We must pray without tiring, for the salvation of mankind does not depend upon material success, nor on sciences that cloud the intellect. Neither does it depend on arms and human industries, but on Jesus alone.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

Reflection on Sunday's Readings

The terrible persecutions that Christ tells us his followers should expect will lead to one great thing: "to your giving testimony." The ability to speak a word of wisdom that we do not prepare beforehand—that Jesus himself will give us and that leaves our adversaries powerless to resist—is an irrefutable sign of the authority and majesty of Christ. "The day is coming when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble." The words of wisdom of Jesus are what turn the wicked to stubble. But for those who fear God's name, "there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays." Christ calls us to be confident in his provident care of us: "Not a hair on your head will be destroyed."

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

"Brothers, sisters, let us remember this: the gaze of God never stops at our past, full of errors, but looks with infinite confidence at what we can become. And if at times we feel we are people who are "short in stature", not up to the challenges of life and far less of the Gospel, mired in problems and sins, Jesus always looks at us with love… Let us pray to Mary, whose humility the Lord looked upon, and ask her for the gift of a new outlook on ourselves and on others."

Pope Francis

WORD OF LIFE

For all public officials, especially those newly elected: May they strive to govern with the wisdom of God, and protect life from conception to natural death;

We pray to the Lord:
