Your first responsibility is to take care of your needs and the needs of your family - not necessarily all their wants. In looking at what we need versus what we want, we end up placing material things and money in their proper perspective.

2nd Collection, February 11/12
Catholic Home Missions Appeal

"Home Missions" is the name for dioceses and parishes in the United States, including its territories and former territories, which cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass and sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters and lay people.

For many decades, the Church in the United States has sent missionaries overseas to serve the people of Latin America, Africa, Asia, and Oceania. The home missions are dioceses and parishes here in the United States that need the same kind of support. Please be generous on the weekend of February 11/12 to help strengthen the Church at home. Your support will truly make a difference.

A Message from the Pastoral Associate

Theresa Fugardi

Annual Day of Prayer and Awareness Against Human Trafficking.

Human trafficking is an open wound on the body of contemporary society, a scourge upon the body of Christ. It is a crime against humanity." —Pope Francis February 8th is the feast day of St. Josephine Bakhita. As a young girl, she was a victim of human trafficking in Sudan and Italy. Once freed, she became a Canossian nun and dedicated her life to sharing her story and comforting the poor and suffering. On her feast day, Catholics throughout the world are encouraged to host or attend prayer services to create greater awareness of human trafficking as well as to comfort, strengthen, and help empower survivors. (USCCB).

It is estimated that there are over 40 million victims of human trafficking throughout the world today, with reported cases in every one of our 50 States. Though anyone could fall victim, regardless of sex, age, race, citizenship status, socioeconomic level or educational attainment, the poor and the vulnerable remain most at risk. Particularly women, children, migrants, runaways, homeless youth and people with mental illness.

Pope Francis:

I have always been distressed at the lot of those who are victims of various kinds of human trafficking. How I wish that all of us would hear God's cry: "Where is your brother?" (Gen 4:9). Where is your brother or sister who is enslaved? Where is the brother and sister whom you are killing each day in clandestine warehouses, in rings of prostitution, in children used for begging, in exploiting undocumented labor? Let us not look the other way. ~ Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium

What can we do?

Pray – Join us Wednesday, 7 PM, as we gather together to pray for victims of human trafficking during holy hour.

Grow in Awareness & Engage – Learn the issues; discover the signs of human trafficking and how to help; learn how purchasing power has an impact on human trafficking – for better or for worse.

"I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something and I will not let what I cannot do interfere with what I can." - E. HALE

Prayer for Victims of Human Trafficking

For the women, men, and children currently held in slavery-like conditions, may freedom be restored to those who have been bought, sold, or kidnapped for the monetary benefit of others.
Bring them hope and freedom.

For those in bonded labor,
in agricultural fields. mines and factories,
who have been reduced to tools of production and commodities rather than human beings,
Bring them hope and freedom.

For children exploited and objectified in the commercial sex industry.
that they may be free to play, learn and grow up in freedom and safety.
Bring them hope and freedom.

For consumers, that we may be aware of how we are complicit in human trafficking when we demand products made by people who are enslaved;
and that we may speak and work for justice for all those who are trafficked.
Bring them hope and freedom.

God of hope and freedom,
inspire us to act for justice and bring an end to human trafficking.
Help us to build a world where all are free to live with dignity.
Amen

AN INVITATION TO LOVE
A Personal Retreat on the Great Commandment
By William Barry, SJ

Join us in this Lenten "retreat," Tuesday mornings or evenings as we go deeper with the great commandment: to love God and love our neighbor. When we experience God's deep love for us, we can respond with a growing love for God which will transform us into people who love our neighbors, too, whoever they are.

William Barry's joyful confidence in God's desire for our friendship prepares a welcoming and walkable path to conversation with God and renewal in our hearts.

This book is available on Amazon and other booksellers. Participants meet weekly throughout Lent, Tuesdays: 1:30 - 3:00 PM or 6:30 - 8:00 PM to discuss the readings and share personal insights. Sign-up in the Gathering Space. Questions? Contact Theresa: tfugardy@saintroseoflima.com

William Barry is a spiritual director, theologian and director for the New England Society of Jesus. He has taught at the University of Michigan, the Weston Jesuit School of Theology and Boston College,

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Following upon the teaching of the Beatitudes, Jesus uses the now familiar metaphors of salt and light to describe the life of discipleship. Jesus' call to be the salt of the earth and light for the world powerfully states our mission as Church and Christians. When we feed the hungry, clothe the naked, console those who mourn, and so on, we show ourselves to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. When we do these things with the community of faith, the Church, we are indeed acting as "a city set on a mountain" that cannot be hidden!
