1st Reading Acts of the Apostles 9

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus. The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers. The Word of the Lord

R. (26a) I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

2nd Reading 1 John 3

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us. The Word of the Lord

Gospel John 15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

An Easter Prayer

Almighty God, In the midst of a troubled world, help us to pause with your Apostles in the Upper Room. The door is locked and there is fear of tomorrow. As Jesus appears in their midst and bids them "Peace be with you" help us to receive the peace of soul that only your Risen Son can bring. Let the gifts of your Holy Spirit fall on us so that we may be courageous, loving, and wise in a culture that hungers for Your presence, yet does not know You. Unlock our hearts and send us forth, O Lord, to be heralds of your Gospel and so announce the Resurrection of The Crucified One. For Christ is our only hope; He is the Way, the Truth, and The Life. Amen.

YEAR of the EUCHARIST & ST. JOSEPH
ARCHDIOCESE of NEW ORLEANS

Monthly Explanation of the Mass

The Presence of Christ in the Word

- The proclamation of God's Word at Mass is central to our Eucharistic celebration: "The Church is nourished spiritually at the twofold table of God's word and of the Eucharist…The celebration of Mass in which the Word is heard and the Eucharist is offered and received forms but one single act of divine worship" (Introduction to the Lectionary, 10).

- When the Scripture readings are proclaimed, it is Jesus Christ himself who speaks to us and invites us into dialogue with Him. The Gospel is the high point of the readings – everyone stands (symbolizing the resurrection) and sings the Alleluia (except during Lent), greeting and welcoming Christ who is present with us. God speaks to the Church, the community at large, and to the individual person. Mass is the privileged place where God speaks to us!

- The Church encourages us to prepare for Mass by praying with the Sunday readings throughout the week, so that God's Word might grow and live within us more deeply – thus enabling us to know his voice and hear Him more clearly at Mass and in our daily lives.
