The Cross of Loneliness

There are more people living on our planet now than have ever lived in human history at one time. In the United States there are over 300 million inhabitants. With so many people crammed ever more crowdedly into limited spaces it seems counterintuitive that a great many of those people experience loneliness…but it's true.

What is loneliness? Loneliness has nothing to do with the physical presence or absence of other people. A person can be surrounded by family and friends and still be very lonely; on the other hand a person can live a solitary life or just be alone but not suffer from loneliness. Loneliness means believing or thinking that other people just don't care. Young people, senior citizens, and everyone in between can be found living in this isolation and sadness. It is a torment to believe that none of your fellow men and women love or care about you, yet it is easy in our fast-paced world where everyone is taking care of their own needs to neglect the person sitting next to them.

Too many people believe themselves to be inadequate or unlovable in today's society. Glittering images of beautiful, clever and successful people are put before us every day and it's hard to measure up. This often leads to poor self-image and the belief that somehow I am unsatisfactory and am not worthy of the time and attention of other people. True, there are lots of people who pull themselves up by their bootstraps and jump into social situations and activities. Good for them! But we cannot ignore those many unseen people who just want to know that they are appreciated and valued. We can't take it for granted that just because someone has many names programmed into their cellphone that they truly connect with others. The lonely go through the day just hoping someone will care enough to call, email or text them – yet they are afraid of being a nuisance so they often won't take the initiative to reach out to others. In fact, studies show that the technology that should bring us closer together actually makes many of us impersonal and too eager to escape into gadgets so we don't have to deal with one another.

Does God get lonely? We can only speculate. Certainly He made all creation and everything and everyone in it. Certainly He is surrounded by the angels who offer their homage at every moment. But how often is Jesus left alone in the tabernacle of an empty parish church? How many people go to sleep at night without having checked in to say "hello" and "I love you"? God is not alone, but we could certainly see where He might get lonely. He doesn't want His presence to be taken for granted either. He wants to hear from us.

If you suffer from loneliness, feel the presence of the whole Church united in prayer with and for you. Although you might not experience it, you are loved and valued by God and men. And all of us could adopt a great Lenten practice that should extend beyond the forty days of this season: fill in the loneliness. Just a word, a phone call, an email or a text can be just the human contact someone needs to let them know that you care and that they are a loved and valued member of the human family. Loneliness is an affliction that can be fixed; there are enough of us around to do it! With a little more attention and thoughtfulness we can become true companions on the journey of life making our way to the Kingdom of Heaven.

Landings
Landings is the name of a program designed to assist inactive Catholics back into the full practice of the Faith. Sometimes after being away from the Mass, the Sacraments, and the life of the Church, it can be hard to take that first step. A new eight-week LANDINGS series will begin after Easter. There is no pressure, just an invitation to explore the possibilities. Please call Suzanne Carr, 301-645-5203, for more information.

Lent 2018

The Season of Lent

The 40 days of Lent are a period of penance for sins committed and of renewal of faith, hope and love. The first four weeks of Lent focus on our own conversion while the Fifth Week of Lent and Holy Week focus on the Passion and Death of the Lord Jesus. Lent is characterized by prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. These practices help us grow in the spiritual life, increase virtuous habits, and exhibit self-discipline, which is necessary to live the Gospel. In the Scriptures, "forty days" indicates "a long time" and was never intended to be a strict mathematical calculation. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and concludes on Holy Thursday, the first day of the Sacred Triduum. The "Sundays of Lent" are, of course, Lenten days and do not interrupt the Lenten Season.

Daily Mass

8:00 a.m. each morning

Lenten Regulations

Fast – Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence from meat. Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive are bound by the law of fasting – limiting ourselves to one full meal and two lesser meals (with no eating between meals) as an expression of penance.

Abstinence – Catholics aged 14 and older are bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent.

Stations of the Cross

6:00 p.m. on Fridays of Lent (Spanish)
7:00 p.m. on the Fridays of Lent with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament (English)

Each year the Archdiocese of Washington launches a pastoral initiative to encourage the Sacrament of Penance. On Wednesdays during Lent from 7:00 to 7:30 p.m. Confessions will be heard in the Chapel of Our Lady of the Fields. This program, begun in our own Archdiocese, has been imitated in dioceses throughout our nation and around the world and is very popular. Please make use of this wonderful opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Penance on Wednesdays during Lent.

Almsgiving

Catholic Relief Services "Rice Bowl" – Through CRS Rice Bowl, we hear stories from our brothers and sisters in need worldwide, and devote our Lenten prayers, fasting and gifts to change the lives of the poor. Each day of Lent, individuals are invited to use the Lenten Calendar—included with every CRS Rice Bowl—to guide their Lenten almsgiving. These daily almsgiving activities—for example, give 25 cents for every faucet found in your home—help families reflect on the realities of our brothers and sisters around the world and how they can be in solidarity during the Lenten season. Rice Bowls are available at the doors of the church. We ask for your support in helping us count the donations by converting loose change to dollars or a check made out to St. Peter's Church (notation CRS Rice Bowl) and to return to the Office for Christian Formation by Wednesday, March 28. Call Alice Culbreth at 301-843-0583 x 155 for more information or to get additional Rice Bowls.

Share in Hope Food Collection – sponsored by Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington. Bags will be available the beginning of March and the collection of food will be the following weekend, March 10th & 11th. Kindly bring your donations of non-perishable food items to Saint Peter's School. Plenty of volunteers will be on hand to assist you. Food will be used by Saint Peter's Parish Saint Vincent de Paul Society or donated to local food pantries.

Spiritual Reading

Beautiful Hope – this book, written by Catholic author and speaker Matthew Kelly and other contributors, invites us to rediscover the beauty and truth of our Catholic Faith. This book can be a helpful companion to the Lenten Season of conversion. Copies will be distributed at the beginning of Lent at the entrances of the Church.

Del Padre Woods

La cruz de la soledad

En este momento, hay más personas que viven en nuestro planeta que en la historia de la humanidad. En los Estados Unidos hay más de 300 millones de habitantes. Con tanta gente atestada cada vez más en espacios limitados, parece contradictorio que muchas de esas personas experimenten soledad ... pero es verdad.

¿Qué es la soledad? La soledad no tiene nada que ver con la presencia física o la ausencia de otras personas. Una persona puede estar rodeada de familiares y amigos y aún estar muy sola; por otro lado, una persona puede vivir una vida solitaria o simplemente estar sola, pero no sufrir de soledad. La soledad significa creer o pensar que a otras personas simplemente no les importa. Los jóvenes, las personas mayores y todos los que están en el medio se pueden encontrar viviendo en este aislamiento y tristeza. Es un tormento creer que ninguno de sus compañeros hombres y mujeres lo aman o se preocupan por usted, pero es fácil en nuestro mundo vertiginoso donde cada uno se ocupa de sus propias necesidades para descuidar a la persona que se sienta a su lado.

Demasiadas personas se creen inadecuadas o no dignas de ser amadas en la sociedad actual. Las brillantes imágenes de personas hermosas, inteligentes y exitosas se ponen delante de nosotros todos los días y es difícil de medir. Esto a menudo conduce a una pobre autoimagen y la creencia de que de alguna manera soy insatisfactorio y no soy digno del tiempo y la atención de otras personas. Es cierto que hay muchas personas que se detienen por su cuenta y se lanzan a situaciones y actividades sociales. ¡Bien por ellos! Pero no podemos ignorar a tantas personas invisibles que solo quieren saber que son apreciadas y valoradas. No podemos dar por sentado que solo porque alguien tiene muchos nombres programados en su teléfono celular que realmente se conectan con los demás. Los solitarios pasan el día simplemente esperando que alguien se preocupe lo suficiente como para llamarlos, enviarlos por correo electrónico o enviarles un mensaje de texto; sin embargo, temen ser una molestia, por lo que a menudo tomarán la iniciativa de acercarse a los demás. De hecho, los estudios muestran que la tecnología que nos debe acercar hace que muchos de nosotros seamos impersonales y ansiosos por escapar a los dispositivos para no tener que lidiar entre nosotros.

¿Dios se siente solo? Solo podemos especular. Ciertamente Él hizo toda la creación y todo y todos en ella. Ciertamente, está rodeado de los ángeles que ofrecen su homenaje en todo momento. Pero, ¿con qué frecuencia se deja a Jesús solo en el tabernáculo de una iglesia parroquial vacía? ¿Cuántas personas van a dormir por la noche sin haberse registrado para decir "hola" y "te amo"? Dios no está solo, pero ciertamente podríamos ver dónde se podría sentir solo. Él tampoco quiere que su presencia se dé por sentada. Quiere saber de nosotros.

Si sufres de soledad, siente la presencia de toda la Iglesia unida en oración con y para ti. Aunque es posible que no lo experimente, Dios y los hombres le aman y le valoran. Y todos nosotros podríamos adoptar una gran práctica de Cuaresma que debería extenderse más allá de los cuarenta días de esta temporada: llenar la soledad. Solo una palabra, una llamada telefónica, un correo electrónico o un mensaje de texto pueden ser solo el contacto humano que alguien necesita para conocerlos y que son un miembro querido y valioso de la familia humana. La soledad es una aflicción que se puede arreglar; ¡Estamos lo suficientemente cerca para hacerlo! Con un poco más de atención y consideración, podemos convertirnos en verdaderos compañeros en el camino de la vida hacia el Reino de los Cielos.

Excerpt from Fr. Joe Breighner's
"More Reflections Along A Country Road"

ADVICE

Advice is like a good road map. It can show us the best way to go, but we have to decide to make the trip. And just as no road map can include all the detours and roads under construction, so no advice can substitute for our own judgment and character. On the road of life we all have to get lost and find our way on our own. We cannot avoid making mistakes. Unfortunately, too many of us fail to learn from our mistakes and that only makes matters worse. As a witty person said, "Experience is what you get when you don't get what you want." In other words, when we try and fail, at least we have the experience of what did not go right.

The experience of trying is more important than any failure.
