Dear Padre,

Why do Catholics believe in Mary's assumption into heaven?

Mary's assumption to heaven is a belief shared by Eastern Christians and Roman Catholics, although the explanations of this dogma have different emphases in the two traditions. While there is no biblical or historical record of this event, the first explanation of this doctrine is found in a document from the late 300s.

Mary's assumption was considered a pious opinion until 1950, when Pius XII defined it as dogma (an official Church teaching). The Pope made the declaration after bishops and he found overwhelming consensus throughout the Church.

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE VIRGIN MARY, PAVIA CATHEDRAL
ADAM JAN FIGEL / SHUTTERSTOCK

The definition of Mary's assumption—body and soul—to heaven reaffirmed that God had not only created humans, but also redeemed and claimed them. Mary's assumption reminded the world of the goodness of God's creation and that Christ redeems us from the evil around us (and in us) and made us a new creation.

Perhaps the best explanation can be found in St. John Paul II's 2004 homily at Lourdes. "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be," he said, quoting John 14:3. He explained that Mary's assumption is the pledge that Christ's promise will be fulfilled. The Pope's words echo the teaching of bishops at the Second Vatican Council, which described this dogma as "a sign of sure hope and solace" (Dogmatic Constitution on the Church [Lumen Gentium], 68).

Mary is assumed into heaven: small and humble, she is the first to receive the highest glory. She, a human creature, one of us, attains eternity in soul and body. And there she awaits us as a mother waits for her children to come home. Indeed, the people of God invoke her as the Gate of Heaven.

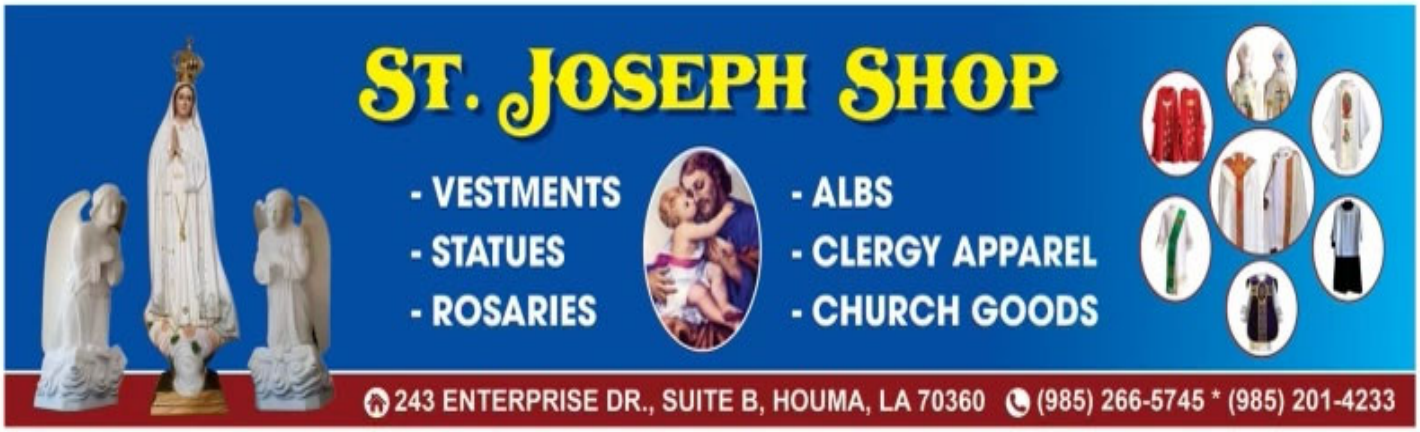
Prayer for Hurricane Season

O God, our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hear the humble voices of your children. The sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former calmness; you are still the Master of land and sea. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies and protect us from future storms. Amen.

Hurricane Preparedness for Cemetery

Should a hurricane or tropical storm come our way, we ask you to pick up any flowers and containers you have in the cemetery. If you choose not to do so, we cannot guarantee that they will be there after the storm.



Holy Name Society

Corporate Communion

The Holy Name Society is starting up Corporate Communion again beginning on August 7th and 8th, 2021 at all Masses on the second Weekend of each month. The banners will be placed in Church before Mass beginning with the four o'clock Mass on Saturday August 7th and all Masses on Sunday August 8th.

All ministries are invited to participate at whatever Mass he or she chooses. We encourage everyone in the parish to get involved with at least one ministry.

If our Profession of Faith means anything, how can we do otherwise than practice our Faith, make it a part of our lives, live our Faith, and by the example of our conduct show the world the reality of a living Faith.

Corporate Communion is an opportunity for all to gather to express our love and devotion to our Lord as one united Faith Community.

The Holy Name Meeting will be on Tuesday August 24, at 3pm in the KC Home.

Everyone is invited.

Holy Name dues are being collected at this time.

"Blessed be His Holy Name"
President
Sonny Naquin
