Weekly Message

"When Jesus had risen, early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had driven seven demons." (Mark 16:9)

Popular Catholic piety sometimes posits that the newly risen Jesus appears first to the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is a happy thought, but it's simply not what the scriptures report. We are told quite directly that he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, "out of whom he had driven seven demons."

Why would the gospel writer remind us of this unsavory detail of Mary's past? Historians tell us women were not qualified to give legal testimony. On top of that, to be possessed by not just one, but seven demons, is unsavory and terrifying. What damage had they done to her? What did she do to allow herself to be home to such evil? It doesn't seem to matter. Jesus chose Mary Magdalene to be the first one who saw him risen from the dead. He decided she was qualified.

Do you think that you are disqualified from seeing and announcing the risen Jesus because of your past demons? Maybe they are the demons of despair, confusion, self-hatred, pride, addiction, failure, boredom, laziness, or other sins. Well, don't. In the light of the Risen Jesus, all these past demons make our witness that much more believable — only if we allow ourselves to be touched by the liberating hand of Christ, just as Mary Magdalene did. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Building The Domestic Church—Easter Edition

Hallelujah vs Alleluia

We “buried” the Alleluias during the Lenten season. Today we raise our Alleluias to celebrate Jesus’ victory over the grave. “Hallelujah” has been commonly used in religious and secular music, writing, and conversation for over two millennia. The definition of “hallelujah” is “praise the Lord.” Hallelujah’s word origin is from biblical Hebrew and is composed of two parts:

- the root, hallel
- the suffix, yah/jah

Hallel is derived from the Hebrew verb halal, which means to praise. The ending, yah or jah, is a shortened version of Yahweh, the Hebrew name of God, meaning “I am.”

Alleluia is the traditional Christian and proper English form of transcription. Hallelujah is generally used as a secular exclamation. (source: study.com)

Alleluia, Praise the Lord! Jesus is Risen!

Happy Easter,

~Amy Golden: Shared Director of Child and Family Ministry

Hebrew: “Hallelujah”

Greek: “Allelouia”

Latin: “Alleluia”

Adult Formation

AN ANCIENT PRAYER PRACTICE

Be still and gently pray. The labyrinth gives one a chance to see their lives in the context of a path. Upon entering, it is a time to turn over those worries we have. As we walk toward the center with an open mind and heart, we pray about that worry, and at the center, take time to leave it with God, trusting in Him. As we walk out, we thank God for His presence and reflect on what God wants us to do next. This Lent, high schoolers in the Youth Ministry program, grade schoolers at St Bruno, and parishioners of St Paul and St Bruno walked this symbolic pilgrimage in prayer. You may not always have the chance to walk a labyrinth, but because of His dying and rising, you always walk with Jesus, you are never alone. You are always loved by Him. Alleluia.
~Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Formation & Human Concerns

Holy Moments

HOLY MOMENTS

"Some moments are holy, some moments are unholy, and our choices can guide a moment in either direction." There are still copies of Matthew Kelly's book, HOLY MOMENTS, in the gathering space. LIVE the promise of new life in Christ this Easter season by focusing on collaborating with God.

"Don't let your past rob you of your future. You are more than the worst thing that has ever happened to you. You are more than the worst thing you have every done. God is never more than one choice away. It only takes one Holy Moment to shift the momentum of your life in the right direction. The rest of your life is waiting for you. It will be filled with moments. Will they be HOLY MOMENTS or unholy moments? The choice is yours." (p31)

HOLY MOMENT

Our small group was discussing an episode of the TV show, The Chosen. The apostles were healing the sick after Jesus sent them out two by two. Someone in our group asked "What if the person didn't heal?" Another member responded, "Maybe you're not healed physically but may be healed spiritually." When we pray for someone to heal and they are not healed physically, she believes there can be spiritual healing. Beautiful! I am inspired by her wisdom. Being in a small group is a wonderful opportunity to learn and grow together!

I read the first chapter and it was like the Holy Spirit slamming me on the side of the head saying, "This is for you."

Human Concerns

EASTER 2023

Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid.
Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me." |
Matthew 28:10

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The road to Calvary was filled with suffering, the cross and our Lord's death. It appeared that all was lost — but he lives! He is risen from the very tomb that enclosed him and he establishes the way. The joy of Easter is that God's love conquers. The way to the empty tomb and everlasting life is through uniting ourselves to the cross.

Let this Easter be a time of renewal for your faith. See the sign of the empty tomb and rejoice in Christ's victory over your own sin and death. Resolve to return to him with your whole heart, trusting that he will provide for your every need. Live in the joy of the Resurrection and share that joy with those who have yet to experience it.

Like the disciples, let's proclaim in our church and to others in our lives: Alleluia! He is Risen!

This Easter season, I ask all members of our Catholic faith community to commit to growing more deeply in relationship with Jesus Christ. Commit to participating in Mass fully every week with joy, and invite others to share this experience with you. Commit to receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation often, reading the Bible daily and praying always. Remember that the promise made by Christ thousands of years ago that his disciples would see him again is just as true today as when it was first proclaimed.

We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again. Happy Easter!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Jerome E. ListECKI Archbishop of Milwaukee

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter, we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice. It is then that we are truly Easter people!

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them Easter hope and joy.

WORD OF LIFE

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvi 31)."
