FROM FATHER TERRY

J+M+J

On the second Sunday of Lent, we always hear of the Transfiguration. This may be the case because of an ancient tradition that tells us that the Transfiguration occurred forty days before Good Friday. Being in Year C, we are given St. Luke's version of the Transfiguration. (Lk 9:28-36) At the Transfiguration, Jesus gives us a glimpse of his heavenly glory. He is transformed before our eyes. This is what Lent is all about. To be transformed by the Lord. One of the ways that this can happen is told to us by God the Father in today's Gospel. He says of Jesus, "'This is my chosen Son: listen to him.'" (35) Listen to him! There is so much in this statement. One of the ways to change our hearts this Lent is to listen to the voice of Jesus. We can often do a lot of the talking in prayer. However, how are we at listening? It takes a great deal of patience to listen for the voice of Jesus. We live in a world that seeks instant gratification and immediate results. This is not the way of God. Why? He wants us to spend time with him and love him. This Lent, may we enter the holy silence of God and hear his voice.

We are off to a wonderful Lenten start. I thank those who came to view the "Exhibit of the Eucharistic Miracles of the World" created by Blessed Carlo Acutis. The crowds were wonderful! I heard so many compliments. We thank Dr. Bill and Mary Ryckman for lending us the exhibit. The donations collected at the exhibit go toward the "Real Presence Eucharistic Education and Adoration Association," which promotes devotion to Jesus' True Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. To learn more about this powerful association, their inspiring information and videos, and their catalog, please visit therealpresence.org. May God bless Bill and Mary as they take the exhibit around to other churches. A variety of books were offered at the exhibit. One of the books was The Eucharistic Miracles of the World, which contained the exhibit in book form. These sold out quickly. If you are interested in purchasing the book through the parish, please find information in the bulletin. Once we hear from you, we will do a mass order to save on cost. I will personally miss the presence of the exhibit and the visitors. However, we know that Blessed Carlo will remain with us. Blessed Carlo, pray for us!

Our first Thursday Lenten Mass series on the Eucharist was also well attended. Please keep in mind our Lenten theme, "Transformed by the Eucharist." Stations of the Cross and our fish fry were also very well attended. May we continue to keep our Lenten momentum going!

We lend special focus this weekend to those in RCIA. Our nine candidates are Erica Brandon, William Hanna, Sarah Maldonado, Robert Mahaffey, Theresa Marr, Anh Nguyen, Duy Nguyen, Jayden Nguyen, and Kha Nguyen. They are considered candidates because they have already received Baptism. The candidates will be fully initiated into the Catholic faith at the Easter Vigil. They will take part in the "Penitential Rite" at today's 9:30 a.m. Mass at St. Robert. This rite, like a scrutiny, is meant to help the candidates be purified as they prepare to receive the rest of the Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil. Please keep our candidates in your prayers!

Please find information in the bulletin regarding our final synodal session. It is this Monday evening, March 14 at St. Angela Gym. Please consider coming out to assist the Holy Father in discerning the Church's mission in today's world. You can register at the doors of church, on our website, or by contacting the Parish Center. Please note that there is a Participant Guide that you will need to prepare for the session. The guide can be found online. Please contact the parish center if you need to have the guide printed. We are also seeking volunteers to assist with hospitality and note-taking. Details are in the bulletin.

Finally, we celebrate St. Patrick this Thursday, March 17 and St. Joseph this Saturday, March 19. What beautiful feast days. I will begin with St. Joseph, the spouse of Mary and foster father of Jesus. Scripture so beautifully and simply captures St. Joseph in saying that he was a "righteous" man (Mt 1:19). That is, St. Joseph was a true friend of God, one who was focused on God and tried to please him at every turn. He succeeded!

We also rejoice in St. Patrick. He was not Irish, but perhaps from Wales. As a teenager, St. Patrick was captured by pirates and enslaved in Ireland for about six years. While enslaved as a shepherd, he had a massive conversion. He eventually made a miraculous escape and returned home. After some time at home, he felt called by God to return to Ireland to help convert a pagan nation. The rest is history. Tradition tells us that he drove the snakes out of Ireland, which is a sign of him bringing Christ to the country and ridding out unbelief. To this day, there are no snakes in Ireland. We are also told that he taught the people about the Holy Trinity using a shamrock.

I plan to march in the St. Patrick's Day Parade with my brother Corey and family this Saturday, the 12th. If you are there, please give a shout out. Happy St. Joseph's Day and Happy St. Patrick's Day!

Thank you to all who attended the Eucharistic Miracles of the World Exhibit!

The first-class relic of Blessed Carlo, before which all were welcome to pray and reflect, and through which any item touched to it became a third-class relic.

It is a blessing that all copies of the book The Eucharistic Miracles of the World sold out during our hosting of the exhibit. We are compiling a group order for anyone interested in purchasing this volume, which contains the Eucharistic Miracles displayed. Books will be approximately $25 each, but price would decrease with a higher volume of orders. Anyone interested may contact the Parish Center by the end of March at 412-672-9641 or cnola@marymotherofgod1.org.

Blessed Carlo Acutis, pray for us!

THE GLOBAL SYNOD

Pope Francis needs our help! He is inviting us to come together to discuss various questions that will help him to identify the Church's mission. Our remaining session will be:

Monday, March 14, 2022
St. Angela—School Gymnasium
6:30-7:00 p.m.—Light Reception
7:00-9:00 p.m.—Session
PLEASE NOTE THE UPDATED VENUE FROM PARISH CENTER TO GYMNASIUM!

Please register for the session after Mass in our churches OR on-line at marymotherofgod1.org OR with the Parish Center at 412-672-9641 or bjones@marymotherofgod1.org.

You are asked to look over the Participant Guide before attending the session. Guides can be found on our website, marymotherofgod1.org, or at https://www.diopitt.org/journeying-together. If you are unable to print the guide at home, please contact the Parish Center.

SYNOD VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Note-Takers: Note-takers will be seated at a table with 6-8 participants and record what is shared during the session. They will record key words, phrases, and experiences heard as well as dynamics observed in the small group. At the conclusion of the session, note-takers will review the notes, check for correct spelling, then immediately submit the information to the Facilitator. The ideal skill set includes the ability to remain neutral, listen carefully, and stay focused. If possible, recording should be done digitally, i.e. iPad, laptop, etc.

Hospitality: The hospitality volunteers will be responsible for setting up a refreshment table 45 minutes before the session begins. And most importantly welcoming the participants with a warm and friendly smile.

Please contact the parish center by e-mail: bjones@marymotherofgod1.org, or by telephone: 412-672-9641 if you are interested helping out in these vital roles at our Synod session.

PRIVATE MASS INTENTIONS

The Mass is the highest form of prayer we have. We are blessed that the masses for 2022 are filling up with intentions. However, if you would like to have a private mass celebrated for one of your intentions, please fill out the form below and return it to the Parish Center or place it in the offertory with a $10 stipend per intention marked "Private Mass Intentions."

Please note that intentions may not be requested for a specific date or priest, as availability varies. Thank you!

LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence. The Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence in the United States.
2. The obligation of abstinence (refraining from eating meat) begins at the age of 14. The law of fasting (limiting oneself to one full meal and two lighter meals) obliges all between the ages of 18-59. No one should consider this obligation lightly.
3. Those individuals who have a medical condition in which fasting may be considered harmful are not obliged to fast, but should perform some other act of penance or charity.
4. Pastors and parents are to see to it that minors, though not bound by the law of fast and abstinence, are educated in the authentic sense of penance and encouraged to do acts of penance suitable to their age.
5. Notable during this Lenten season is that the Solemnity of the Annunciation falls on a Friday. Because of this, there is not an obligation to abstain from meat on Friday, March 25, 2022, the Solemnity of the Annunciation.
6. All members of the Christian Faithful are encouraged to do acts of penance and charity during the Lenten season beyond what is prescribed by the law.
7. As a general rule, a request for a dispensation from the obligation of abstinence on Fridays of Lent will not be considered unless some serious reason is present. The attendance at social events, banquets, wedding rehearsals or receptions, or funeral wakes are not considered sufficient reason to request a dispensation.

INDULGENCES—Stations of the Cross

As we pray the Stations of the Cross, there is information in the back of some of the booklets used in church regarding indulgences. Indulgences are offered by the church to take away the temporal punishment due to sin. That is, although confessed sins are forgiven, there remains the residue of sin that still needs removed through continued conversion. A plenary indulgence is granted to those who take part in the stations. A plenary indulgence is a full remission of temporal punishment in contrast to a partial indulgence which is a partial remission of temporal punishment. Those who are impeded can gain the indulgence by spending at least a half an hour in reading and prayer on the passion and death of Jesus (i.e., doing the stations at home). A plenary indulgence can also be gained by saying a prayer before a picture or image of Christ Crucified on any Friday in Lent (a partial indulgence is granted on any other day). For any plenary indulgence the following requirements must be met within a reasonable time: the sacrament of Reconciliation, Holy Communion, prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father, and with the soul unattached to sin. Indulgences may also be applied to the dead.

CHRISTIAN MOTHERS
