PASTOR'S CORNER

Today's scripture readings portray a God who is close to His children. The passage from Daniel is written against the background of the persecution of the Syrian king, Antiochus IV Epiphanes (about 165 B.C.). The forces of evil seem to have the upper hand, yet these verses offer hope. The elect will escape, the dead will come back to life. For the author's community, this God is a caring God.

Our gospel of Mark 13 is often called the "little apocalypse." Like Daniel 7-12 and the Book of Revelation, it focuses on a world of persecution. Jesus' farewell speech deals with two realities: Jesus will fulfill the Hebrew Scripture texts about the end and the disciples are not to worry about the precise time of Jesus' second coming. Like Daniel's Son of Man, Jesus will return and gather the chosen from the farthest bounds of earth and sky. In the period between Jesus' Ascension and Second Coming, the task of the believer is to reveal a caring God. The follower who reaches out to the needy projects a God who is real. Our God is much more than a divine architect or a celestial administrator; our God is our hope.

Building a Home in Guatemala: Our Advent Project

A life-changing gift for families living in poverty. Dirt floor barns. Wood and tin shacks. Mud brick shanties. No child of God should ever have to grow up in these conditions. Tragically, this is the reality families face in Guatemala's Diocese of Santa Rosa de Lima, where one in four people earn less than $3.20 per day. More than 2,000 years after Christ's humble birth, Guatemalan families pray for the blessing of a safe place to sleep. Our Pastoral Council supports and promotes this special Advent project, since we have a relationship with Cross Catholic Outreach through their missionaries who come annually to our parishes. This Advent, Cross Catholic Outreach is partnering with Father Raúl Monterroso in the Diocese of Santa Rosa de Lima to build safe, concrete block homes for 80 impoverished families. Heartbreakingly, the tiny shacks children grow up in often perpetuate poverty. Whenever it rains in Santa Rosa, dirt floors turn to mud and beds are soaked. Unsanitary conditions cause frequent illnesses, and parents are unable to work at full capacity, so families stay sick, exhausted, and trapped in poverty. Families in Santa Rosa are barely hanging on — but you can bless them and restore hope.

During this hope filled Advent season, our 3 parishes will work together to give hope to our poorest brothers and sisters. Our goal will be $6,034.00 to build one house for a poor family in Santa Rosa, Guatemala. We will have a second collection after communion on the 1st Sunday of Advent to begin collecting money for this Advent project. You can also send donations to our parish office. For more info online: Transforming Lives in Santa Rosa | Cross Catholic Outreach
