WEEKLY GOSPEL MEDITATION

I remember the first time my older sister asked me if I wanted to hold her newborn son. Terrified, I told her I didn't think it was a good idea. My résumé had nothing to suggest I would be a qualified baby holder. But she warmly told me, "I'll help you hold him." It struck me that she is baby's mother. She is the one who decides who is qualified to hold him. I took him in my arms and soon I began to feel comfortable with that tiny little warm cooing creature in my arms, and soon I no longer feared holding him. Now, twenty-seven nieces and nephews later, holding a newborn child is one of the great joys of my life.

Do we sometimes think that Jesus is given only to the highly qualified, special religious people? In the Gospel of Luke today we hear about the presentation of the Lord in the temple. The newborn son of God is passed around like a baton in a relay race, not guarded like a precious jewel or a breakable china dish. We can see him going from the arms of Mary to Joseph, then to the priest performing the ceremony, then to Simeon the old man, then to Anna the old widow. Each one receiving him and then handing him to the next. A tidal wave of joy and thanksgiving follows wherever he is placed.

Believe me, you are qualified to hold Jesus in your arms. How can I say that with such confidence? Because the mother decides who is qualified. The Blessed Virgin, embodied in the Church, holds him out to you and me. She rejoices to place him in our arms to hold, and to hand him on, too. — Father John Muir

CHILD & FAMILY MINISTRY

Feast Of The Holy Family

They Follow God's Lead
 The Scriptures paint the early life of the Holy Family as God calls them to a special mission. With the angel Gabriel, we greet Mary and learn of her calling to become the Mother of God. Our introduction to St. Joseph consists of him deciding to divorce Mary quietly, believing she brought shame and dishonor upon him and his family. But an angel invites Joseph to change his mind and take Mary into his home, to become the guardian of Mary and Jesus, the husband of Mary and foster-father of Jesus.

In that home at Nazareth we meet a couple who shows an openness to allowing God to lead their life together. Mary surely had other plans for her life; as many believe, she took a vow of virginity at an early age, so becoming a physical mother was something she did not anticipate. Yet, she heard God's invitation, and knew that His plans were better for her life; therefore, she gives her fiat — that is, her "yes" to God.

St. Joseph opens his heart to the messenger sent by God and takes Mary into his home. This would not be the first or last time that St. Joseph followed God's lead in his life as he protected the Holy Family. After Jesus' birth in Bethlehem, they follow the prompting of an angel to flee into Egypt for safety and wait there until another angelic message leads them back home. The Holy Family is a great example for families everywhere to always be open to whatever God's will might be and to always be listening for God to speak. He might speak his will in prayer or through another person. By our own prayer and discernment, we too can follow God's lead for our life.

Important Notice from Child & Family Ministry

Since that start of the quarantine during the pandemic, I have been writing a weekly bulletin article. The purpose was to help parishioners to learn more about the traditions of our Church, and offer ways for families to grow their Domestic Church.

Starting in the New Year, the focus of the bulletin articles will be to share what is happening in the ministry with pictures. This will probably be a monthly article in the bulletin.

If you have enjoyed the content of the bulletin articles in the last few years and would like to receive the weekly newsletter that is sent to the families with children in our program age 3 through grade 5, please contact Amy Golden at agolden@stpaulgenesee.net.

WAYS TO HELP IN 2024

VISIT the SICK, COMFORT the AFFLICTED

Both our parishes have talented, generous members who knit/crochet prayer shawls, baptismal blankets, and other items. If you are visiting someone who is sick, you are welcome to take along a prayer shawl to bring some comfort. Contact Yvonne Hickey (jonvon@execpc.com) at St Bruno or JoAnn Presta (jdpresta@gmail.com) at St Paul to make arrangements to pick out a handmade prayer shawl.

On a related note, if you are cleaning closets and find more yarn than you know what to do with, your donations will be transformed into vessels of comfort for the afflicted. Leave a message with your parish contact.
