Promises

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Treasures From Our Tradition

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a "big church," as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a cathedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop.

When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that "the seat is vacant," and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedra. No one but the bishop sits in the cathedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the cathedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the cathedra out for the bishop's point of view.

Prophetic Living

The Corinthians knew what it was like to experience distress and suffering, much of which they caused themselves. Their Christian community, founded not twenty years after Jesus' death, faced heart-wrenching disagreements and scandalous behavior. To encourage them, Saint Paul wrote that their "momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison." Saint Paul does not deny their suffering. He does not pretend being a Christian is easy. Instead, he invites the Corinthians to accept their difficulties and put them in perspective: the heaviest burden on earth weighs nothing compared to the mighty glory God has prepared for us in heaven. Living with this perspective makes us prophets. A prophet speaks God's truth to the world and points God's people back to the Lord. When we live in prophetic hope, believing in God's eternal glory, we remind the world of God's mighty, merciful plans for humanity. Like Saint Paul, we can encourage others to endure suffering bravely and not to grow weary doing God's will. Jesus promises that if we do the will of God, we are his "brother and sister and mother." We are his family. And he always protects his family. © J. S. Paluch

Sacraments, Liturgy and Prayer

Vocation Spotlight: Paul Broussard

Growing up in Kaplan, Louisiana, like every other youngster, I was trying to determine my path in life. Late in the 8th grade, after much prayer, I decided to enter the Immaculata Seminary in Lafayette. I spent two years pursuing a priestly vocation. Alas, it was not to be. I left the seminary and finished my high school education back in Kaplan. Again it was time to determine a path forward. In my junior year I received and accepted a congressional appointment to the US Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland. I studied hard and was overjoyed to finish the difficult Plebe Year (freshman year). The second year was less stressful, but as the year progressed, it became more apparent that the military life was not for me. So that was "strike two." I left after two years and then pursued an engineering degree at USL in Lafayette. The year before I graduated I accepted a summer engineering job with Texaco in Morgan City. While there, I met the most captivating, kind, and beautiful young girl who had just begun work at that same Texaco office. I was smitten! After returning to USL for my final year we stayed closely in touch. I drove back and forth from Lafayette to Morgan City to be with her. I graduated in 1975 and took a permanent job with Texaco and returned to the same Morgan City District office. In June of 1976 I married Terri, the love of my life. We have now been happily married for 42 years and have four magnificent grown kids, who we are very proud of, and three wonderful grandchildren. So, after two strikes/failed attempts I ultimately found my vocation and certainly have never regretted it. Isn't it amazing how things work out? God always has a plan. Married life was His plan for me.

As a sponsor couple for OLL's marriage preparation course, we try to pass on our married life lessons to engaged couples and have been doing that for some 15 years now. It's a very rewarding pursuit and part of our way of giving back!

Spiritual Adoption Program Week 36:
Your baby is almost ready! The only organ still to mature is the lungs. If he hasn't already, this week your baby may drop into the birth canal. Fat is dimpling your baby's elbows and knees, and forming creases in the neck and wrists. His skin is growing smooth and his gums are very rigid. He has a fully developed pair of kidneys and his liver has begun processing some waste products. Your child's size is now 18.66 inches and 5.78 pounds. Between now and birth your baby will gain about an ounce a day!

Sock Collection for the Homeless: Starting this weekend and through July 1st, we will be collecting NEW mens' crew socks (white or black) for the Fr Harry Tompson Center, a ministry to the homeless in New Orleans.

The Harry Tompson Center is known throughout the community as a place that is always there and willing to lend a helping hand. Whether that means providing someone with a hot shower, a free long distance phone call, a place to rest and relax, a physical checkup or finding housing, the Center is committed to improving the quality of life of all guests and treating them with dignity, respect and compassion, after the example of Jesus.

Please place all packages of new socks in the drop boxes located at the back of the church and in the Chotin Center. Thank you in advance for your generosity toward less fortunate brothers and sisters.

June Respect Life Gathering: The next Respect Life Gathering will take place on Tuesday, June 19th at St. Jane de Chantal in St. Jane Hall at 6:30 PM. The topic for the gathering will be Focus on End of Life Issues with presenter Mary Kantlehner sharing about her organization, Angel's Place. Angel's Place provides help for families of young children with terminal illnesses. Come join us, pray together and learn more about the issue.

From Archbishop Aymond/Ministry News

How Should I Dress For Mass?

by Archbishop Gregory M. Aymond

Summer is here, which in New Orleans usually means dressing down even more casually than we do at other times of year. I know the issue of church attire is a sensitive one – especially in an area where it's hot nine months out of the year.

What's your perspective on how people should dress for Mass? I have a variety of feelings about this. There's a part of me that remains grateful to God that a person is in church, regardless of how he or she is dressed. I certainly realize there are individual circumstances where a person may have other responsibilities and is not able to dress in what we might consider an appropriate manner, so I want to be sensitive to that. At the same time, the church is a sacred place – truly holy ground. It is a consecrated place where we meet God in a unique way through the Scriptures, through the assembly and through the Eucharist. At some level, our attire speaks to the importance or unique nature of what we are doing in that sacred space, worshiping God in the Sunday assembly. When people go to social events such as weddings or anniversaries or graduations, they most often dress with care. That's not to say they are in formal attire, but they are dressed appropriately. Shouldn't we also take the same care as we go to church to experience God's presence in a unique way through the Mass?

What's been your experience of how people dress for church? I think we've all been aware that there are some who at times dress too casually for Mass. In some cases, one might even question the level of modesty in attire. I think it's important for all of us to note that our attire should not be a distraction to other people. This goes for both men and women. I don't think we need to wear T-shirts that advertise beer or that have inappropriate words that could bring offense to someone else. Again, I think the responsibility lies with each individual. We should act with charity and responsibility and not be a stumbling block to someone else's worship experience.

Is the problem also just a general relaxing of dress codes in the culture? That does have something to do with it. Everybody knows about "Casual Fridays" and events like that. Fewer people wear coats and ties to the workplace. It used to be that to get into a fancy restaurant in New Orleans, you had to be dressed appropriately. Men had to wear a jacket and tie. Nobody could walk into a restaurant in flip-flops. Those days are largely gone. I realize that the more we live in a casual society, that relaxed dress code becomes more the norm. I want to be sensitive to that reality. At the same time, I'd like to continue posing the question: Does the way we dress for church say something about how we view the importance of the event? I'd like to reiterate: I am always grateful to God that people are in church with the desire to celebrate the Eucharist. To me, attire is always a secondary consideration. Nevertheless, it is worthy of our consideration. I'm not sure how much God cares about our attire, but dressing appropriately is a way of our saying to God and to others that we value the Eucharist and see it as sacred and as the source and summit of our lives as Catholics. My prayer would be that people truly would understand what it means not to be a distraction to others in such a sacred moment. I'd love to encourage more people to live up to the adage of wearing their "Sunday best" – not to show off but as a concrete way of thanking God and caring for our neighbors in the next pew.

When should my grown child be taken off of my record? Adult children who have moved or married are encouraged to register at OLL or in their parish of residence.

Can I be registered in more than one parish? No, you can only be registered with one parish who will be sacramentally responsible for you and your family.

How do I receive envelopes? When you register, you will begin receiving envelopes when our next quarter report goes out to the company. If you sign up for online giving, we remove you from envelope distribution. If you do not wish to receive envelopes, please call the office at 985-626-5671 or email OLL@ollparish.info and request to be removed from the distribution list.

Why should I give to the Church? Only with the sacrificial offering of all our members, can we ensure that Our Lady of the Lake remains a vibrant, active faith community. With your offering you can ensure that we are able to meet our financial obligations to maintain our ministries, programs and facilities, pay a just wage to our parish staff, support the needs of the larger Church and assist our brothers and sisters in need.

Are contributions tax deductible? Yes. We will have information on requesting your tax statement in upcoming bulletins. If you participate in online giving, you can print your statement through your online giving account at your convenience.
