Pastor's Message~ Mensaje del Párroco

Whose World?

A steward is the trusted manager of a household, farm, or landed estate. He is counted on to act for the owner without oversight. Yet however well a steward does his job, he never becomes the owner of what he manages. You may believe you own a lot of things, from a house to a business, to property. If you really owned them, you could take them with you when you die. Imagine, then, looking at things, not as what you "own" but what you "steward." Would you cling less to "your" stuff, or think who else you could assist with it? How might you benefit future generations? Changing to a stewardship habit can alter your thoughts, words, and actions. Start by saying, "I no longer own; rather, I am responsible for what I have." The true owner is the Lord, who knows the motives of your heart. Whose world is this after all? Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

¿A Quién Le Pertence este Mundo?

Un buen administrador--hombre o mujer--es una persona responsable en quien el dueño puede confiar sin tener que supervisarlo. Sin embargo, aunque el administrador haga muy bien su trabajo nunca se convertirá en dueño de eso que administra. Tú podrás creerte que eres dueño de muchas cosas, desde una casa hasta un negocio o una propiedad. Si de verdad fueras el dueño podrías llevártelo todo cuando te mueras. Imagínate mejor mirar las cosas no como algo que "posees" sino algo que "administras". ¿Te aferrarías menos a "tus" cosas y más a ver a quién podrías ayudar con ellas? ¿Cómo ayudarías a las generaciones futuras? Hacerte el hábito de pensar como administrador puede alterar positivamente tu forma de pensar, tus palabras y acciones. Empieza por decirte: "No soy dueño, sino que tengo una corresponsabilidad por lo que Dios me ha dado". El verdadero dueño es Dios, que conoce las intenciones de tu corazón. Después de todo, ¿a quién le pertenece este mundo? Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Living Stewardship Now:

Consider making a will or updating the one you already have. Make provisions for those you love and, if you have the resources, make gifts to the Church and favorite charities that will go on giving beyond your lifetime.
Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

La Corresponsabilidad Vivida Ahora:

Considera hacer un testamento o actualizar el que ya tienes. Deja provistos a aquellos que amas y, si tienes los recursos, haz alguna donación a la Iglesia y a tu obra de caridad preferida. Son legados que siguen multiplicándose dejando tu huella más allá de tu vida terrena. Copyright (c) 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Reflections ~ Reflexiones

GOSPEL MATTHEW 6: 24-34

In today's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus exhorts his disciples, "do not worry." They must have shown worry for Jesus to address this. Did they worry about their food, or clothes, or all of these? Jesus, who knew humanity better than anyone ever has, must have realized that simply telling someone not to worry does not end the worrying. So, Jesus goes on to give a perspective to ally their worries, a sense of priorities. Then he goes on to ask what good their worrying does. Then he reminds them that God takes care of even the birds and the grass, and surely God will take care of the people created in his own image. Don't worry; keep your priorities straight; remember worrying doesn't do any good; trust God. It might not be easy to hand over our worries to God, but it is worth working on!

1.) Jesus says, "Seek first the kingdom of God." How does this address worry? What would you say to a friend who worries excessively? Look at creation and add to Jesus' examples of how God cares for every creature and all of creation.

GOSPEL MATEO: 6: 24-34

En el Evangelio de San Mateo de hoy, Jesús vió a sus discípulos preocupados. El los llama para pedirles que dejen de preocuparse de lo que íban a comer o vestir. Jesús, que conocía mejor que nadie a la humanidad, se dió cuenta de que solo con decirle a alguien que no se preocupara, no se íba a aliviar las preocupaciones Por eso, El .nos pide que pongamos nuestras prioridades en orden y nos pregunta, ¿Qué sacan con preocuparse? El nos hace recordar que si Jesús cuida hasta las aves y el pasto,¿como no va a cuidar de nosotros, que hemos sido creados a su imagen y semejanza? No se preocupen, mantengan sus prioridades y recuerden que preocupándose no saca nada. Y aunque no sea fácil compartir nuestras preocupaciones con Dios, ¡vale la pena intentarlo!

1.) Jesús dijo que primero buscáramos el Reino de Dios. ¿Por qué nos preocupa esta frase? ¿Qué le puedes decir a un amigo que se preocupa mucho? Mira a la creación y muestra los ejemplos de cómo Dios cuida de cada una de sus creaciones.

Future Events:

NO Baptisms:

Please note that during Lent there will be NO BAPTISMS. In the event of an emergency please call the Parish office to speak with a Priest. Baptisms will resume after Easter Sunday. For more information about Baptisms please call the Parish office.

Ash Wednesday 2017:

Ash Wednesday is on March 1st. Masses will be 6:30am, 8:00am 11:00am, 5:30pm and 7:30pm (Spanish). Abstinence and Fasting are to be observed. As we approach Lent and plan for Holy Week, parishes, parishioners, and institutions should be aware of the following:

* Lenten Regulations: As in the past, the following regulations are in place for Abstaining and Fasting during Lent:

o Abstinence: Everyone fourteen years of age and older is bound to abstain from meat on ASH WEDNESDAY, the FRIDAYS of Lent, and GOOD FRIDAY.

* Fast: Everyone eighteen years of age and older but under the age of sixty is also bound to fast on ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY. On these two days, the law of fast allows only one full meal a day, but does not prohibit taking some food during the day, so long as this does not constitute another full meal. Drinking liquids during the day is permitted. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In doubt concerning fast or abstinence, a priest assigned to pastor ministry or confessor should be consulted. In the spirit of penance, the faithful should not lightly excuse themselves from this obligation.

Good Timing:

The best time to do something worthwhile is between yesterday and tomorrow. —Anonymous

Treasures from our Tradition:

By the early 1950s some scholars were calling for the restoration of Communion of the faithful on Good Friday, since by then only a priest received, consuming the host from the Holy Thursday repository. In 1955 the new Good Friday liturgy was timed to begin at three o'clock everywhere, and included the option of Holy Communion, but without the Precious Blood that had originally been part of the liturgy. Today, there is increasing debate among theologians. Some feel that it would be better to fast from the Eucharist on Good Friday, focusing on the mystery of the cross and highlighting the Easter Communion. Others say that this Communion infuses the sadness of the day with awareness of Christ's victory. It is not a day of mourning, of course, and the Passion according to John grounds the liturgy in a sense of Christ's victory over death and the triumph of the cross. The tradition is rich and varied, and we are still in the early stages of recovering an ancient way of doing things.

Why do we call the day "good"? The English and Dutch languages share this name, and its origin stems from the name "God's Friday." The traditional name for the day in Latin is Feria VI in Parasceve, which translates as "The Sixth Day of the Week of Preparation." Other languages make do with "Holy Friday." In another part of England, as in Denmark, the people used to call it "Long Friday," a good description for a quiet day without work and no chance for play or a good meal! —Rev. Second Collection:

Today second collection is for Catholic Charities. This annual second collection asks parishioners to live their faith by generously supporting the good work of Catholic Charities, the social services arm of the Catholic Church in our local area. Your contributions directly support programs and services that provide relief for homeless families, frail seniors, immigrants, the working poor, children and youth, and many of our most vulnerable neighbors who are struggling to meet even their most basic needs. Put your faith into action and change a life for the better today by contributing to Catholic Charities. For more information please call Jane Ferguson Flout at 415-971-1227.

Catholic Charities Lenten Activities " Do Justice. Love Kindness, Walk Humbly":

Don't Be Anxious:

People have, it seems, a natural penchant for misplaced emphasis on unimportant things. They can easily get caught up with what they're having for dinner or what they will wear.

Often it is a tragedy that helps people to refocus on what is really important. What I shall wear is an irrelevant question when I am facing surgery or chemotherapy. What's for dinner is immaterial to those living through grief or unemployment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us not to worry. He doesn't say, "Don't eat. Don't cook. Don't buy clothes." He says, "Don't worry." Jesus asks us not to relinquish our responsibilities but to let go of our anxiety. Anxiety betrays a lack of trust and Jesus reminds us that "Your heavenly Father knows" all that you need (Matthew 6:32).

Noticias de Epifanía

La Palabra de Dios con el Diacono:

Hoy Domingo 26 de febrero, después de la misa de las 11:30am, tendremos el privilegio de crecer y aumentar nuestra fe, escuchando la Palabra de Dios con el Diacono Manuel Ocón. Usted y su familia están invitados a pasar a la Cafeterí a de la escuela. ¡Los esperamos!

No Se Inquieten:

Pareciera que las personas tienden a inclinarse hacía el lado equivocado en asuntos sin importancia. De pronto pueden engancharse con decisiones de poca importancia como qué cenar o qué ropa ponerse.

Es frecuente que una tragedia sea la que ayude a la gente a volver a centrarse en lo que realmente es importante. ¡Qué ropa debo ponerme es tan irrelevante cuando tengo que ir a una sesión de quimioterapia! ¡Qué hay para cenar también es irrelevante para quienes están desempleados!

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos dice que no nos preocupemos. Él no dice: "No coman. No cocinen. No compren ropa". Él dice: "No te preocupes". Jesús nos pide que no abandonemos nuestras responsabilidades sino que hagamos a un lado a nuestra ansiedad. La ansiedad demuestra una falta de confianza y Jesús nos recuerda que "Nuestro Padre en el Cielo sabe" qué es lo que necesitamos (Mateo 6:32).

Tiempo Oportuno:

El mejor momento de hacer algo es entre ayer y mañana.—Anónimo

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe:

Empezó nuevamente la Cuaresma, este tiempo anual en que recordamos y celebramos los cuarenta días que Jesús pasó en el desierto, donde fue tentado por Satanás. El mismo nombre "Cuaresma" recuerda la importancia del número 40 en la tradición judeocristiana. Cuarenta fueron los días del diluvio, los días en que Moisés y Elías pasaron en la montaña de Dios, y los años que el pueblo de Israel caminó por el desierto a la tierra prometida. El número 40 en la Biblia simboliza las pruebas y dificultades de la vida terrenal. Cuarenta es el número de la preparación para algo importante y de crecimiento en la vida.

La Cuaresma cristiana que se remonta hasta el siglo IV no sólo conmemora los días que Jesús pasó en el desierto, sino que debe ser un tiempo para reflexionar acerca de nuestra propia vida con sus pruebas y dificultades. El Papa León Magno describe la Cuaresma como un retiro durante el cual los fieles, recordando el ejemplo de Jesús, se preparan para celebrar la Pascua con un corazón purificado y la práctica perfecta de la vida cristiana.
