Weekly Message

"If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead." Regardless of how the message of faith is received, a total conversion of mind and heart is needed for it to take root and have meaning. It is easy to become complacent and comfortable with all that life can afford us. Life can become "all about me," preserving my livelihood and protecting my securities. Often, this drive can become so strong that we eagerly strive to protect our self-interests at the expense of others. Other people are necessary only to the extent that they are "useful" to us and profitable.

Merriam-Webster defines entitlement as "the belief that one is deserving of or entitled to certain privileges." In a world that pretends to offer us so many necessities, this is perhaps the greatest contemporary sin. When we feel "entitled" to something, even if it is perceived necessary, our relationships can get skewed. Unless we adopt a global vision of entitlement wherein everyone is entitled to the same things, we risk becoming extremely self-focused and selfish. All we care about is defending our rights and protecting our turf. This impulse can be so strong that we pursue it even at the expense of another. Is this what God intends for his children?

Holding on to this myopic vision, the plight and station of others are off our radar and of no real concern to us. Relying on our own merits and becoming resilient to life's challenges, we replace the true and real God with the one we created ourselves. Jesus and the prophets before him have consistently reminded us of the dangers of wealth, ignoring the poor and the needy, and becoming too fiercely independent and arrogant. Yet, we conduct our lives as if that message has never been preached. We give our faith a nod and never consider for a moment that we may be wrong in terms of what we see as important. "The things that we love tell us what we are (attributed to St. Thomas Aquinas)." Ponder those words a bit and remember that when we leave this world and go to the next one, what we loved here is what we will look for there. What we sought here may not be there. ©LPi

Tip #5

The next time you're getting ready to hit the road, say this prayer when you get into your car. "Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, bless these wheels we travel on". Then pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be.

It's a great way to start your trip, and sets the tone for safe travels. Have a great week!

Youth Ministry (Middle & High School)

I am excited to announce that St. Bruno and St. Paul Parishes are launching a new brand for our combined Youth Ministry program, GO FISH!

GO FISH! is centered in the philosophy of taking ownership of one's own faith and following the example and mission of Christ.

We want to launch into an exciting new year with our exciting new brand with a game of kick-ball on the St. Paul church grounds. This fun event will take place Sunday, October 23 at 4:30pm at St. Paul. After the game over, the teens will go to their Faith Formation classes. Teens 6th-12th grade are invited to come and play; snacks and beverages will be provided (there is a contingency plan in place in the event of bad weather).

Please complete the electronic permission on the website to register.

If you have to miss a session here or there, it's ok, keep coming! Sign up here to ensure you'll receive the Zoom invitation: <https://stpaulgeneseec.net/alpha> and to learn more. Word Of Life

"Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die... The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, 'Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?'"

Prayer for the 108th World Day of Migrants and Refugees

September 25, 2022

Lord, make us bearers of hope,
so that where there is darkness,
your light may shine,
and where there is discouragement,
confidence in the future may be reborn.

Lord, make us instruments of your justice,
so that where there is exclusion, fraternity may flourish,
and where there is greed, a spirit of sharing may grow.

Lord, make us builders of your Kingdom,
together with migrants and refugees and with all who dwell on the peripheries.

Lord, let us learn how beautiful it is to live together as brothers and sisters. Amen.

Pope Francis | Rome, Saint John Lateran, May 9, 2022

ARCHDIOCESE of MILWAUKEE

2022 National Migration Week Prayer

Loving Father,

We thank you for the gift of children
And for the joy and love that they bring into our lives.
Protect with your fatherly care all children who face hardship.

In particular, we pray for unaccompanied migrant children who are alone,
For migrant children separated from parents who have been placed in detention,
For those who have lost loved ones due to violence,
And for those who are trapped in situations of exploitation.

Open all of our hearts to immigrant and refugee children in need.
Show us how we can protect and comfort them. Give us the wisdom to know how we can help.

Give us courage to defend them against those who would harm them.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God forever and ever. Amen

On September 27, the Church celebrated the feast of St. Vincent de Paul, who knew that "God had sent him to bring good news to the poor." Together with your gifts, the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul continue his work and mission in our parish. In the month of September, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to "bring good news to the poor," by assisting families, providing food, money for utility and rent bills, etc.

Thank You!
