Weekly Message

I always feel a little sad when someone begins to speak to me with the words, "Father, I know you're so busy, but ..." It happens a lot. And I get it. He or she is trying to be respectful of my time. But it saddens me because a priest makes Jesus present to people in a special way, and Jesus always has time for us. Don't we all feel at times that God just doesn't have time for us?

Nonsense. Just look at the stunning "Road to Emmaus" story we hear this week. It's the day Jesus rose from the dead. And the Risen One appears in disguise to two disciples. He walks with them, chats with them, and eventually eats with them. It could have been hours he spends with them — two unnamed persons — in the middle of nowhere. On the day he rose from the dead!

My friends, please take this to heart: The Risen Jesus is not too busy to spend time with you! He doesn't have "better things to do." You and I are members of this crucified and risen Body. He therefore has all the time in the world to be with us. So, I challenge you this week to approach him confidently in prayer and conversation. After all, being with you and me is the reason he rose from the dead. — Father John Muir

WELCOME TO ST. BRUNO PARISH

Welcome! We are happy to have you join us at Mass. If you are visiting, looking for a new parish or just need more information about the Catholic faith, simply visit our website at www.stbrunoparish.com, call us at 262-965-2332 or email at stbruno226@gmail.com.

Council Members Wanted

St Bruno's parish is looking for volunteers to serve on the Parish Pastoral Council. This is a wonderful opportunity to get engaged in the parish community, share your time and talent while providing service to others.

The Council is a vehicle to fulfill the pastoral mission of Jesus and the Church by developing Catholic identity, promoting evangelization and fostering stewardship. We are a consultative group providing, planning, assistance and support to Father Dan and the entire faith congregation. Members of the council attend monthly meetings and serve as a liaison to one of our standing ministries; Prayer and Worship, Faith Formation, Human Concerns, Stewardship and Finance. Our Pastoral Council is made up of 12 members, two of which are trustees and Father Dan. The other 9 serve terms for three years and these terms are staggered so that four open every year.

We offer outstanding benefits. You will meet and engage with other parishioners, expand and enrich your faith and provide service to others as we strive to make St. Bruno's the best we can be. Nomination forms are available. Feel free to ask one of our ushers.

Building The Domestic Church—Celebrating The Entire Easter Season

Chances are you have packed away the Easter baskets and consumed the last of the Reese's eggs. Did you know that the Easter season actually lasts fifty days, from the Sunday of the Resurrection of Jesus to Pentecost Sunday. It is a way of prolonging the joy of the initial day. So how do we continue to celebrate the 50 days of Easter? We've already observed the Second Sunday of Easter with Divine Mercy. During the weeks leading up to Pentecost, I will share ideas on how to celebrate the Easter Season with your family.

- Display a resurrection set. Just like you have a nativity set during Christmas, have a resurrection set and display it somewhere prominent during the Easter season. Keep it out through Pentecost.
- Make your own Pascal candle, or get a white candle blessed by your priest. Light it each night at dinner through the Easter season.
- Go on a walk to remember how the disciples meet Risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus. At some point during the walk, take a break and read the story from the Bible Luke 24:13-35 to your kids, then ask: When did the disciples finally recognize Jesus? Who helps you understand the scriptures? How can going to church help you experience God's love in times of trouble?

WHAT IS THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PASCHAL CANDLE?

LIGHT The light of Christ that shines in the darkness. FIRE It represents Christ's resurrection. GRAINS OF INCENSE They represent the 5 wounds of Christ.		ALPHA AND OMEGA Christ is the beginning and end of all things. CROSS It represents Christ and his eternal light. YEAR It reminds us of God's presence here and now.

Safe Environment Week!

Did You Know... The Safe Environment Program in the Catholic Church is not only making our parishes and schools safe places for our children, youth, and vulnerable adults. We hope that all clergy, employees, and volunteers' task themselves with protecting the young and vulnerable in their workplaces, neighborhoods, communities, and even their own homes. Our goal is greater than just safe environments within the four walls of our parishes and schools, but safer communities for all God's children to live, learn and grow.

Adult Formation

Alleluia. Turn toward the SON and cast the shadow of your burdens behind you. HE is risen! This petunia came in the house last fall with the geraniums and over the winter looked like some sort of weed, it was spindly and unrecognizable. However, this spring it started blooming! What a surprise. Kind of like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, they didn't expect to meet Jesus. What a delightful surprise. Where are you finding God in unexpected places? Be open to the possibilities! ~Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Formation & Human Concerns

HOLY MOMENT

I was at Pick n Save and came back out to my car to find a note under the windshield wiper. On it someone had drawn a heart and written YOU ARE LOVED. That person has no idea how much that note lifted me up! I passed it on to another car nearby. God is good. All the time. ~Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Formation & Human Concerns

Encyclical: Laudato Si': On Care for Our Common Home Pope Francis

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures. You embrace with your tenderness all that exists. Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty. Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes. Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction. Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

Human Concerns

Care For God's Creation

Sometimes it seems we forget, it is God's creation. We read Genesis 1, where God gave Adam dominion over creation, which does not mean "domination or power over" but, as we read in Genesis 2, it means the ability to cultivate the land and care for it. It sounds like a partnership. God is asking us to be responsible stewards over the glory of creation, in which God remains present and active. "Domus", our common home, is the root word Pope Francis seems to use.

The earth is God's gift to everyone and everything, all needing each for survival and joy. Nature's resources belong to all, human and non-human, rich and poor alike, not for the profit and benefit of the few but for all. More and more we become aware of our interdependence with all God's creation, left in awe at the intricacy and responsibility of it all.

This God-given responsibility is demanding. We are called to reject false promises of excessive consumption, to choose a lifestyle toward a sustainable, equitable world economy, not based on material gain but on who we are together. Side-stepping consumerism, we might be surprised at the added time we have for family, friends, and civic and church responsibilities.

The common good is not just for ourselves but for future generations. What kind of world are we leaving for future generations? Is it a beautiful world where biodiversity flourishes, treated with affection and tenderness? Our hope is to hear of our cooperation "and God saw it was good". (Genesis 1) ~ Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Faith Formation & Human Concerns
