Weekly Message

As a kid I remember looking at my sister and thinking, "No man is ever going to marry her. She is way too...my sister!" I couldn't see her as anything except my goofy, emotional, cooties-laden sister. Years later, on her wedding day, I remember seeing how her husband looked at her, he was totally in love with her, his watery eyes full of overwhelmed joy, drinking in her beauty and grace. He was the one who actually saw her. Blinded by familiarity, I had not been able to see her until now. She was glorious. I finally saw how beautiful my sister really was.

Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John. His face shone like the sun and his clothes dazzle with heavenly light. If it's a miracle, it is so related to the apostles' perception of the glory of Jesus. The physical spectacle reveals how the Father perceives the Son, so to speak: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to him." The Son is always bathed in the Father's love. It's only just now that they finally perceive it.

Who could possibly give his or her heart totally to Jesus? If we perceive him to be just another teacher, symbol, or moral example, we can't. But if the Holy Spirit gives us eyes to see that he is the Beloved Son of God, who makes our humanity not just pleasing to God but filled with glory ... then who can resist him? Perhaps only the lovers are the ones who properly see. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Child & Family Ministry

Building The Domestic Church—Lenten Series

This idea is shared by Erin Eilskov, third grade catechist in our Sunday Faith Formation program. She created these bags for her students to share with their families at home.

Items needed: purple cloth or napkin, plate, sand, 2 hearts, pipe cleaner, 6 stones

- Find somewhere to be your Lent place.

- Spread out the purple napkin. Purple is the color of Lent.
- Place the plate on the napkin
- Pour the sand into the plate. The sand reminds you that Jesus went into the desert.
- Put the 2 hearts in the sand. The hearts remind us of God's love.
- Make the pipe cleaner into a cross and place it on the plate. The cross reminds us that Lent is the time we remember that Jesus journeyed to the cross.
- There are 6 stones in your bag. There are 6 Sundays in Lent. Each Sunday, add a stone to your mini-desert.

Your Lent place will help remind you to follow Jesus, to talk to him, and to do the things he wants you to do.

Thank you to Erin, for helping to build the Domestic Church!

~Amy Golden: Shared Director of Child and Family Ministry

Youth & High School Ministry

I am excited to announce the possibility of putting together a mini theatrical production with GO FISH! Youth Ministry. The project would be a Passion Mime; a reenactment of the last days of Jesus' life without dialogue. It would be approximately 13 minutes in length and would most likely be performed on Good Friday at some point. A couple of teens have already expressed interest but we need a minimum of 7 people in order to make the production feasible (3 men, 1 woman, 3 either gender). Rehearsals would most likely just be one hour per week leading up to Good Friday (rehearsal time depends on need) and would most likely be before Faith Formation classes on Sunday nights.

NO EXPERIENCE IS NECCESARY! ANYONE is capable of performing in this regard as there is no speaking, only movement. It is the perfect way to get involved in performing in a stress-free environment and a short and sweet performance/rehearsal process. There are roles with bigger parts and roles with smaller and simple parts!

Please email me (awass@stpaulgenese.net) by Sunday, February 26 if your teen is interested in participating in the Passion Mime so we can make arrangements and get started! Please include your teen's name, grade level, and their comfort level in performing (helps me to decide role size).

Thank you! I look forward to hearing from you!

~ Abby Wass: Shared Director of Youth & High School Ministry

Adult Formation

HOLY MOMENTS

"To discover who you really are and what you are here in this world to contribute, you need to start paying closer attention to the sacred truths bubbling up within your soul. You were made for more." So says Matthew Kelly on p 15. (We hope you picked up your free copy at church!) YOU ARE EQUIPPED RIGHT NOW TO COLLABORATE WITH GOD AND CREATE HOLY MOMENTS (p. 24).

A small faith sharing group member was chatting at the grocery store with another woman and mentioned she was a member at St Paul's. The woman responded she used to be Catholic but hasn't been in a long time. Our parish member felt prompted by the Holy Spirit to tell this woman she is always welcome at St Paul. When she saw her again at the grocery store, she extended the same invitation. That was a HOLY MOMENT, twice! Come, Holy Spirit, open our minds and hearts and eyes to those holy moments when we can collaborate in Your name. Send your examples of HOLY MOMENTS to mkral@stpaulgeneseenee.net so we can share them; our world NEEDS more holy moments!

RICE BOWLS

What you give can change the world.

Our almsgiving has the power to transform the world. During Lent, Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl invites you to reflect on some of the lives that are changed through Lenten almsgiving. How CRS uses alms: For more than 45 years, Lenten alms given through CRS Rice Bowl have supported programs that prevent hunger and poverty around the world, including the countries featured in the Lenten stories of hope. Seventy-five percent of gifts help support CRS' work in more than 100 countries. Twenty-five percent of gifts remain in each U.S. diocese where they are given to support hunger and poverty alleviation efforts in those communities. Each diocese uses this differently.

JOIN us at Stations of the Cross, Friday, March 10 at St Bruno for a simple meal of bread and soup, representative of one of the many recipes at the CRS Rice Bowls site <https://www.crsricebowl.org/recipe>. Pick up a CRS Rice Bowl after church. Talk with your family, better yet PRAY, about how you can set aside money this Lent for changing lives around the world. Return your Rice Bowl at the end of Lent.

Engaging in THE CATECHISM IN A YEAR is a long journey. It can get really tough to persevere through it when life gets busy, the language is difficult to understand, or you miss a couple of days. Here's some insight from Fr. Mark Toups (Ascension Lenten Companion) about being intentional with our spiritual growth.

"Rarely do we grow unless we are intentional about our growth. Intentionality primarily requires three things: we have to know what we want, we have to have a plan, and we have to have people hold us accountable. I ask you:

What do you want God to do in your life? When are you going to carve out time for prayer? Who is going to hold you accountable?

This journey could be life-changing, but it will not just happen; you must be intentional.

Second, intentionality requires that we have the courage to ask ourselves what may be preventing our spiritual growth. In other words, if we are going to carve out time for prayer, we may have to let go of using our time for other things.

Third, intentionality requires depth. If we are going to ask people to hold us accountable, then we have to have the courage to have a conversation with them at a very particular depth. This may require a bit more vulnerability as we share why we are asking them to hold us accountable. This will also mean that the conversation shifts to a deeper level, from the more superficial things of life to the more substantial things." (Source: Ascension Press) <https://ascensionpress.com/pages/catechisminayear> It's never too late to start.

In the Gospel Jesus is transfigured and a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased: Listen to him." Do we listen to Jesus when he asks us to take care of our brothers and sisters who are suffering? Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box will help the poor to celebrate the grace of God's love this Easter.

The Gospel of Life is "meant to be a precise and vigorous reaffirmation of the value of human life and its inviolability, and at the same time a pressing appeal addressed to each and every person, in the name of God: respect, protect, love and serve life, every human life!
