Weekly Message

I recently rescued a dog. She's a terrier and rather adorable. And she's crazy about me. She could spend all day with me. But I'm a pastor at a parish and sometimes I leave her at the front desk of the church office. She constantly amazes me by her ability to distinguish between my voice and that of everyone else. If I say one word, even if I'm hidden around a corner, she'll sprint toward me and jump up into my arms.

This week the readings focus our attention to the voice of the risen Jesus Christ. Comparing his disciples to sheep and himself to a shepherd, he says, "They recognize his voice." He speaks to us and wants us to respond. When we hear his voice, we follow. Throughout this coming week, we will experience many interior promptings to receive God's love, and to love Him in return. That's his voice. Follow it into the safe and tender arms of Christ.

By contrast, some voices we will hear do not convey God's concern and love for us, but rather produce fear, despair, and other harmful mischief. Jesus calls these voices those of robbers. Does an idea or thought make it harder for you to love God? If so, run away. Let it go. It is most likely not the voice of the Risen Lord. Keep waiting for him to speak. You will recognize his voice. Then run to him as fast as you can. — Father John Muir ©LPI

WELCOME TO ST. BRUNO PARISH

Welcome! We are happy to have you join us at Mass. If you are visiting, looking for a new parish or just need more information about the Catholic faith, simply visit our website at www.stbrunoparish.com, call us at 262-965-2332 or email at stbruno226@gmail.com.

Council Members Wanted

St Bruno's parish is looking for volunteers to serve on the Parish Pastoral Council. This is a wonderful opportunity to get engaged in the parish community, share your time and talent while providing service to others.

The Council is a vehicle to fulfill the pastoral mission of Jesus and the Church by developing Catholic identity, promoting evangelization and fostering stewardship. We are a consultative group providing, planning, assistance and support to Father Dan and the entire faith congregation. Members of the council attend monthly meetings and serve as a liaison to one of our standing ministries; Prayer and Worship, Faith Formation, Human Concerns, Stewardship and Finance. Our Pastoral Council is made up of 12 members, two of which are trustees and Father Dan. The other 9 serve terms for three years and these terms are staggered so that four open every year.

We offer outstanding benefits. You will meet and engage with other parishioners, expand and enrich your faith and provide service to others as we strive to make St. Bruno's the best we can be. Nomination forms are available. Feel free to ask one of our ushers.

Stations of the Resurrection (Via Lucis)

We are all familiar with praying the Stations (Way) of the Cross or Via Crucis, especially during Lent. A more recent tradition is to pray a Via Lucis or "Way of Light," especially during the Easter Season. It has fourteen stations commemorating the resurrection of Jesus, the appearances of the Risen Lord, and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (which ends the 50-day liturgical season of Easter. Source: Catholic Resources.org

The Way of Light with scripture citations

Jesus Rises From the Dead (Matthew 28:1-10)
The Finding of the Empty Tomb (John 20:1-10)
The Risen Lord Appears to Mary Magdalene (John 20:11-18)
Jesus Appears on the Road to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-27)
Jesus is Known at the Breaking of Bread (Luke 24:28-35)
Jesus Appears to His Disciples in Jerusalem (Luke 24:36-43)
Jesus Gives the Disciples the Power to Forgive Sins (John 20:19-23)
Jesus Strengthens the Faith of Thomas (John 20:24-29)
Jesus Appears by the Sea of Tiberias (John 21:1-14)
Jesus Tell Peter to Feed His Sheep (Primacy of Peter) (John 21:15-17, 19b)
Jesus Commissions the Disciples on the Mountain (Matthew 28:16-20)
Jesus Ascends into Heaven (Acts 1:6-12a)
Mary and the Disciples Wait in Prayer (Acts 1:12-14)
The Holy Spirit Descends at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-13)

This is a new one to me! Upon further research I learned: In the summer of 1988, Father Sabino Palumbieri, Professor of Anthropology at the Salesian University in Rome, proposed the creation of a new set of stations, centered upon the Resurrection and the events following it. The first major public celebration of this devotion was in 1990. Take some time to ponder the Way of Light with your family!

Adult Formation

Recently a healing retreat for women (Undone) was held in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. The John Paul II Center for Healing facilitated a wonderful weekend experience. "The knot of Eve's disobedience was loosed by the obedience of Mary." (St. Irenaeus) We spent a lot of time focusing on our Blessed Mother. Our roles as sister, daughter, bride of Christ, and spiritual mothers were explored in terms of how woman images God in relationship, receptivity, and beauty. We investigated how Satan targets women in those areas and finally how Mary is a model of feminine identity, saying YES to God in all circumstances, to be attuned to God's voice in this world. (Go on a retreat if you haven't for a while, it is worth the time to refill your cup!)

A follow up Easter email message after the retreat was a genuinely profound and simple reminder of saying YES to God as Mary did, with the Holy Spirit's help:

We can transcend our brokenness into resurrection life. The work and desire of the Holy Spirit is that we may live the life of the risen Christ (CCC 1091). Are we really living into this resurrection life? We get to experience that resurrection life through the Holy Spirit. The more we LIVE in the freedom of the Holy Spirit – the more we live in the joy and the peace of the Holy Spirit, the more we live in the love of the Holy Spirit, the goodness, the faithfulness, the gentleness, the kindness, the temperance of the Holy Spirit, the self-control, we live in that resurrection life. ~Mary Kral: Shared Director of Adult Formation & Human Concerns

Live in love, not hate.
Live in hope, not anger.
Live in truth, not rumor.
Live in kindness, not rudeness.
Live in generosity, not selfishness.
Live in peace, not frustration.
Live in joy, not doubt.
Live in movement, not fear.
Live in love.

Understanding Your Grief

Ten Essential Touchstones for Finding Hope and
Healing Your Heart

Alan D. Wolfelt, Ph.D.

- Alan Wolfelt's Ten Essential Touchstones:
1. Open to the presence of your loss
 2. Dispel misconceptions about grief
 3. Embrace the uniqueness of your grief
 4. Explore what you might experience
 5. Recognize you are not crazy
 6. Understand the six needs of mourning
 7. Nurture yourself
 8. Reach out for help
 9. Seek reconciliation, not resolution
 10. Appreciate your transformation

Author, educator, and grief counselor, Dr. Alan Wolfelt is known across North America for his inspirational teaching. Dr. Wolfelt uses a "companioning" model of bereavement which emphasizes a nurturing, soul-based nature of the grief journey.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Fourth Sunday of Easter: Today, we celebrate "Good Shepherd Sunday" where we reflect on Jesus' care and love of us and hear his words, "I came so that they may have life and have it more abundantly."

By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul you will reveal the love of the "Good Shepherd" to your suffering brothers and sisters.

WORD OF LIFE

"People often say, 'I could never handle a child with a disability.' But the beauty of parenting is that you aren't given a child with a disability. You are given your child with a disability. Your child enters the world in a relationship with you, and that changes everything. You are not called to 'handle' a disability. You are called to love a particular person, and caring for him or her grows out of that love."
