Adult Faith Formation

WELCOME

Abraham was ready, willing and eager to show hospitality to three strangers who arrive in the heat of the day. As time passes, it becomes apparent to him that He is actually hosting the Lord and two heavenly guests. In biblical times, it was a sacred duty to welcome strangers warmly. In today's uncertain world, strangers who show up at our door are often received with suspicion. It is challenging to show hospitality and be wary at the same time. Perhaps we need to start small in our practice of hospitality. Mother Teresa has some wonderful things to think about:

If you want to change the world, go home and love your family. Wash the plate not because it is dirty nor because you are told to, but because you love the person who will use it next. Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love.

Next time you're out and about, start with this one: Let us always meet each other with a smile, for the smile is the beginning of love.

Once you get past the wariness and exchange a smile and maybe some small talk, the next step is to look around and listen. It's easy to get caught up in your busy-ness, to be like Martha, anxious and worried about many things, rushing off to the next thing. But if you slow down and sit at Jesus' feet like Mary, you might be surprised at what kind of truth, beauty, or goodness the Holy Spirit is sharing with you.

P.S. If you've been thinking about volunteering as a greeter or a catechist or in another area of welcoming, consider this a Holy Spirit invitation.

The ERAS Senior Network provides support services to seniors and people with disabilities in Greater Waukesha County. Their Weekly Friendly Phone Call program has continued well beyond its introduction at the start of the pandemic. Initially meant to ensure basic needs like food and medication were being met, the program quickly evolved into an emotional support system that helped seniors and others with feelings of loneliness and isolation.

The need for friendship and human connection among area older adults and adults with disabilities remains and ERAS is always looking for compassionate folks to reach out and make a friendly phone call. All it takes is a few minutes! If you're interested, please visit ERAS Senior Network for more information or call 262-549-3348. For other ways to serve anywhere/anytime, check out the Help from Home page on your parish website.

St. Vincent De Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus affirms that to be a disciple we must also sit at his feet and listen to him. St. Vincent de Paul taught that it is only in prayer that we can give selfless loving service to those who are poor.

This week, please say a special prayer each day for the poor and forgotten in our parish.

Please continue to pray for all Frontline workers, First Responders, Military Personnel and their families. May God keep them safe in his hands.
