Feast of Corpus Christi—
the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

THE SACRAMENT OF ABIDING PRESCENCE

The Eucharist — his body, blood, soul, and divinity —is the sacrament of Jesus' abiding presence within us. He is with us in our need. We are aware of this mystery only in faith, with the spiritual eyes of a pure heart. We are not left abandoned or orphaned to figure out this messy life according to our own whims and fascinations. He gently tethers himself to us in the Eucharist, so our sorrows are his, our tribulations and trials are his, our joys are his. Our life becomes his life because his life courses within our souls. So, the Eucharist is not an event we attend or a commodity we consume, but the mystery of a Person we encounter that brings peace into the senseless and broken world in which we find ourselves today.

—Br. John-Marmion Villa
