

The Grapevine Newsletter

St. Bruno Parish, Dougman

Thursday, October 13, 2022

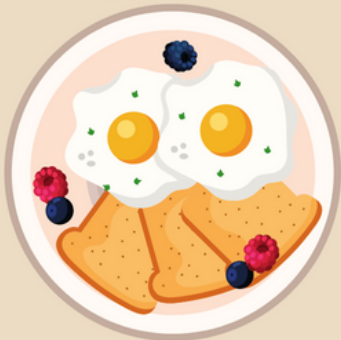

I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.
--John 15:5

Things to think about:

The brook would lose its song if you removed the rocks.

Patience is a form of everyday love.

When praying, don't give God instructions, just report for duty.

Missed last week's Mass? Catch it here on YouTube.

October is traditionally the month of the holy rosary.

Pray this powerful and simple prayer to experience the life of the Holy Family through the eyes of Mary.

With chilly weather settling in, now's a good time build a book library for your child! Click here for a list of Catholic books for kids!

Stewardship Spotlight

Be Careful What You Wish For

"As Christians we shouldn't be surprised to look ourselves in the mirror and own that reality. We are not as strong as we may think."

Everyday Stewardship's Tracy Welliver explains that "being careful what we wish for" is not always a warning, but a statement of God's strength. Read his latest blog post here.

All couples celebrating their 25th (silver) anniversary, 50th (golden) anniversary, and couples married over 50 years are invited to the annual Jubilee Mass!

It's a wonderful way to bless your union and celebrate your marriage with friends and family.
