From the desk of
Father Mark Mertes, Pastor...

My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. (Luke 16.25)

"Not always so" is a phrase that can be helpful for our spiritual lives. When we have the Easter mystery of Jesus' dying and rising at the center of our lives we will be ready for the necessary letting go that happens and the inevitable moving on to something new. Change always comes! With the Holy Spirit these changes can make us more Christ-like. It matters not how old we are or what our economic or societal standing is. God is always transforming the present moment and we are invited to allow this transformation to be for the Good.

The rich man missed his opportunity to have his heart transformed by the poor man at his door—but he is not always rich…….and Lazarus is not always poor. Lazarus experiences the transformation that awaits all of us when we are willing to be changed by Christ's love.

Hijo, recuerda que en tu vida recibiste bienes y Lázaro, en cambio, males. Por eso el goza ahora de consuelo, mientras que tu sufres tormentos. (Lucas 16.25)

"No siempre es así" es una frase que puede ser útil para nuestras vidas espirituales. Cuando tengamos el misterio Pascual de la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús en el centro de nuestras vidas, estaremos listos para el necesario abandono que debe de suceder y el inevitable paso a algo nuevo. ¡El cambio siempre viene! Con el Espíritu Santo, estos cambios pueden hacernos más parecidos a Cristo. No importa la edad que tengamos ni cuál sea nuestra posición económica o social. Dios siempre está transformando el momento presente y estamos invitados a permitir que esta transformación sea para el Bien.

El hombre rico perdió la oportunidad de que su corazón fuera transformado por el hombre pobre en su puerta, pero no siempre es rico... y Lázaro no siempre es pobre. Lázaro experimenta la transformación que nos espera a todos cuando estamos dispuestos a ser cambiados por el amor de Cristo.

Stewardship and
September 29's Readings

Paul says to Timothy, "…pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith." In spite of how simple it sounds, this can be very difficult to live out. That is exactly what we are called to do. It all begins with pursuing righteousness." We should strive to exhibit our Christian values in every aspect of our lives, to be the best versions of ourselves and to share our gifts with the world. By continuing to seek lives filled with holiness, we're responding to God's call to each of us—a call to be His disciple.

Pablo le dice a Timoteo: "... busca la justicia, la devoción, la fe, el amor, la paciencia y la gentileza. Compite bien por la fe ". A pesar de lo simple que suena, esto puede ser muy difícil de vivir. Eso es exactamente lo que estamos llamados a hacer. Todo comienza con la búsqueda de la "justicia". Debemos esforzarnos por exhibir nuestros valores cristianos en todos los aspectos de nuestras vidas, ser las mejores versiones de nosotros mismos y compartir nuestros dones con el mundo. Al continuar buscando vidas llenas de santidad, estamos respondiendo al llamado de Dios para cada uno de nosotros, un llamado a ser Sus discípulos.

Sunday, September 29
is "Priesthood Sunday"

Priesthood Sunday is set aside to honor and pray for our priests who bring Christ to us through the sacraments. They do many things unseen, and they pray for us every day. Priests are not looking to be recognized, but would appreciate your prayers and support during this difficult time in the Church. A card with a note of appreciation and a promise of Masses, rosaries, or prayers for them would be very meaningful to our hard-working priests.

Support Group for Victims/Survivors of Sexual Abuse:

As Catholics, our first response in regard to victims/survivors of abuse is for healing and reconciliation. The Archdiocese is launching a support group for survivors of sexual abuse harmed by an agent of the Church or other perpetrators. The group will meet twice a month, beginning in October, at a location in Johnson County. This is a safe, supportive environment to be able to talk about the impact to your lives and your feelings, to know you are not alone, and to promote healing. To protect the privacy of potential participants, please contact Linda Slater-Trimble by email at lslater-trimble@archkck.org or at 913-298-9244 for the days, times and location of the meeting. Must be at least 18 years of age to participate.
