God's Call to Us

(The St. Joseph Parish Mission Statement)

St. Joseph Parish is a community chosen and called by God to be sent and directed by the Holy Spirit.

It exists to provide the People of God the pastoral care and spiritual nourishment they need to proclaim the good news of Christ in their lives and to the world.

Our Response to God's Call

(The St. Joseph Parish Vision Statement)

St. Joseph Parish is a community of God's People empowered by the Holy Spirit to promote God's reign in the world.
Nourished by Word and Sacrament, we will grow together in faith, hope, and in a passionate love of God and neighbor.
In our families, we will teach and learn the love of Jesus Christ.
In our various occupations we will make decisions and set priorities in accordance with the values of the Gospel.
And in the world around us we will stand always for justice, compassion and peace.

Sacraments

Baptisms: We celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism every Sunday. Parents are required to attend a Baptismal formation meeting. Baptisms are scheduled at this meeting. Please call the Parish Center for reservations and further information.

Marriages: Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance to provide ample time for preparation of this sacrament. Please call the Parish Center for more information.

Sick or Homebound: If you or a member of your family is hospitalized or homebound and would like a priest to visit, please notify the Parish Center.

Parish Boundaries: North: Tollway; South: 59th St. East: Prospect Avenue and extensions north and south; West: Belmont Avenue

To Register Your Child at St. Joseph School

THANKSGIVING DAY—A HOLIDAY FOR GRATITUDE

Next week Americans throughout the country, and our servicemen and women overseas, will gather to give thanks to God, from Whom all blessings flow. Gratitude is universally recognized as a most desirable trait for believers and non-believers. Many friendships begin when someone remembers to say "thank you". When we do so we are showing our recognition of the fact that we are dependent upon one another. Thankfulness expressed to another leads us to acknowledge that there is One Who is above all others, before Whom there is no other, beside Whom there is no other. For, even when we rightly thank one another for favors, we know by faith that it is God Who has done that for which we cannot ever thank Him enough: He has saved us! The Sacred Scriptures, both Old and New Testaments are filled with words of thanks and praise to Almighty God. Jesus offered a beautiful prayer of thanks to the Father for his disciples and for all those to whom they would be sent to preach the Good News. Old Testament sacrifices were prescribed by the Law of Moses so that God's people would thereby learn the important lesson of the necessity, indeed, His command to them, and so to us, that we worship Him. Worship of God leads quickly to the desire to thank Him. "Give thanks to the Lord for he is Good, His mercy endures forever," the psalmist writes.

Our uniquely American holiday of Thanksgiving Day has us recall each year the story of the First Thanksgiving. The story every school boy and girl learns about the Pilgrims and the Indians. The Pilgrims, sorely tested by their trans-Atlantic journey at sea, were ill-prepared for the harshness of a wilderness that was quite foreign to them. No farms, certainly no commerce to speak of either, no cities or villages as in Europe. It seemed too, however briefly, that perhaps there were no other people in this strange land. The pilgrims truly stepped out in faith when they stepped aboard the Mayflower several months earlier in England. Not all of them survived the crossing of the Atlantic. Now, winter was setting in, supplies from the journey itself were nearly gone. Early efforts to clear the land for the planting of crops had yielded little in the way of what was needed for a long, uncertain winter. Because of their overwhelming desire for religious freedom, the Pilgrims embarked on a journey from all that was familiar to them. They were willing to risk all the uncertainty of crossing the Atlantic for the opportunity to start over, unimpeded by others' restrictions imposed on their worship of God. They knew the scriptures as God's Word. They knew and practiced the virtue of gratitude. They knew the Indians had truly saved them in an hour that well would have been their last. Without the Indian's help, and knowledge of the land, we might not have heard of the Mayflower and wouldn't have this holiday.

Giving thanks to Almighty God is good for individuals and for entire nations. President Abraham Lincoln established the fourth Thursday of November as Thanksgiving Day. He knew he led a divided yet God-fearing nation. He knew and spoke of his personal belief in God and God's Providence for himself and the country. The Founding Fathers of our nation also spoke of the importance of a belief in God that was practiced both privately and publicly without contradiction between these arenas. They saw to it that the laws of this new nation would reflect the Laws of God. They knew, some firsthand, that only tyranny can take root where God's laws are rejected. Makes you wonder if the framers of our Constitution and Bill of Rights would recognize the U.S. of today as the country they founded, in terms of their understanding of God's rights over us versus our understanding.

As we gather next Thursday on Thanksgiving Day, don't forget that, as Catholics, we give most sublime thanks and praise to God in the celebration of the Eucharist. The very word means "thanksgiving". Join us for Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 9:00 am.

Sincerely in Christ,
Fr. Albert

"Winter Coats for Kids" Drive

Reminder to please drop off your Winter Coats for Kids donation next weekend, November 20/21. The Knights of Columbus will collect the new coats after all Masses. Don't forget to attach the tag to the coat so each child will get the correct coat.

For questions, contact Dennis Arcaro, at darcarokofc@gmail.com, or any member of the Knights of Columbus.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE FOR LANCE

Lance Nogle passed away October 27, 2020. Lance lived his faith through service at St. Joseph Parish as a Religious Education teacher, RCIA sponsor, Eucharistic Minister, and Lector. He was also actively involved with the Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP) as a retreat leader. Our next blood drive is in Lance's Honor.

Wednesday DECEMBER 1

Advent: Waiting for God
A Day of Reflection

presented by Fr. Robert Traudt, O. Carm

This Advent season is filled with joyful expectation of God fulfilling His promises of a Savior for a people who know their emptiness and need. These four weeks of Advent occur during the busiest time of the year as people prepare for Christmas. Rather than simply join in the chorus to shop or to run around to have the best Christmas possible, Advent urges people to be still and wait upon God. We have spent a lot of time waiting, but for what? During this morning of Recollection, Fr. Rob will open those promises and help people focus on what is essential for the faith-filled Christian life during the four weeks of Advent.

Come and ADORE!

Keep the season of Advent!

Discover the depth of what it means to Prepare the way for the Lord!

This Advent, in addition to Sunday Eucharist and other devotional prayers and liturgies, you are invited to keep the season sacred on your own or with others by reflecting on what lies beneath the surface of our preparations for Christmas.

Each day, you can read the small reflection book, Adore, by the popular author Fr. John Burns and dive deeper into the meaning of Advent with:

- a meditation based on the scripture and liturgy of each day,
- stunning art specially created for this book,
- reflection questions to help you integrate the meditation,
- a concluding prayer,
- space for you to write your own reflections and thoughts.

Taking some small portion of each day will help you reclaim the sacred sense of longing and joyful hope that is the heart of Advent to remember the birth of Jesus at Bethlehem, and recognize the birth of Christ into your own heart, the living manger where Christ is born and lives.

- Purchase the Adore Guided Advent Journal after all Masses through November 21 for a suggested $5 donation.
- Choose to ADORE On My Own or With Others by registering below.
  Those who choose with others will gather three times during Advent.
  Choose the day and time frame that works and you will be contacted.
- You can also register at stjosephdg.org/adore or simply use the QR Code or place the form below in the collection basket at Mass
- All registrants will receive access to supplemental videos by Fr. Burns

ST. JOSEPH YOUTH MINISTRY

Stop in the church narthex after Masses on November 20 & 21 for some homemade baked goods!

A freewill offering will be gratefully accepted. All proceeds will be earmarked to help fund a delegation of teens from St. Joseph Church to the March for Life in Washington, D.C., January 20-22, 2022. This year we have teens traveling with St. Joseph Youth Ministry representing each of our local high schools - Downers Grove North and South, Benet and Montini. What a blessing! Any extra funds will be used toward the restart of our high school Pro-Life ministry, LifeSavers, which is sponsored by Students for Life of America.

Please know that St. Joseph Youth Ministry is profoundly grateful for the generosity of our parishioners throughout the year. We could not offer the life-changing opportunities for our teen leaders without your continued support - both spiritual and financial.

Gospel of John 18:33b-37 † Sunday, November 21

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Maranatha
Come, Lord!

Celebrating Advent as a Parish Community

During Advent, we remember Christ's first coming even as we celebrate his continuing presence among us today, and wait in joyful hope for his final coming in glory. The Church's prayers and scriptures evoke this sense of remembering, celebrating, and waiting. While we commemorate his first coming among us, we long to remember his powerful presence among us today in our hearts, in the Eucharist, and in those around us. We also prepare ourselves for Jesus' coming in glory, when all will be reconciled, healed, and made whole. If we take the time to quietly wait, to surrender to this "longing," we will come to recognize the Lord's presence!

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas
bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
