Prayers for Our Military Troops

Perhaps you, too, love a service member. Or maybe, because you've served in the past or know someone who has, you understand the sacrifices these men and women make to guard our safety and preserve our freedom. We invite you to join us as we pray for the men and women who serve.

Almighty and eternal God, those who take refuge in you will be glad and forever will shout for joy. Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties. Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise you for your loving care. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR FASCINATING FAITH

Epiphany House Blessing

If you wish, you can celebrate Epiphany at home with a blessing using the initials of the magi's traditional names (Casper, Melchior, Balthasar), four crosses, and the new year's numerals.

Materials: a piece of chalk and a small container of holy water. Gather with family members, friends, and perhaps some neighbors at the front door.

Leader: In the (+) name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

We sign this doorway with four crosses and the numerals of the new year. [20 + C + M + B + 23]

Let us pray: May Christ bless this house!
ALL: Amen!
Each room of the house is sprinkled with holy water.
Living room:
Where two or three are gathered in your name, Lord, you are present. Bless this room, O Lord.
ALL: Amen!
Kitchen:
Give us this day our daily bread.
Bless this room, O Lord.
ALL: Amen!
Dining room:
Prepare us for the heavenly banquet.
Bless this room, O Lord.
ALL: Amen!
Bedrooms:
Stay with us Lord, when night has come.
Bless this room, O Lord.
ALL: Amen!
Bathroom:
Cleanse us from all sin. Bless this room, O Lord.
ALL: Amen!
All return to the front door to pray together.
Leader: Let us pray as Jesus taught us:

Our Father . . .

The leader sprinkles all present with holy water.
Bless this household through all days to come,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, forever and ever.
ALL: Amen!

Have you REGISTERED at St. Anthony's?

Registering with a parish is the official way to join a parish community and begin receiving important information on the events and news of the parish, including donation statements for tax purposes at the end of the year. Registering allows the Diocese to determine the needs of a parish by the number of parishioners that are registered. This includes the number of priests and deacons that are assigned to the parish, liturgical celebrations, and the gifts that can be used to support the ministries of the Diocese. As a registered parishioner you are showing your commitment to your parish and joining a community of fellow Catholics to celebrate Mass and join in the Eucharist. We at St. Anthony's are thankful and blessed for each of parishioners and look forward to you joining our parish community.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A friend of mine is a young priest who teaches high school physics at a Catholic boys' prep school. Like many today, the boys often think science and religion are enemies. So, he delights in their raised eyebrows when he reminds them his first full-time job as a priest was to be an astrophysicist. He cataloged the size, shape, and matter of distant stars. He tells them, "Science gave me more love for God, not less."

The Magi were something like scientist-astronomers. Like today's scientists, they employed disciplined methods of discovering dependable patterns in the world. Their rigorous commitment to the truth led them to the joy of discovering Jesus. Their love for knowledge leads them to worship the Source of all knowledge. Luke says of them, "They were overjoyed at seeing the star."

We may see the universe as cold and empty and feel sad. But why should we do that? The Magi, like my priest-friend, show us there is another way to experience the world. We use our intelligence to discover the beautiful patterns in the world — in mathematics, physics, astronomy, biology, neuroscience, and so on — and allow this to lead us to greater love for God. So, my fellow Magi: the world needs us to be overjoyed at finding God in science and, finally and fully, in Jesus.

— Father John Muir

Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."
- Mt 2:1b-2

JOIN US AS WE PRAY WITH THE UPCOMING SUNDAY GOSPEL READINGS: LECTIO DIVINA

We are a group of women who come together to read the upcoming Sunday Gospel. We read, meditate, pray, contemplate (Lectio Divina) on the sacred scripture in order to become closer to God. This is a wonderful way to get to know other women in the parish and more importantly increase your communion with God. All that is required is that you are open to the Word of God that speaks to us through sacred scripture.

(Note: We are not a Bible Study)

ALL SHARE IN THE PROMISE

Picture a nativity scene in your mind's eye. The scene likely includes figures arriving on camels, some elaborately dressed, with jeweled boxes containing precious gifts. These magi arrived from distant lands to pay homage to the Christ Child. We know little about the magi, but we do know that these visitors were not Jews. They represent people of all nations who will be drawn to the Lord. "Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance." The Good News of Jesus cannot be limited to one people; all share in the promise of God's mercy through our Lord Jesus Christ.

MEN'S Spirituality

The world of today is full of distractions; political, social, financial and even domestic. In the midst of all these distractions, it appears men are mainly affected. The responsibilities God handed over to Adam in Genesis 2:14-28, to take care of Eve and his family, show that much is needed from every man as the head of the family; not only financial and protective responsibilities, but also spiritual responsibility of his family. No one gives what he/she does not have. Therefore the spirituality of men are so much needed to be solidified in order to help build up their families. Men's Spirituality Ministry avails you of that opportunity to build up your spiritual life and that of your family. St. James says, "faith without good deed is dead." (James 2:17) Therefore all Christian Men are invited to join the Men's Spirituality Ministry with Fr. Kenneth.

MEETINGS STARTING SOON....

Prayers & Blessings at Home

The Baptism of Our Lord, January 10 this year, is the official end of the Christmas season. This is another reminder that Jesus loved us so much, he chose to share our human experience.

Celebrating with a Family Ritual

Consider purchasing a small holy water font and holy water container for your home. Small, wall-mountable fonts can be found at Catholic bookstores and online Your holy water container can be filled at your parish. Ask an usher to help you. Teach your child to use the holy water to make the Sign of the Cross and make a habit of blessing yourselves daily.

Conversation Questions

◈How are we keeping the light of Christ burning in our hearts?

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
