The Epiphany of the Lord

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last Thursday, the funeral Mass for Pope Benedict XVI was held in Rome. This Sunday is the final day of his requiem novena. Please offer a prayer for the repose of his soul. He served God and the Church well. His highest office was as Bishop of Rome from April 2005 until February 2013. He accepted the position as the Vicar of Christ and the successor of Saint Peter as he did for each of his ministries. That is, rather than exalting himself, he relied on God to guide his discipleship. He dedicated to God his gifts as a priest (ordained 1951), theologian, professor, diocesan bishop (1977-1982), Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (1991-2005), and pope.

I recently read his Spiritual Testament which he released on August 29, 2006, less than two years after becoming pope. You can find it at www.vaticanews.va (a the Vatican website). In it, he looked back at his life. He expressed gratitude to God, his parents, family, teachers, students, co-workers, and to all who were entrusted to his service in the Church. I heard in his words a humble recognition that everything and every person is grace, a gift of God. He acknowledged God's presence and mercy came to him no matter what the darkness or confusion, joy or pleasure was happening. I am grateful for his life and his example to me of discipleship. "May the soul of Pope Benedict XVI and all the Faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."

Yours truly in the Sacred Heart,
Father Pat
