Today is Pentecost Sunday! The word Pentecost can be traced to its Greek roots, meaning "the 50th day" or simply "fiftieth." On this day, fifty days after the resurrection of Christ, we celebrate the fulfillment of the Lord's promise to his followers: "I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may be with you forever" (John 14:16).

Today is a great day for the Church. It was on this day that the universal mission of the Church was inaugurated. Hence, on Pentecost Sunday we also celebrate the birthday of the Church. The Holy Spirit is the soul of the Church, the mystical body of Christ. According to St. Augustine, "what the soul is in our body, the Holy Spirit is in Christ's body, the Church. And as Christ is the head, so the Holy Spirit is the soul." Indeed, we can say that the entire life of the Church is built intrinsically on the Holy Spirit.

But today's feast is not just about the Church in the abstract, we are the Church! Therefore, the celebration of the Holy Spirit must be realized and expressed in the concrete lives of all believers. As we reflect on the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the early followers of Christ, an outpouring that threw wide open the bolted upper room windows, liberating the frightened disciples and empowering them to be fearless and powerful witnesses of the mighty deeds of God, we must reflect on its implication for us today.

St. Paul invites us in the Second Reading of today to live in and according to the Spirit. He argues that those who are led by the Sprit are free and fearless children of God, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ. On the contrary, those who do not live according to the Spirit, are debtors of the flesh, and cannot please God.

As Christians, we must be guided and directed by the Holy Spirit. We must invite the Holy Spirit to be part of our lives, our families, our communities and our world. When we are guided by the Spirit we manifest discernable fruits that distinguish us from those who are guided by the flesh. Jesus himself says: by their fruits we shall know them (Matthew 7:16). Therefore, those who walk in the light of the Spirit are accompanied by such fruits as charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self -control, chastity (Gal 5:22-23) . Those who walk in the spirit manifest these fruits and are recognizable by them. Conversely, those who do not walk in the Spirit, those who are led by the works of the flesh, bear such fruits as "sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy drunkenness, orgies, and things like these " (Gal 5: 9-21).

As we celebrate the solemnity of Pentecost today, may we seek to walk by the Spirit and walk away from sin!

Father's Day is Coming!!!

This year Father's Day is celebrated on the 19th of June. It is good that we remember in prayer our fathers who helped make our lives possible. The Father's Day cards are available at the back of the Church and Chapel. The outer envelopes will remain on the Altar in the Lady Chapel next to the Tabernacle during the month of June—the month of the Sacred Heart.

Catholic Charity Fund Appeal 2022

As the 2022 Catholic Charity Appeal winds down, the Diocese of Providence has achieved 63 percent of its $6.8 million goal, recording $4,315,462 pledged in total gifts as of April 5. The Catholic Charity Appeal assists in funding dozens of crucial diocesan programs, including Catholic Youth Ministry, Multicultural Ministry, Special Religious Education (SPRED), Life and Family Ministry — to protect life at all stages, the diocesan senior St. Martin de Porres Center, seminarian education and diocesan Health Care Ministry. Our Parish has paid $11,392 so far! That means that we are only $$3,501 from reaching our goal of $14,725.00! This is wonderful news to the many people, including those in our Parish helped by Catholic Charities. May God bless you.

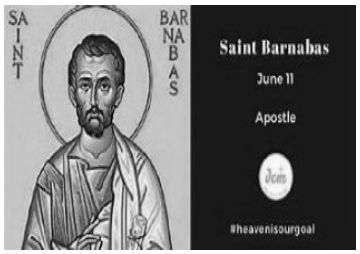
Saint Barnabas' Story



Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul—he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles—and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians.

When a Christian community developed at Antioch, Barnabas was sent as the official representative of the church of Jerusalem to incorporate them into the fold. He and Paul instructed in Antioch for a year, after which they took relief contributions to Jerusalem.

Later Paul and Barnabas, now clearly seen as charismatic leaders, were sent by Antioch officials to preach to the gentiles. Enormous success crowned their efforts. After a miracle at Lystra, the people wanted to offer sacrifice to them as gods—Barnabas being Zeus, and Paul, Hermes—but the two said, "We are of the same nature as you, human beings. We proclaim to you good news that you should turn from these idols to the living God" (see Acts 14:8-18).

But all was not peaceful. They were expelled from one town, they had to go to Jerusalem to clear up the ever-recurring controversy about circumcision, and even the best of friends can have differences. When Paul wanted to revisit the places they had evangelized, Barnabas wanted to take along his cousin John Mark, author of the Gospel, but Paul insisted that since Mark had deserted them once, he was not fit to take along now. The disagreement that followed was so sharp that Barnabas and Paul separated: Barnabas taking Mark to Cyprus, Paul taking Silas to Syria. Later they were reconciled—Paul, Barnabas and Mark.

When Paul stood up to Peter for not eating with gentiles for fear of his Jewish friends, we learn that "even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy" (see Galatians 2:1-13).

Reflection

Barnabas is spoken of simply as one who dedicated his life to the Lord. He was a man "filled with the Holy Spirit and faith. Thereby, large numbers were added to the Lord." Even when he and Paul were expelled from Antioch in Pisidia—modern-day Turkey—they were "filled with joy and the Holy Spirit."

Saint Barnabas is the Patron Saint of Cyprus
