Anyone wishing to have a Mass celebrated at any of the scheduled Masses during the year 2020 can come to the rectory and enter through the front door starting at 10am on Thursday, August 8. The Sanctity of Marriage and the Marriage Act VII

I continue sharing the insights of Fr. Shenan J. Boquet who elucidates the prophetic words of St. Paul VI from the encyclical Humanae Vitae. Today's reflection continues explaining the fulfillment of the third of four prophecies contained in the encyclical.

If women have always been vulnerable to exploitation by men, the widespread use of contraception has made them doubly so, as Pope Paul VI rightly predicted. To understand why this is so, it is first necessary to understand some of the core sexual differences.

To begin with, men (on average) have a much stronger sex drive than women. Their sexual desires are also often only tangentially related to a desire for relationship or procreation. Their sex drive is also largely visually-driven and non-specific, meaning that men can be (and often are) instantly attracted to total strangers… If unchecked the male sexual appetite can easily become exploitative…

A woman's sex drive, on the other hand, is (on average) significantly less intense and more complex in its mechanisms. The science on this is quite clear: a woman's libido tends to be significantly more relationally-oriented and responds to an unpredictable mix of intangible factors such as feelings of personal security, a sense of emotional connection with her partner, a comfortable and undistracted environment, etc...

The problem with contraception is that it removes one of the primary incentives for a man to embrace (a healthy) ethos of self-denial. It does this by "de-sexing" sex.

That is, contraception suppresses the one aspect of sex that is overwhelmingly associated with the feminine: procreation. The chemical suppression of the woman's cycle and the removal of the possibility of procreation creates the illusion of rendering "moot" all that complex female reproductive business. It suggests to a man that he no longer has to worry about the "risks" of sex, or the demands that those risks make on him.

("The Third Prophesy of Humanae Vitae: The Collapse of Respectful Relationships" by Fr. Shenan J. Boquet*)*

More on this third prophecy next week.

Hours are Mon. - Fri. 10am to 6pm and Sat. 10am to 5pm.

We can all make a difference!

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

As the school year draws to a close, I would like to share with you some highlights of this past Religious Education Year. In November, one hundred and twenty three 9th graders were Confirmed in the Spirit by Bishop Walsh. It was a beautiful celebration of our faith. Also in November, all of the children participated in our Blessing Bag drive and we were able to put together 100 bags for the homeless at the warming center. The children also sent letters to veterans and participated in Christmas Stockings for Sr. Cecelia. Our two Tuesday 6th grade classes collected over 30 gifts for 2 families and for Good Counsel Homes. Our Advent Craft and Movie Night in early December was a huge success with over 60 children and their families in attendance; Deacon Tom was an awesome guest reader! In March, we had our Souper Supper and Children's Stations of the Cross. Our 8th graders participated in an evening of Taize prayer; it was an evening that touched the hearts of so many. Our 8th graders also received their Bibles and studied the Gospel of Matthew. Our 8th grade continues in their preparation for confirmation this November, and as part of their preparation they have logged hundreds of hours of community service.

In May, one hundred and twenty five 2nd graders received their First Holy Communion. We are so happy to have them join us at the Table of the Lord. Our second graders also led us on our May Crowning procession and read the Anima Christi prayer during our Corpus Christi Celebration. We are so proud of our young disciples as they begin their Faith journey. In May, sixteen of our Special Needs children were confirmed at St. Patrick's Cathedral. May God continue to bless them and all of our children who received the sacraments this year.

We were blessed this year with many of our former students returning as classroom assistants; a trend that I hope continues. The younger children enjoy having the older children in the classroom. Any High School student interested in helping in the classroom should contact the Religious Education office. We have a multitude of volunteer opportunities available.

As we begin to plan for the upcoming year we are in need of a few catechists. If you would like to join us in helping to form the children of St. Francis in their faith, please contact the Religious Education Office; stfrancisprepoffice@gmail.com or call 845-638-4215.

Finally, all of the above would not have been possible without the dedication of our catechists. I am truly thankful for the gift of each and every one. I am also thankful for the gift of Vicki Zugibe who attends to the needs of our catechists, children and families on a daily basis. I am deeply appreciative and thankful for the guidance and support of our pastor, Fr. Robert McKeon. He is a true gift to the Religious Education program. May you all have a blessed, restful and joyful summer. I look forward to seeing everyone in September!

Grace and Blessings,

Cathy Saladino

Ministry of Consolation

There are many ways that we might comfort families during the loss of a loved one. Receiving prayers and support from our Church is a great comfort to those who are grieving.

For many years, parishioners have chosen to minister as "Breakfast Providers". They prepare and deliver a selection of breakfast foods on the morning of the funeral. The list of members is based on a rotating schedule and the Ministry of Consolation assumes the cost for the breakfast.

If you would like to be part of the Ministry of Consolation by joining other parishioners as a Breakfast Provider please contact Sr. Pat Hogan at sfaphogan@gmail.com or at (845) 634-4957.

"NFP," as the U.S. bishops have written, is supportive of Catholic beliefs about married love because it "respects the God-given power to love a new human life into being" (see, U.S. Bishops, Married Love and the Gift of Life).
