From the Keyboard of the Pastor:

I Have a Task Today

As we celebrate the baptism of Jesus, we also celebrate our own baptism. We are called to be holy, and we are called to share in the priestly, prophetic and kingly mission of Jesus.

Chrism oil is placed on our head in silence. Then, these words are prayed, "He now anoints you with the chrism of salvation. As Christ was anointed Priest, Prophet and King, so may you live always as a member of his body, sharing everlasting life."

We need to not only recall our baptism every day but also live the responsibilities of our first sacrament.

Fr. Harry

Rest in Peace

Deepest sympathy to the families and friends of

David M. "Dudda" Eiler

and

Gary Gariglio

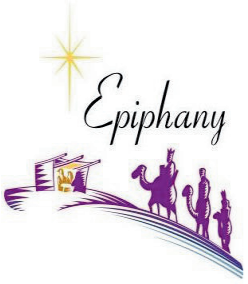
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God,
rest in peace. Amen.



The word "epiphany" comes from the Greek epiphainen, a verb that means "to shine upon," "to manifest," or "to make known." Thus, the feast of the Epiphany celebrates the many ways that Christ has made Himself known to the world, mainly the three events that manifested the mission and divinity of Christ: the visit of the Magi (Matthew 2:1-12), the baptism of Jesus (Mark 1:911) and the miracle at Cana (John2:1-11).

Nine Days for Life Novena

All are invited to pray this year's 9 Days for Life Novena. It goes from January 19-27. You can get it e-mailed or texted to you each day by signing up at https://www.respectlife.org/9-days-signup or scanning the QR code:

If you don't have a computer, you can just pray the following prayer daily:

Holy Spirit,
At the dawn of creation,
You brought order out of chaos,
Light out of darkness,
Life out of nothingness.

Breathe on us once again,
And change this culture of death
Into a Culture of Life.

Inspire in your people
A spirit of generous welcome
For each and every life,
No matter how unexpected or dependent
That life may be.

Holy Spirit,
You are the Advocate.
As you fill us with Yourself,
Make us advocates
For the unborn and all the vulnerable,

Until we are all united
In the endless life and joy of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever. Amen.

Men's Retreat 2023

Feeling like life is too busy? Feeling like it's difficult to set aside time for Christ? Feeling like you want to reconnect or deepen your faith? This letter is an open invitation from Saint Paul's retreat house to the men of Saint Isidore the Farmer Parish, their teenage sons, and friends for a weekend retreat on February 10-12, 2023. The goal of the retreat is to step away from the rigors of day-to-day life, help you grow in spirituality, and develop personally enriching lives.

You will be with other men who will have the same goal of worshiping Jesus and sharing the Catholic faith. In this retreat there will be group gathering for worship, talks, confession, and prayer. There will also be time dedicated for relaxation, quiet reflection, and if you so desire intense prayer.

We invite you to join us and other men from St. Isidore the Farmer this February. If you would like more information about St. Paul's, please visit www.stpaulofthecrossmonastery.com and click on the "Retreat Center" at the top of the page. Or, please contact your St. Isidore the Farmer Parish retreat promoter, Michael Kiss, at 412-551-7598 or michaeljkiss@yahoo.com.

Readings for: Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord
January 8, 2023

Reading I Is 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses.

Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.
℟. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm Ps 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13

℟. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; He shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment. **℟.

Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more. May he rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. **℟.

The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts; the kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute. All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him. **℟.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him. He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor; the lives of the poor he shall save. **℟.

Reading II Eph 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters:
You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.
℟. Thanks be to God

Gospel Mt 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.
℟. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

In Loving Memory of Eugene Raggi
Close to our hearts you will always stay, loved and remembered every day. So treasure him Lord, in your garden of rest, for the man that you gave us was simply the best.
