Ken's Kaleidoscope February 17, 2019

I invite you to pray for Doran Lefaive, a member of our hardworking parish maintenance staff. He is also among a group of men discerning the call to the diaconate. He and his wife Tammy have been involved in formation program for the past year and a half. Soon they will undergo interviews and psychological testing as the bishop decides whether they will continue into a more intensive formation program for the next few years.

Here's what happened at our facilities as a result of the polar vortex. The good news is that the roof did not leak in the sanctuary; the repair made last fall seems to have kept out the ice and water. The bad news is that one boiler froze (due to the cold air return); and one wall heating unit sprung a leak and flooded a small portion of the basement and one office. Some of the equipment we use also froze (snow blower, snow plow) and required repairs.

Fr. Basker is in India for a month of vacation, visiting his family and re-connecting with members of his religious community. The priests of the diocese will be on retreat from Feb 18-21 at the retreat house in DeWitt. At the conclusion of the retreat, I will depart for Dallas to teach about trauma recovery, and then attend an annual convention related to my work as Director of the Office of Priestly Life and Ministry. When I return I will be leading a half-day session with the Bishops of Michigan and religious superiors about trauma recovery.

Reflections on Personal Holiness by Pope Francis (18)

Jesus explained with great simplicity what it means to be holy when he gave us the Beatitudes. (cf. Mt 5:3-12; Lk 6:20-23) The Beatitudes are like a Christian's identity card. So if anyone asks: "What must one do to be a good Christian?", the answer is clear. We have to do, each in our own way, what Jesus told us in the Sermon on the Mount. In the Beatitudes, we find a portrait of the Master, which we are called to reflect in our daily lives. The word "happy" or "blessed" thus becomes a synonym for "holy." It expresses the fact that those faithful to God and his word, by their self-giving, gain true happiness. Let us listen once more to Jesus, with all the love and respect that the Master deserves. Let us allow his words to unsettle us, to challenge us and to demand a real change in the way we live. Otherwise, holiness will remain no more than an empty word. (para. 63-64, 66 in Gaudete et Exsultate)

Jay Landry 978-2331 jlandry@stcatherinesiena.org

Centering Prayer - Do you long for greater intimacy with God? Join us for Centering Prayer this Lent. God communicates in many ways and one of those ways is silence in mystery where God is not something to be figured out; rather, God as mystery embraces us, envelopes us, and gently loves us into the fullness of our true being, the being that God created.

Centering Prayer is the prayer of stillness and silence that invites us to be fully present to God and to contemplate God's presence. As many mystics and saints have pondered, "Suppose God is not a being but being itself…" Contemplative prayer is an invitation to move towards becoming one with God as Jesus says in John 10:30, "The Father and I are one." Centering Prayer can "center" me in God. It can help me gradually live into my true self in God.

Centering Prayer will be led by Jay in Trinity Chapel on the Tuesdays in Lent starting March 12 at 10:00 am or 5:30 pm. You are welcome to attend as many sessions as you wish. Please invite a friend or family member. Let Jay know if you need child care by Thursday, March 7.

Parish Lenten Retreat – "Stewardship: Becoming Sons & Daughters of God" is Saturday, March 16 from 8:30 am – 4:00 pm in Marian Hall. Lunch and childcare will be provided.

Does God treat us as sons and daughters of God? No. God made us sons and daughters through love. If that is true, then all people on earth are my brothers and sisters. Everything I have comes from God, and I am a partner in the co-creation and redemption of the world.

Stewardship is not an option for the follower of Jesus, and it is not about raising money. Rather, it is a joy-filled way of life, based on the reality that we are truly daughters and sons of God. My life proves it by the giving of my time, skills, and resources to God's mission.

Jay will offer two talks on the biblical foundations of stewardship. He will start the day on the encounter of Jesus and the Rich Young Man. And, will close the day with the encounter of Jesus and Zacchaeus. The bulk of the retreat consists of quiet prayer and the disciples of Jesus offering testimonies of their experience of conversion, of falling in love that leads to a joyful and free aligning of their lives with God's call to give of their time, skills, and resources.

Please bring a bible and a friend with you. If you wish to come, please RSVP to Jay by March 14. Early RSVPs are appreciated.

Celebrating Scout Sunday, February 17, With Our Boy Scout Troop 255

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Scouting is adventure, family, fun, character, leadership and so much more beginning in America on February 8, 1910. The program was started by Lord Baden Powell in England on August 1, 1907. Scout Sunday was added to the Scout celebration in the middle 1940s. The Scout Sunday tradition was started to make people in houses of worship aware of Scouting, and to allow Scouts to live out their "Duty to God" pledged each week. The Scout Law says that a "Scout is Reverent" and the Scouts of all ages promise to do their "Duty to God". These values strengthen youth character in their family, community and faith.

Thank you to all the Scout leaders and volunteers for your service and ministry to our youth. If your child is interested in becoming a Boy Scout, contact Paul Franz at paul.c.franz@gmail.com.

Catholic Charities
providing help, creating hope, serving all

The mission of Catholic Charities Diocese of Kalamazoo is to provide people with compassionate social services in the manner of Jesus Christ, to advocate for justice, and to cultivate caring communities in the Diocese of Kalamazoo. We envision respect for human dignity and ever-increasing stability and independence for individuals, families, and communities we serve.

Love, overflowing with small gestures of mutual care, is also civic and political, and it makes itself felt in every action that seeks to build a better world. Love for society and commitment to the common good are outstanding expressions of a charity which affects not only relationships between individuals but also "macro-relationships, social, economic and political ones"…When we feel that God is calling us to intervene with others in…social dynamics, we should realize that this too is part of our spirituality, which is an exercise of charity and, as such, matures and sanctifies us.
Laudato Si' ("Praise Be"), Pope Francis, 2015 #231.

A Giver's Need to Give

One of the strangest-sounding truths of stewardship is that the need of the giver to give is greater than the need of others to receive.

At first it sounds strange.

Strange but true.

Great artistic works come forth because of the need of the artists to give the gifts within them.

Even the Dead Sea is a dead sea because it is a dead end and has no outlet. It continually receives water but never gives water.

It isn't God who needs prayer. It's the person praying who needs prayer.

A person may be poor, rich, middle-class. But all people, to be fully human, need to share their time and skills and possessions with others.

We are made that way…like a rose is made to give to others its beauty and fragrance.
