A NOTE FROM DEACON RAY

Accompaniment

The good are densely clustered at the gate of heaven, eager to march in, sure of their reserved seats, keyed up and bursting with impatience. All at once, a rumor starts spreading: "It seems He's going to forgive those others, too!" For a minute, everybody's dumbfounded. They look at one another in disbelief, gasping and sputtering, "After all the trouble I went through!" "If only I'd known this..." "I just cannot get over it!" Exasperated, they work themselves into a fury and start cursing God; and at that very instant they're damned. That was the final judgment.

While clearly harsh, this quote from the playwright Jean Anouilh makes a good point: the way to get into heaven is to want other people to get in too. It's not just all about me, but also what I do to bring others to Christ.

There's this word accompaniment that we're hearing a lot about lately. It's not a new idea but Pope Francis describes it by saying, "[W]e need a church capable of walking at people's side, of doing more than simply listening to them; a church that accompanies them on their journey..." He calls us to be more a church of mercy than one of rules; a field hospital where we care for the spiritually lost and injured and guide them toward an experience of the risen Christ. He asks clergy, religious and laity to accompany all who seek answers for making sense of their lives and offer guidance in their brokenness and confusion.

We have a good model for this – Jesus. We see in the gospels that he never condemned those who were suffering or those who wanted to believe. Jesus drew them to himself and gave them what they needed to grow in faith. For some it began with physical healing and for others he offered them forgiveness. In Mark's gospel Jesus says, "Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. I did not come to call the righteous but sinners." And we are all sinners. Jesus spent time with sinners, outcasts, and the poor – and he asks us to do the same. Accompaniment.

For those of us who are parents, we promise at each child's baptism to accompany him or her in the formation of their faith. We do not hand that responsibility over to others but walk with them, modeling what we believe and help them to appreciate the call of the gospel and the love of God. We may not have all the answers, but we have a loving church and faith community to help us when we need it.

Likewise we are called to accompany others in their search for God. Some do so as catechists and sponsors in the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). Some reach out as ministers to the sick and homebound. Others listen and gently inspire faith in their friends, family and co-workers.

We accompany people wherever we find them in their faith journey with great patience and without judgment. We look for signs of how God is working in their lives and encourage them to embrace what they find. Like an invisible pianist who accompanies a singer, a good accompanist is present only to support the seeker who reaches towards heaven. We trust God will do the rest.

- Deacon Ray

LITURGY

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

I am pleased to announce that Rebecca Mitz will succeed Rachel Garcia as Holy Family's new Business Manager. Rebecca is a long time parishioner and formerly the office manager at St. Francis of Assisi Church. She comes to us with much knowledge about the needs of our parish and qualities to help us meet our needs. We are blessed to have Rebecca join our staff.
Please join me in welcoming Rebecca!

OUR NEW BUSINESS MANAGER

Thank you for your warm welcome to Holy Family Parish Staff. My family has been members of this community for a number of years, beginning with baptizing our youngest daughter in 1996 to my husband, Ed and I volunteering as money counters. We have two daughters, Rebecca and Jessica, who attended school here, celebrated their sacraments here and have gone on to be viable, contributing adults in the Bay Area.

I have been fortunate enough to work in faith filled communities most of my career, most recently working at St. Francis of Assisi as Office Manager since September 2013. I am pleased and honored to continue my career back at Holy Family together with this vibrant, faithful parish clergy and staff.

May God bless us and our ministry together.

RCIA Q & A

Q: What is the role of the assembly in the experience of the elect? How can the assembly be helpful to them?

A: Initiation is the responsibility of the entire parish community. The assembly accompanies the elect in this last phase of their journey—through participation in the scrutinies and presentations, by providing witness to the life of Christ, a listening ear, and hearts filled with gratitude for their presence. Members of the assembly can make an effort to reach out to the elect, share conversation, and pray for them.

2ND COLLECTION NEXT WEEK

St. Vincent de Paul Society

The second collection on Sunday, March 29 is supposed to be for the St. Vincent de Paul Society. We will likely not have Masses on that weekend. SVdP provides assistance to low income and homeless families who need emergency help with rent, food, payment of past utilities, and transportation expenses. Also, in a few weeks, we had planned to do our Easter Basket project but that will now be postponed. People now more than ever are in need of basic help. We will do our best with whatever we get. God bless you for your generosity.

HOLD ON TO THOSE SURVIVAL SACK ITEMS

We've asked you to collect items for Survival Sacks for the Homeless, the Sacred Heart Community Services program we pack backpacks for each year. Our first collection was going to be March 29. But that has to be postponed due to the temporary ban on Mass. We ask that you hold onto them, set them aside, and maybe add to them from time to time. For the toiletries and other items we need, please go to https://holyfamilysanjose.org/survival-sacks. Meanwhile, as we pray for our loved ones during these trying times, pray for the vulnerable homeless, as well. And keep 2 Cor. 1:3-4 in your mind and heart.

MASS INTENTIONS 3

Since all of our public Masses have been suspended for at least 2 more weeks, Fr. Celso is saying his private masses for all of your intentions.

Please pray for us and with us that this whole situation will be resolved soon.

PLEASE PRAY

For those who have died:

For those who are ill:
Diane Alich

STEWARDSHIP

Average Weekly Goal: $20,000

Thank you for your generosity!

CRS RICE BOWL

When you donate to CRS Rice Bowl, you share your life and your abundance with families all over the world. Your generosity puts nutritious food on their tables and helps them lead healthier lives. As Jesus teaches us in the Gospel story of the loaves and the fishes, your small offering can feed many, and what may seem like a little, can actually be a lot. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more. Return the Rice Bowls to the Parish Office once it's safe to leave home. Thank you!

VOLUNTEER PIANIST

We are looking for a volunteer pianist to play for every 4th Sunday of the month at 11:15am Mass with the St. Josephine Bakhita Choir. Please contact Cristina Ruiz in the Parish Office.

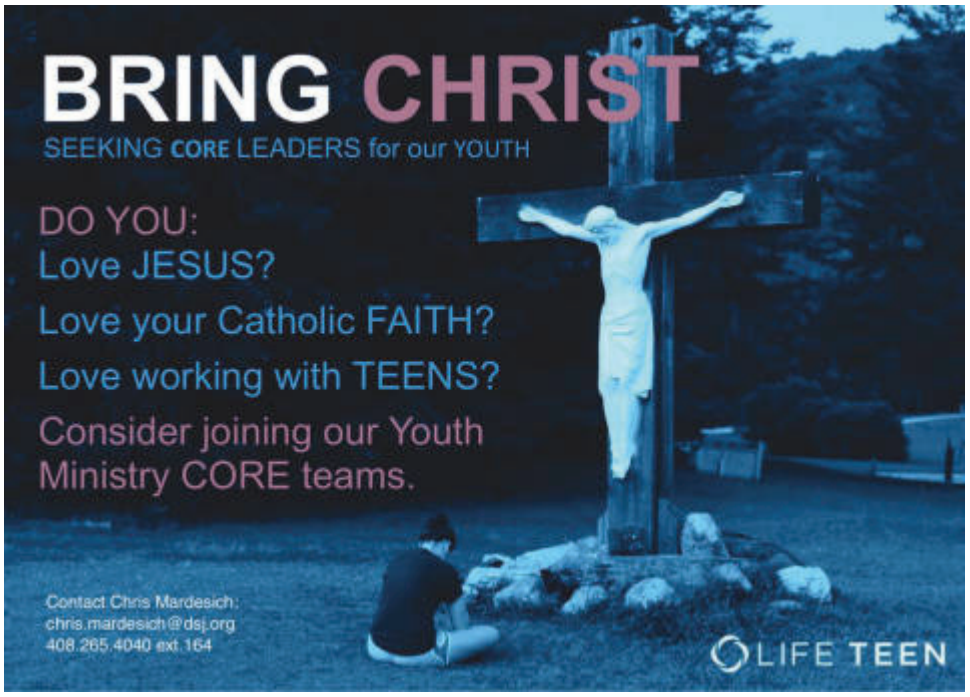
IT'S EASY BEING GREEN
Next Saturday (3/28), join millions of people in over 185 countries and territories in the annual EARTH HOUR. At 8:30 pm turn off all your lights for an hour. It's a way to indicate to people in power that we want action when it comes to protecting our environment.

TIJUANA MINISTRY
BASICS Tijuana Ministry is again helping the very poor in Eastern Tijuana, Mexico. We are making two week-long trips this summer. During the week of July 4-11 we will have children's, teen's and mother's programs and build 3 homes. During the week of July 11-18 we will build 2 homes. You can make a difference by coming with us and sharing your talents. We need translators, construction workers, first aiders, and people who love to make new friends and learn new things. We love teaching in those areas as well. Volunteers from high school age and up are welcome. For more info, contact Mimi Bini at mbini@sbcglobal.net. Go to www.tijuanaministry.org for additional information or to apply. Application deadline April 1st.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER
MARRIED COUPLES. Give your marriage a well-deserved vacation. Plan to go on a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend and come back with a marriage that is refreshed and full of energy! The next Marriage Encounter Weekends include: May 15-17 in San Jose and Aug 1-2 in San Francisco.

For more information and/or to apply for a Weekend, visit our website at: sanjosewwme.org or contact Ken & Claranne at applications@sanjosewwme.org or 408-782-1413.

CATHOLIC ROADMAP
When we ask our children about Lent, the first that comes to mind is what they will give up. However, it's not always about sacrifice but about seeing how much more mindful we can all be during this period of time! Choosing something that will make you a better person or help the world around us. Let us strive for that during Lent 2020!!



CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION

Faith formation is a continuing journey of faith. Since families are the domestic Church, where love for Jesus grows in the love of spouses and in the lives of children, Holy Family provides opportunities for families to engage in building this foundation together. Our Faith Formation program is a process of learning about the teachings of the Catholic Church and developing a personal understanding of Jesus. Students are taught in age appropriate classes and learn with their peers. Contact Maria: maria.chacko@dsj.org or 408-265-5374.

WE NEED CATECHISTS & ASSISTANTS

Are you serious about your faith? Do you enjoy communicating with children? We need you! Faith Formation catechists are needed for Children's Faith Formation and Sacrament Preparation Sessions. For more information, please contact Maria: maria.chacko@dsj.org or 408-265-5374.

SCRIPTURE STUDIES ON HOLD

Our Monday morning and Tuesday evening Bible study groups are exploring, "The Prophets" by Tom Smith and Sarah Christmeyer. We are considering what it is to be called out by God to speak the Word of the Lord under the direction of the Holy Spirit and to understand how the Old Testament Prophets influenced Jesus' New Testament teachings. No scriptural experience is necessary. Choose a time that works for you:

Mondays from 10am-Noon in the Faith Room contact Donna Holt at goodsamnurse@gmail.com or 408-371-3682 or Victoria Flynn at 408-603-9473.

Tuesdays from 7-9pm in the Faith Room contact Neyla Brown at Neyla7@aol.com or 408-314-1751.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

Now through April 5, you're invited to join other Christians for 40 Days for Life – 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You're also invited to stand and peacefully pray in the public right-of-way outside Planned Parenthood, 1691 The Alameda, San Jose and to help spread the word about this important community outreach. If you'd like more info – and especially if you'd like to volunteer to help, please contact: Rilene at 831-262-5498, or rilene@comcast.net or the website, www.40daysforlife.com/sanjose2.

At this time, let's pledge to pray "together" from our individual homes for this!

LIFE TEEN EDGE

For Life Teen and EDGE: All Youth Ministry gatherings are cancelled until the end of March. Watch for further notices. Stay up-to-date on the latest Life Teen and EDGE news, including great prayer resources, via our Youth Ministry Newsletter. Subscribe in the Youth Ministry section of our website. Our Core team is praying for you!

THE RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS GOING ONLINE FOR NOW

At Holy Family we offer sessions for those who are interested in discovering more about the Catholic Church. This process is known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, or RCIA. The process is for all persons who are age seven years or older and not yet baptized. You may be the one, or know of someone, who has an interest in learning more, and is asking questions. For information, please call Cristina Ruiz at 408-265-4040 x110.

HELP WITH RCIA

We are looking for people who can help with tasks such as setting up and cleaning up for RCIA retreats and receptions.

We are also looking for a few people to assist with "dismissals" for those who are in process to become Catholic. You would accompany those being "dismissed" from Mass to explore the Word of God. If you read and reflect on Holy Scripture and pray, you have met the qualifications to do this ministry. Please contact Cristina Ruiz in the parish office for more info.
