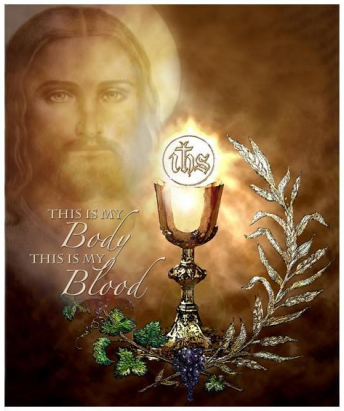
Sunday, June 6, 2021 The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ



Corpus Christi

Today is the great Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Traditionally called Corpus Christi, it is an occasion of deep faith, great joy, and solemnity. Corpus Christi reminds us of three things as Catholics. First, it reminds us of who it is that we are receiving and what we are doing when we approach the Eucharist. It is Jesus Christ, the Son of God, truly present in the Eucharist. Second, it gives us the chance to be grateful to the Lord, for so great a wondrous gift. Thirdly, Corpus Christi reminds us that we ought to look at the Lord together in communion. It is the Lord Jesus who has the power to unite us into one. This great feast calls us to realize that unity is not our gift to God but rather unity is God's gift to us and if we want unity, we need to look at the Lord.

Bishop Tobin restores the Sunday Mass Obligation

Effective Sunday, June 6, 2021, on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi

Bishop Tobin emphasized that since the pandemic lingers, some individuals are not obligated to attend Sunday Mass, and perhaps should not attend Sunday Mass to protect their health and safety, and that of others. These include those who are elderly and frail, those who have underlying health conditions, and those who have been advised by their health care providers to avoid public gatherings.

And as always, Catholics are dispensed from Sunday obligation for other grave reasons such as illness, caring for the ill, the unavoidable obligations of their employment, and travel that disrupts their schedules.
