WELCOME, FR. TOM MARGEVICIUS

Fr. Tom Margevičius was born 1961 in Cleveland, Ohio of immigrant parents: mother from Germany, father from Lithuania.

After receiving a BS in Wildlife Management from West Virginia University and working for the DNR (Department of Natural Resources) as an Interpretive Naturalist in the Ohio State Parks, he came to Minnesota to serve with NET (National Evangelization Teams) ministries and SPO (St. Paul's Outreach).

He eventually joined the Companions of Christ, a local community of diocesan priests, entered the Seminary, and was ordained in 1999 with an MA in scripture.

His first two years as a priest were at Nativity of Our Lord in St. Paul, then St. John the Baptist in Dayton, MN. He was assigned to the St. Paul Seminary in 2003 and achieved both an STL (Sacred Theology) and Doctor of Ministry degree from Catholic University of America in Washington, DC.

He taught Liturgical Theology and Homiletics for 17 years. In 2018 Archbishop Hebda appointed him Director of the Archdiocesan Office of Worship — a position he holds part-time today — and has celebrated the Mass in 7 languages, including Spanish and American Sign Language. As hobbies he enjoys playing guitar, bird watching, and a hearty Imperial Stout while puffing a robust cigar.

Welcome Fr. Tom, we can't wait to meet you!!

MASS HAS BEEN CANCELLED @ MARYSBURG ON WED., 9/7 AND @ NATIVITY ON FRI., 9/9..

(MASS WILL BE CELEBRATED FRI. 9/9 @ ST. MARYS 9 A.M.)

The Mass: 101

A series: #7-The Structure of the Mass

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

The Eucharistic Prayer

This article focuses on The Eucharistic Prayer (not to be confused with the broader and more inclusive term, the Liturgy of the Eucharist). The Eucharist Prayer is made up of the following parts: Thanksgiving; Acclamation; Epiclesis; Institution Narrative and Consecration; Anamnesis; Oblation; Intercessions; and the Concluding Doxology.

The Thanksgiving is most clearly expressed in what is called the Preface. This begins with the priest inviting the congregation to "lift up their hearts" and join him in giving "thanks to the Lord our God." Here's an excerpt of a Preface which could be said by the Priest at this weekend's Mass: "It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks…For by his [Jesus'] birth he brought renewal to humanity's fall state, and by his suffering, canceled out our sins; by his rising from the dead he has opened the way to eternal life, and by ascending to you, O Father, he has unlocked the gates of heaven…" (Preface IV of Sundays in Ordinary Time).

Now the people join the Priest and all the angels and saints in heaven in giving praise to God in the Acclamation. Together we "cry out" "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest…" (this communal prayer/hymn is referred to as the Sanctus, which is the Latin word for "holy.")

The congregation then kneels, signifying an important moment which is about to occur. We shift to the Epiclesis by which "the Church implores the power of the Holy Spirit that the gifts offered by human hands be consecrated, that is, become Christ's Body and Blood…," (GIRM, chap 2, #78, c.).You may hear the Priest say this prayer this Sunday on behalf of the people: "Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you: by the same Spirit [i.e. the Holy Spirit] graciously make holy these gifts we have brought to you for consecration, that they may become the Body and Blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose command we celebrate these mysteries" (Eucharistic Prayer #III).

The Institution Narrative and Consecration follows by which the Priest, standing in the person of Jesus Christ, recalls the events of the Last Supper and pronounces the words of Jesus: "Take this all of you and eat of it, for this is my body which will be given up for you…Take this all of you and drink from it, for this is the chalice of my blood…

Fr. James Stiles

Do this is remembrance of me." It is crucial to realize that while it is the Priest at Mass who speaks these words, it is really Christ who speaks through him; for, only Jesus Christ has the power to transform the bread and the wine into His Body and Blood. As at the Last Supper, the sacrifice of Christ on Calvary is made present to us at this moment in the Mass. Here and now, we stand with Mary at the foot of the cross!

The Anamnesis is what follows and hereby we especially remember and celebrate Jesus' glorious passion, death, resurrection, and ascension into heaven. The beginning of the Anamnesis is introduced and partaken in by the people as we together proclaim: "We proclaim your death O Lord, and profess your resurrection, until you come again."

The Oblation is a set of prayers which make it clear that it is the Church, here and now, who is offering to God the Father the perfect sacrifice, Jesus Christ. Further, "The Church's intention, indeed, is that the faithful not only offer this unblemished sacrificial Victim [Jesus] but also learn to offer their very selves, and so day by day to be brought, through the mediation of Christ, into unity with God and with each other, so that God may at last be all in all" (GIRM chap 2. #78, f.)

A series of Intercessions follow which ask that the power of this Eucharistic sacrifice would bless the Church, the world, the living and the dead. This signifies our communion with the rest of the universal Church, and we hereby "participate in the redemption and salvation [of the world] purchased by the Body and Blood of Christ" (GIRM chap2. #78, g.).

Finally, the Concluding Doxology expresses the glory of God and the faithful join their intention to this by their resounding "Amen!": "Through Him and with Him and in Him, O God almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, forever and ever…Amen!"

Stay tuned for what's next in the Mass!

With fatherly love,

Fr. Stiles
