Intercession for Life

For parents who have lost a child through miscarriage: That they may know the comfort and hope that Jesus brings;
WE pray to the Lord.

Pro-Life Reflection

If we endure, we shall also reign with Him.

~2 Tim 2:12

Reflection. In Lent, the Church enters more deeply into meditation on the suffering death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus.
Life was sacred because He made it and by His Passion and Resurrection it is even more sacred because it is now raised to the heights of heaven to reign with Him.

Prayer. Lord, I am filled with wonder at Your love for human life, everyone, born and unborn! May our laws and practices treat humans with the respect due them.

4th Sunday of Lent

March 14 & 15, 2015

2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23	The wrath and the mercy of the Lord are revealed in the exile and liberation of His people.
Psalm 137	"Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget You.
Ephesians 2:4-10	Though dead in your transgressions, by grace you have been saved.
John 3:14-21	God sent His Son so that the world might be saved through Him.

Try not to let today's readings be completely overshadowed by your familiarity with the passage from John 3:16. There is so much here for contemplation and prayer, gratitude and celebration. Indeed, God so loves the world that God has acted before in history through Cyrus of Persia, and even today through the Holy Spirit in our own lives. As we listen to these holy scriptures today, in what ways do they remind us of how God acts in our lives.

5h Sunday of Lent

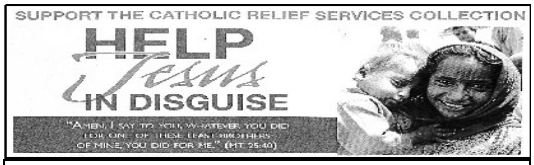
March 21 & 22, 2015

Ezekiel 37:12-14

Psalm 130

Romans 8:8-11

John 11:1-45 or 11:3-7. 17, 20-27, 33b-45



"Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Mt 25:40). Today, we are reminded that Jesus identified himself with our poorest brothers and sisters. The Catholic Relief Services Collection serves Jesus in the victims of human trafficking, in those who suffer from unjust laws and in those who need pastoral care and humanitarian assistance across the globe. Through supporting today's collection you help

About "John 3:16"

By: Kristina M. DeNeve
Adult Faith Formation Coordinator
Diocese of Honolulu

Many Catholics believe they don't "know" Scripture, yet many of us can still paraphrase the ending to this famous line from the Bible, "For God so loved the world that…" We may not make it to Mass every Sunday, but we can trust "John 3:16" will appear on a poster in the stands of every major sporting event. John 3:16 reminds us of who Jesus is, what He did for us, how we who believe in Him are destined for eternal life.

Unfortunately, may of us think of John 3:16 only in the past tense, as history. God loved us. God sent His only Son, Jesus. Past tense, yesterday.

This is a mistake. As Catholics, we believe God continues loving, creating, sending. Jesus continues redeeming, purifying, bringing us ever closer to God. The Holy Spirit makes God's presence, Jesus' presence known, helping us know God. Today. Not past tense. We believe not because of the past but because of God's continuous actions in our lives.

God loves us today, continues to send Jesus and invites us to believe so we might have eternal life. This Lent, today, is John 3:16.

Parish Lenten Retreat

"Open Some Doors This Lent"

Retreat Master: Fr. Philip Chircop, SJ

Monday-Wednesday, March 16-18, 2015 at 7:00 PM

A beautiful verse from the Good Book (the Bible) says, "Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me." (Revelations 3:20) During the upcoming Lenten mission, we will explore some doors we can open, clearing the path of a life-giving encounter with the Source of all life, an encounter that can potentially turn our lives upside down, transforming us into genuine instruments of peace and joy.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Fr. Philip is a Jesuit priest born on the Mediterranean Island of Malta. He has advanced degrees in Pastoral Theology, Communications and Spirituality. He has worked in high school, university and parish settings in various capacities. More recently he has been mainly involved in retreat work and spiritual direction. He is an artist at heart and madly in love with all things beautiful and soulful: music, painting, sculpture, photography, film, theatre, poetry, good company, good food, good wine and more. He strongly believes that beauty is a uniquely wonderful entry into the mystery of the God "whose center is everywhere and whose circumference is nowhere." God can indeed be sensed and experienced in all things if we have ears to hear and eyes to see, if we have the patience to have a long, loving look at the real that surrounds us.

Fr. Philip considers himself a seeker, exploring and employing new, fresh and creative ways to proclaim the Good News in the hope of helping fellow pilgrims and seekers to embrace real and radical changes that will lead to conversion and transformation.

Parish Album

You only have two weekends left to have your pictures taken for our Parish Album. Last day of Photoshoot is March 29, 2015. Avoid the rush and have your picture taken as soon as possible. Pictures are taken after each Mass at the Parish Center.

Our OLGC Ministries and various Parish Organizations will be scheduled for photoshoot after Easter and after our Church project, Mid-May through the end of the month. You will be notified by the parish office when you are scheduled for the photoshoot.
