Ministry Corner

Hi all: As I sit at my desk after a week's vacation, I try to get motivated to write something inspiring about ministry. I keep thinking what can I say or what examples can I use that I have not used before. As always I look for a book (my personal addiction, you know) and try to find something to motivate me. I find a book called The Prayer of Jabez for Kids. Whatever can I find in a child's book that will motivate me and inspire you? It starts out with "Who wants a life that is just ordinary? Wouldn't you rather have one that's filled with adventure, and lots of fun?" Don't we all, at one time or another, want something bigger for our life? Our usual pattern is to go to work. cook, put the dishes in the dish washer, do laundry, shop, attend Sunday Mass, become the family chauffeur. and do 101 more things on a daily or weekly basis. Throughout his life Jabez prayed a simple prayer that he would "be more and do more for God." This struck me as such a simple thought with a huge meaning.

Here is where Ministry comes in...service to God...how can we be more and do more for God. Father Marvin this last week talked about being a good neighbor. What are the simple things we can do to be this good neighbor? A friend of mine lost her 17 year old dog this week and friends and neighbors and of course family spent hours looking everywhere. Everyone gave up and then suddenly her picture appears at the Pound on a Sunday night. The Pound is closed until 10:00 am on Tuesday. Friends called others to see how she could be rescued before Tuesday. A miracle occurred and someone knew someone who could help this fragile old dog be returned to her owner. You might think this is not important, but to this family, who have had some sad times lately this was a big thing!

Many of us knew the LeBarre family who died from the carbon monoxide poisoning a few weeks ago. The amount of outpouring of love, concern, and financial assistance that was given to the son has been amazing. Again, you might not think it was a big thing, but to this young man it was everything!

Another experience included five or six men who were at Holy Rosary before 8:00 on Monday morning. Two were working on the sprinklers and the others were repairing rotted wood on the side of the Sisters house. You might think, not a big deal, but here again are "Good Neighbors" who are helping others when the need arrives.

We are moving all the parish offices to the Parish Center. Someone asked me if we were using a moving company. No... we have many volunteers who are ready and waiting to help.

Ministry is not all about being a lector or a Eucharistic Minister, or being involved in an organization that does good work. It is about being of service to the people of God. There are so many ways that "we can be more and do more for God." There are simple, every day opportunities that we can help others and offer it to God. This is such a simple prayer. "Heavenly Father, how can I be more and do more for you?"This might be the perfect prayer to say each morning when we wake up.

Thank you

My unsung hero this week is John LeBarre. For many years he was in charge of maintenance for the Parents Club at the School. He spent days after days at the school doing odd jobs and encouraging others. All of this, after he worked a full day. His Saturdays were dedicated to the Parish and the School. He helped with RCIA and cooked the best turkeys ever for our annual Day of Recollection each year. For years he coached basketball and was a mentor for so many kids. John was a hero. Obviously the Lord needed him in heaven for some reason.

Have a wonderful week and do take time "to be more or to do more for God." Blessings, Jackie

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

How do we bring balance and joy to our lives of prayer and service to our loving God?

In the Gospel today, Jesus tells Martha that her concern about doing the right thing as dictated by Jewish tradition might not be the best use of her energies. Her sister, Mary, who sits in rapt attention at Jesus' feet, should not be rebuked. Is Jesus trying to show Martha that she needs to make time for her spiritual nourishment?

Abraham and Sarah in the first reading seem to be just like Martha. And yet Abraham's eager welcome and joyful serving of his "visitors" seems almost spiritual. How like Paul, in the second reading, rejoicing in his service to the gospel!

We hear in the psalm that those who do justice will live in the Lord's presence. Prayer and service—what greater joy could there be?

Martha, Martha

We are blessed today with stories about relationships—human and divine—and the joys and responsibilities that come along with them. They are also stories about justice.

Our Gospel tells the familiar story of overly anxious Martha complaining to Jesus about her sister, Mary, who is not helping her with her hospitality responsibilities but is sitting at Jesus' feet. Can't you just imagine Jesus between these two righteous women disciples?

Jesus' answer to Martha—that the actions of her seemingly lazy sister are actually OK—hardly seems fair. As we will show later, caring about the responsibilities that come with treating others well brings rewards, but there is a difference in how one approaches the task.

Those Who Do Justice

Psalm 15 describes the life of justice and the reward of joy in God's presence. We know that justice always involves service. Can we find joy in service, perhaps even in suffering?

Saint Paul writes to the Colossians that his life of suffering service to them and to the other churches is a source of joy to him. His relationship with them, although filled with affliction, is its own reward, as he brings people into relationship with Jesus Christ.

Abraham and Sarah, the righteous elderly couple of the Old Testament, are emblematic of this kind of relationship. Abraham welcomes "strangers" with eager hospitality, not knowing that his visitors are divine messengers, even the Holy One of Israel! His spouse, Sarah, does all she can to aid Abraham in making their guests comfortable and welcome. In return for their generous hospitality, the childless aged couple are rewarded with a blessing—a son, Isaac.

How do they differ from Martha, though? Martha allows her duties and service to overwhelm her with anxiety. Abraham fairly leaps for joy to be of service to his guests.

If you are a Martha, the lesson is to keep serving but find the joy that gives true meaning to your service.

Today's Readings: Gen 18:1–10a; Ps 15:2–3, 3–4, 5; Col 1:24–28; Lk 10:38–42

Decimosexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Marta, Marta

Estamos bendecidos hoy con historias acerca de relaciones, humanas y divinas, y las alegrías y responsabilidades que vienen con ellas. También hay historias acerca de justicia.

Nuestro Evangelio nos cuenta la historia familiar de Marta, demasiado preocupada, quejándose con Jesús de su hermana María, quien no la ayuda con las responsabilidades de ser hospitalaria; pues está sentada a los pies de Jesús. ¿No te puedes imaginar a Jesús en medio de estas dos mujeres discípulas de Jesús?

La respuesta a Marta, que el comportamiento de su hermana aparentemente perezosa está bien, difícilmente parece justo. Como mostraremos más adelante, atender las responsabilidades que vienen al tratar a los demás bien conlleva una retribución, pero hay una diferencia en cómo uno atiende ese deber.

Aquellos Que Procuran La Justicia

El Salmo 15 describe la vida de la justicia y el reconocimiento de alegría en la presencia de Dios. Sabemos que la justicia siempre involucra el servicio. ¿Podemos encontrar alegría en el servicio, quizá aun cuando es sufrimiento?

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

San Pablo escribe a los colosenses que esta vida de servicio sufriente a ellos y a otras iglesias es un origen de alegría para él. Su relación con ellos, aunque llena con aflicciones, es nuestra propia recompensa, porque él hace que las personas se relacionen con Jesucristo.

Abraham y Sara, la pareja anciana y justa del Antiguo Testamento, son emblemáticos de este tipo de relación. Abraham recibe cordialmente a esos "extranjeros" con una hospitalidad entusiasta, sin saber que sus visitantes son enviados celestiales, ¡aun el Santo de Israel! Su esposa, Sara, quien hace todo lo que ella puede para ayudar a Abraham para hacer sentir a sus invitados cómodos y bienvenidos. A cambio de su generosa hospitalidad, la pareja anciana sin hijos es recompensada con una bendición, un hijo, Isaac.

¿En qué se diferencian de Marta? Marta permite que sus deberes y servicio la abrumen con preocupación. Abraham brinca de alegría por atender a sus invitados.

Si tú fueras Marta, la lección es seguir sirviendo, pero encontrando alegría que le dé un verdadero significado a tu servicio.
