World Needs People Who Are Passionate About Caring For Others

Rome — People need to be passionate about serving others and caring for those who suffer, Pope Francis said. "Lord, we entrust to your heart the vocation of care — let us make every person who approaches us in need feel special," he said in a homily to medical and teaching staff, students, patients and others at a Mass held outside the medical school connected to Rome's Gemelli hospital, where he was a patient for 10 days in July.

The pope presided over a Mass at Rome's University of the Sacred Heart, Nov. 5 — the first Friday of the month, which many devote to the sacred heart of Jesus. The Mass marked the 60th anniversary of the founding of the university's Agostino Gemelli Department of Medicine and Surgery in Rome, known informally as "the pope's hospital" as it is where popes typically go for medical treatment. Pope Francis underwent colon surgery there in July.

In his homily, the pope recognized the fatigue and challenges medical staff face, not just in their day-to-day duties, but also when it comes to dealing with rare or undetected diseases and wanting to give everyone the same high-quality health care. "We might get discouraged. This is why we need comfort," he said. Comfort can be found in Jesus' sacred heart, "which beats for us, always to the rhythm of those words, 'Have courage, do not be afraid, I am here.'" "Have courage brothers and sisters, do not give up, the Lord, your God, is greater than your ills, he takes you by the hand and caresses you, he is near, compassionate and gentle. He is your comfort," the pope said.

People, particularly those in the field of health care, also need the strength of memory, he said. Reflecting on the sacred heart of Jesus reminds people of the boundless goodness and love he offers freely and unconditionally. People are usually so busy each day that they forget to remember this love and to feel the same compassion for others, he said. During "this time of pandemic, it would be good for us to also remember those more trying times, not to make us sad, but to not forget and to guide us in our choices with the light of a very recent past," he said.

The "art of remembering" should be practiced by not letting the day end in exhaustion but rather by taking note of and appreciating all the faces, smiles and friendly exchanges that happened throughout the day, he said. Remembering these small gestures are important for giving meaning to those who are ill, too, he said, explaining that the "therapy of remembering" restores and heals the heart.

"If we want to truly love God, we have to become passionate about humanity, each person," above all those who live in pain and who are abandoned or discarded, he said. Let us ask for the grace to become passionate about people who suffer, about service, so that the church, before saying anything, safeguards a heart that pulsates with love," he said.

Keep Them In Your Prayers

We are looking for some intercessory prayer warriors who will set aside a little time during the week to pray for parishioners (or close members of their families) who are seriously if not critically ill and need help from God to get over this particularly rough patch in their lives.

NOVEMBER IS THE THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS

In EVERY Mass we commend to God all the souls of the faithful departed. Some of these lesser known souls are already living among the saints, while others are experiencing further purification so they will be prepared to see God face to face when Christ comes again in all his glory. Keep in mind that any souls who may be in purgatory are destined for heaven and we Catholics believe that we can very much assist them through our constant prayers for God's mercy.

THE BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD will be placed close to the altar throughout the month of November. We will happily add whatever new names you designated on the special All Souls envelopes.

PICTURES OF THE DECEASED

We already have many pictures of loved ones which you have entrusted to our care. If you have any other pictures you would like displayed, please bring them as soon as you can and *place them in the box on the table in the commons. Indicate their name and their relationship to you so that we can get your pictures back to you. They will be displayed throughout November as a *visible sign of our communion with all who have gone before us in the hope of rising again.

LIFT OF LOVE MINISTRY

We have many senior citizens in the parish who occasionally need a lift to the doctor's office. If you have a heart for service and a little time to provide a helping hand, please call Bill Seck (405) 401-8929 or Carolyn Marcus (405) 793-3309 to make arrangements.

If you have an occasional need for a lift to a doctor's office, please call Bill or Carolyn so they can match you up with someone willing to help you.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES
ARCHDIOCESE OF OKLAHOMA CITY

2021 Goal	205 DONORS	$55,000
TO DATE	131 Donors	$41,223

Thanks to all who have donated generously thus far. We are still far short of our goals. Very few of us have the resources to make gifts to all charitable causes, but this one should be on everyone's list.

On behalf of the Phamily, we would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to our parish family for such a beautiful celebration. With the support and contribution that you made to make this day a success, I will forever remain grateful for the kindness that you accorded me. Every one of you holds a special place in our hearts. Your love, cards, gifts, and words of encouragement that you all shower us are beyond measure. We are so blessed to be a part of this wonderful parish family of Saint Andrew. Please continue to pray for us as we begin our new journey of Faith in serving our Saint Andrew family. May the Lord bless you abundantly and reward you for your kindness.

A special thank you to Fr. Jack, Fr. Gabriel, Deacon Angus, Deacon George, and Ann and Deacon Clyde for supporting Tina and I during the four years of our formation. We honor and look forward to serving and building up the Kingdom of God at Saint Andrew Parish.

Sincerely Yours,
Deacon Thai Pham
And family

ST. ANDREW PICTORIAL DIRECTORY

If you chose not to sit for portraits, you can still appear in and receive a copy of the directory by emailing your own picture to Jane Mitchell in the parish office. The cost is only $10 and you can pay that by placing the money in an envelope with the full names of all people in the picture. Please be sure to write "PICTURE DIRECTORY" on the envelope. On the 2nd Tuesday of each month we need the use of a 16' tandem trailer to pick up our food delivery from the local food bank. If you have such a trailer and can occasionally help us out it would be deeply appreciated. Food Bank personnel load the trailer and we have volunteers to unload it at this end.

The Giving Tree

Once again this year we will have the opportunity to purchase Christmas gifts for people in the larger community with special needs. Our Giving Tree will be set up the weekend of the 1st Sunday of Advent. Please take a colored tag and place the gift beneath the tree the following weekend. Each week different colored tags will be added to the tree representing each group we will be helping. You can also sign up at the welcome counter if you and your family are willing to help deliver the gifts.

Thanksgiving Masses

WED 6:30PM and THUR 9:00AM

For years we have had the custom of a Bread Exchange for Thanksgiving. This permits those who choose to do so to break bread from someone elses table. Just bake or purchase a very special loaf and place it on the table near the sanctuary when you come to either Mass.

The bread is blessed at the end of the Mass and you take home something different than you brought to be shared at your Thanksgiving table.

IN PLACE OF THE HOMILY ANYONE MOVED TO DO SO IS WELCOME TO GIVE A SHORT THANKSGIVING

Come Holy Spirit

Can you say something about what happened or how you felt when you prayed to be filled with Holy Spirit?

-Enlightened and happiness were experienced.
-My heart had a pretty big hole and now he has filled me.
-I felt peace and joy while praying for our group.
-Quiet, peace
-I felt peace and I knew it was the Holy Spirit.
-Hopeful.
-Still not sure about what /how I should feel.
-Warm, fearless, honest, "listened to"
-I felt at peace, it's like God embraced me.
-I feel like I'm clean inside.
-Gratitude for all I have been given.
-The Holy Spirit listened and answered thru a heat I felt thru my whole body.
-I felt less anxiety and a warm heart.
-Sobbing uncontrollably.
-The Unity of Christ, by His Love, Joy, Patience, Discernment
-Happiness and peace.
-In praying for others, I felt led to pray specific things over them.
-I felt a release and a sense of peace come over me.
-I cried tears of joy. I felt as if the Holy Spirit was with us all.
-I felt peace.
-A special Joy.
-There were tears, joy, warmth and love.
-As a helper, it was amazing to see the Holy Spirit work in our small group.
-Holy Spirit kept prompting me to be a deacon.
-When our leader laid his hand on my back when he prayed for me, I felt a burly heat from his hand.
-Really close to our Lord Jesus.
-Overwhelming love.
-Christ is a positive blessing in my life.
-To ask for the Holy Spirit is an amazing feeling of receiving.
-Calm, peaceful, the presence.
-Peaceful.
-Just peace.
-I felt the Holy Spirit among me.

Do you believe the Holy Spirit has given you something of what you have been looking for? Can you say a little bit about what you were given?

-I feel a desire to be closer, really want to be closer, but I need a push to make my connection stronger.
-Holy Spirit was missing and now I have it.
-I always pray to the Holy Spirit and Father, so many miracles!!
-I prayed to be able to pray openly in our group and I felt the spirit flowed through me today.
-I was undecided about what to do with my life, but I feel that God helped me to make a decision that is the better for me
I was looking for friends. I live alone. I am alone in OKC. God gave me more than I could even ask for. He gave me a family.
-I think I have long been receiving the blessing of God and gifts of the Holy Spirit. I think I was given awareness and gratitude.
-Yes, awareness of others, strength and acceptance.
-Holy Spirit has given me faith.
-Yes, I have been looking for this my whole life.
-Appreciation-clarity of needed changes.
-Yes, not to be afraid to show His manifestation in front of others.
-Yes, peace and joy. Yes, peace is my journey.
-Yes, to look forward for what he is asking of me to do
-Yes, I asked for counsel in spreading the word and I feel new confidence.
-I feel the acceptance and my readiness to continue.
-I feel like I was given the gift of wisdom and counsel in my prayer.
-Yes, peace, closeness, a discipleship group.
-I was reassured of being a child of God.
-An increase in the Holy Spirit was given to me.
-Peace and full knowledge that God heard our prayers.
-Yes, a deep love, but also a community and a way to assist others in their journey.
-Yes, love, understanding, courage.
-Yes, Peace and better way to use "tongues" to speak to my children.
-"Blessed assurance"
-Peace
-The confidence to continue.
-Definitely. Courage! I was scared to pray for others but overcame that and prayed with the Holy Spirit.
-More love to others and understanding.

Alpha Day

Dozens of people filled with the Holy Spirit!

Please Pray that the Holy Spirit will Fall Freshly Upon All Who Seek Him
