Our Vision:

To be a vibrant, growing parish that invites people to encounter Jesus and forms them as passionate disciples who serve his mission by their lives.

Our members commit to:
pray profoundly,
connect consciously,
serve selflessly,
deepen deliberately,
invite intentionally and welcome warmly.

Nuestra Visión:

Ser una parroquia vibrante y en crecimiento que invita a las personas a encontrarse con Jesús y los forma como discipulos apasionados que sirven su misión con sus vidas.

Nuestros miembros se comprometen a:
orar profundamente,
conectarse conscientemente,
servir desinteresadamente,
profundizar deliberadamente,
invitar intencionalmente y
dar la bienvenida cordialmente.

My (Not so Amazing) Story of Inviting

Neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who causes the growth. - 1 Corinthians 3:7

For the past few weeks I've been writing about how important it is that we, as disciples, invite other people to encounter Jesus: the difference an invitation can make; praying for people we want to invite for 21 days; the difference invitations from others made in my own life; how Jesus calls us to invite people. So you might think, "Well, of course he says that, he's a priest. It's easy for him to invite people to something like Alpha. People probably just say yes and amazing things happen for them as soon as he invites them."

I can respond with one word: Nope.

I'm actually pretty nervous and shy about inviting people to Alpha. I don't want to feel like I'm pressuring them. I think things like, "What if they say no?" I fear "failing" at it. Just the other day I could have invited someone I was thinking to invite…and I chickened out! (I still have till Sept 24 to try again though.)

I have invited a number of people to Alpha each time we've held it the past few years at St. Raphael. But honestly, a number of parishioners have invited more people than me and seem to have the knack for it more that I do. And most of the people I've invited have not actually decided to try Alpha as of yet.

So no: I'm not a super confident or super "successful" inviter. So don't feel like you have to be either. For my part, I'm just going to keep asking God to give me the courage, and love, to overcome my nervousness and make some simple and no-pressure invites to Alpha for this Fall, especially to the people on my prayer card for our Luke "11:02" prayer campaign. And I'm going to leave the results in God's hands. We help sow the seeds, but God's the one who provides the growth and the fruit, in his time and way. Jesus is the Savior; I'm just a follower and disciple.

So, fellow disciples – Alpha begins again on September 24. Will you join me as a (not so great) fellow inviter, and invite three people you know?

Thanks!

Fr. Phil

Mi (no tan Increíble) Historia de Invitar

Ni el que planta ni el que riega es nada, sino solo Dios, quien causa el crecimiento. - 1 Corintios 3: 7

Durante las últimas semanas he escrito sobre qué importante es que nosotros como discípulos invitemos a otros a encontrarse con Jesús: la diferencia que hace una invitación; el orar por 21 días por aquellos que queremos invitar; el impacto en mi propia vida de la invitación de otros; cómo Jesús nos llama a invitar personas. Ustedes podrían pensar: "Claro que dice eso, como sacerdote le es fácil invitar a la gente a algo como Alpha. La gente le responde que sí y les suceden cosas increíbles tan pronto como él los invita".

Puedo responder con tres palabras: No es así.

Me pone muy nervioso invitar a la gente a Alpha. No quiero sentir que los estoy presionando y pienso cosas como, "¿qué pasa si dicen que no?" Temo "fallar". Justo el otro día pude haber invitado a alguien y a la mera hora ¡no me atreví! (Me queda hasta el 24 de septiembre para volverlo a intentar. 🙂)

Por supuesto que he invitado a varios a Alpha este último par de años en San Raphael. Pero, otros feligreses han invitado a más personas que yo, y parecen tener más talento que yo al hacerlo. Además, la mayoría de aquellos que he invitado todavía no se animan a venir a Alpha.

Entonces no: invitar no es algo fácil para mí. Así que tampoco sientas que tiene que serlo para ti. Yo voy a seguir pidiéndole a Dios que me dé la valentía y el amor para superar mi nerviosismo y hacer algunas invitaciones simples y sin presión a Alpha para este otoño. Voy a invitar especialmente a aquellos en mi tarjeta de oración de nuestra campaña "11:02" y voy a dejar los resultados en manos de Dios. Nosotros sembramos las semillas, pero Dios es quien proporciona el crecimiento y el fruto, a su tiempo y a su manera. Jesús es el Salvador; yo solo soy su seguidor y discípulo.

Entonces, compañeros discípulos en Cristo: Alpha comienza de nuevo este 24 de septiembre. ¿Se unirán a mí – un invitador no tan bueno – para invitarán a tres personas que conozcan?

¡Gracias!

Fr. Phil
