Congratulation / Felicidades Fr. Juan

Friar Juan Zuñiga Lopez, OFM Conv.

Friar Juan was born in Mexico City in 1978. He is the son of Mr. Juan Zúñiga Gamboa & Mrs. María de Jesús López García. He is the second of four children. In his teenage years, looking for better opportunities in his life, he emigrated to North Carolina, where his uncle lived. Seeking to stand out and learn English, he took classes in the parish hall of Blessed Sacrament Church without knowing that months later, in that place, would be the moment of his spiritual conversion.

In 2000, he joined the youth group "Alma de Niño", which had just been formed with the help of Father Carlos Arce. In that same year, the group, encouraged him to go on a Youth Retreat during which God touched his heart and transformed his life.

At the beginning of his conversion, Juan felt a strong call to serve God, and despite being very dedicated to serving in the parish, he did not understand what God had prepared for him. At that time, Fr. Bob Benko, who, at the time, had just been ordained a priest and had been assigned to this community, accompanied him as his confessor and spiritual director, and introduced Juan to the Franciscan charism. Impressed by this way of living, in "poverty, chastity and obedience", Juan was filled with a greater desire to give himself to the service of God. During those years of conversion, in a continuous struggle and discernment to do God's will, he decided to return to Mexico to join the Order of Friars Minor Conventual, which is now the "Province of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

"He entered the Postulancy on August 14, 2009, in Valle de Aragón Estado Mexico. He started the novitiate on August 11, 2010, and professed his temporary vows on July 30, 2011, in Morelos. He made solemn profession on August 10, 2016, in Cuautitlán Izcalli, Estado, Mexico. Completing his studies in philosophy and theology, he was ordained a Priest in León Guanajuato, Mexico on July 14, 2021.

With great joy in the Lord, Fr. Juan wants to share this grace that God has given him through the priesthood, by celebrating a Mass of thanksgiving and sharing the Eucharist in this community of Blessed Sacrament which, as he says, is the cradle of his vocation.

Fray Juan Zuñiga Lopez, OFM Conv.

Fray Juan nació el 4 de abril de 1978 en la Ciudad de México. Es hijo del señor Juan Zúñiga Gamboa y de la señora María de Jesús López García. Es el segundo de cuatro hijos. En la etapa de su adolescencia por querer salir de la realidad en la que vivía y con el deseo de superarse, emigró a Estados Unidos, donde vivía su tío quien le ayudo llegar a Carolina del Norte. Buscando sobresalir y aprender inglés tomaba clases en los salones parroquiales de la Iglesia de Blessed Sacrament sin saber que meses después, en ese lugar sería su conversión.

En el año del 2000 integró al grupo Juvenil “Alma de Niño” que apenas se había formado con la ayuda del Padre Carlos Arce. En ese mismo año Juan, motivado por el grupo vivió una Jornada Juvenil en la cual Dios toco su corazón y transformo su vida. En sus inicios de conversión Juan sentía un fuerte llamado al servicio de Dios, y a pesar de estar muy entregado sirviendo en la parroquia, no comprendía lo que Dios tenía preparado para él. Padre Bob Benko quien estaba recién ordenado sacerdote y asignado a esta comunidad lo acompaño como su confesor y director espiritual e introdujo a Juan el carisma Franciscano. Impresionado por esta forma de vida de vivir en “pobreza, castidad y obediencia” entro en él, un deseo más grande de entregarse al servicio de Dios. En esos años de conversión, en una lucha continua y de discernimiento en buscar la voluntad de Dios Juan decidió regresar a México para entrar en la Orden de los Frailes Menores Conventuales, en la actual “Provincia de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe.”

Ingresó al Postulantado el 14 de agosto 2009 en Valle de Aragón el Estado de México. Ingresó al Noviciado el 11 de agosto del 2010 en el Estado de Morelos y profesó los votos temporales el 30 de julio del 2011 en el mismo convento. Emitió la profesión solemne el 10 de agosto del 2016 en Cuautitlán Izcalli, México, y completando sus estudios de Filosofía y Teología, el 14 de julio del 2021, fue ordenado Sacerdote en León Guanajuato, México.

Con mucha alegría en el Señor, Fray Juan, quiere compartir esta gracia del sacerdocio que Dios le ha otorgado, celebrando una Cantamisa de acción de gracias y compartir la Eucaristía en esta comunidad de Blessed Sacrament de la cual, como dice él, es la cuna de su vocación.

Receiving the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick before going to the Hospital

If you or a loved one is going to the hospital for surgery or treatment, we urge you to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick before being hospitalized. The Sacrament can be received after any Mass or by appointment. While the friars respond to hospital emergency call requests, receiving the Sacrament before going to the hospital is preferable in the event that one of the friars is not immediately available in an emergency. Your family and friends are welcome to join you for this special celebration so they can pray for you too.

Recibir el Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos antes de ir al hospital

Si usted o un ser querido va ha estar en el hospital debido a una cirugía o por un tratamiento. Le animamos a recibir el Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos antes de entrar en el hospital. El sacramento puede recibirse después de cualquier Misa o por cita. Los frailes responden a llamadas de emergencia solicitando el Sacramento, pero recibir el Sacramento antes de ir al hospital es preferible en caso de que los frailes no estén disponibles inmediatamente para una emergencia. Su familia y sus amigos son bienvenidos a unirse para esta celebración especial y orar por usted también.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Drama of the Heart—Jesus' Sacrifice

It is one thing to love when you feel love around you, when others understand you and are grateful for your person and gifts. It is quite another when everything around you speaks of misunderstanding, jealousy, coldness, and hatred.

It is one thing to maintain your ideals when they are shared by others, when the gospel works for you, when principle works out in practice; it is quite another when it seems you are alone in some ideal and when the gospel appears to be delivering more death than life.

It is one thing to keep your balance when the rhythms of life support it, when there is a healthy give and take to things, when life is fair; it is quite another when things are unfair, when you are unjustly criticized, when everyone else seems to have lost balance, when, like on Good Friday, it gets dark in the middle of the day.

It is one thing to be gracious when those around you are respectful, warm, and fair; it is quite another when everyone seems bitter, disrespectful, jealous, and cold.

It is one thing to bless others when they want to receive that blessing, when they hang on to your every word, when they want to be in your company. It is quite another when their very glance speaks of loathing and when they avoid you when you come into a room.

It is one thing to forgive others when that forgiveness seems fair, when it isn't impossible to swallow the hurt, when the wound dealt you is not mortal; it is quite another to forgive someone when it isn't fair, when the wound dealt you is mortal, when the life being murdered is your own.

It is one thing to give your life over to family, church, community, and God when you feel loved and supported by them, when they seem worth the sacrifice, when you get a good feeling by doing it; it is quite another thing when you do not feel support, when it doesn't seem worthwhile, and when you feel no other reason for doing it except truth and principle.

These contrasts capture, in essence, to what Jesus did in the Garden of Gethsemane and on the cross. His passion was a drama of the heart, not an endurance test for his body.

What made Jesus' sacrifice, his handing himself over, so special?

We have, I think, focused too much on the physical aspects of the crucifixion to the detriment of what was happening more deeply, underneath.

Why do I say that? Because none of the Gospels emphasize the physical sufferings, nor indeed, in the fears he expresses in conversations before his death, does Jesus. What the gospels and Jesus emphasize is his moral loneliness, the fact that he was alone, betrayed, humiliated, misunderstood, the object of jealousy and crowd hysteria, that he was a stone's throw away from everyone, that those who loved him were asleep to what was really happening, that he was unanimity-minus-one.

And this moral loneliness, mocked by those outside of it, tempted him against everything he had preached and stood for during his life and ministry. What made his sacrifice so special was not that he died a victim of violence (millions die as victims of violence and their deaths aren't necessarily special) nor that he refused to use divine power to stop his death (as he himself taught, that would have proved nothing). What made his death so special is that, inside of all the aloneness, darkness, jealousy, misunderstanding, sick crowd hysteria, coldness, and murder, he held out, he gave himself over, without bitterness, without self-pity, holding his ideals intact, gracious, respectful, forgiving, without losing his balance, his meaning, or his message.

That's the ultimate test and we face it daily in many areas of our lives.

Some years ago, I was participating in a forum debating a book on chastity. The book, written by a woman still in her early twenties, was a very idealistic one and it urged young people not to have sex before marriage, but to keep their virginity as a special gift for their partners in marriage. One of the panelists, a very sincere woman, had this reaction:

> I like what this young woman says and when my daughters are in their teens I'll have them read this book, but what she says makes a lot more sense when you are 20 years old and know what you're waiting than when your 39 years old and no longer know what you're waiting for!

Jesus' sacrifice was so special because, long after the clock had run out on everything and there seemed no reason left to wait for anything, he still held on—to his ideals, his balance, his gracious forgiveness, and his love.

The struggle to do that, to remain faithful, is the real drama inside the death of Jesus and in the end it is a struggle of the heart, not the body.

Fr. Ron Rolheiser, OMI

29o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 10-17-2021

Un Drama del Corazón — El Sacrificio de Jesús

Una cosa es amar cuando sientes amor a tu alrededor, cuando los demás te entienden y están agradecidos por tu persona y tus dones. Otra muy distinta es cuando todo lo que te rodea habla de incomprensión, celos, frialdad y odio.

Una cosa es mantener tus ideales cuando otros los comparten, cuando el Evangelio funciona para ti, cuando los principios funcionan en la práctica; otra muy distinta es cuando parece que estás solo en algún ideal y cuando el Evangelio parece otorgar más muerte que vida.

Una cosa es mantener el equilibrio cuando los ritmos de la vida lo apoyan, cuando hay un dar y recibir de cosas saludables, cuando la vida es justa; otra muy distinta es cuando las cosas son injustas, cuando te critican injustamente, cuando parece que todos los demás han perdido el equilibrio, cuando, como el Viernes Santo, oscurece en medio del día.

Una cosa es ser amable cuando los que te rodean son respetuosos, cálidos y justos; otra muy distinta es cuando todo el mundo parece amargado, irrespetuoso, celoso y frío.

Una cosa es bendecir a los demás cuando quieren recibir esa bendición, cuando se aferran a cada una de tus palabras, cuando quieren estar en tu compañía. Otra muy distinta es cuando su sola mirada habla de repugnancia y cuando te evitan cuando entras en una habitación.

Una cosa es perdonar a los demás cuando ese perdón parece justo, cuando no es imposible tragarse el dolor, cuando la herida que te hicieron no es mortal; otra muy distinta es perdonar a alguien cuando no es justo, cuando la herida que te hicieron es mortal, cuando la vida que asesinan es la tuya.

Una cosa es entregar tu vida a la familia, a la Iglesia, a la comunidad y a Dios cuando te sientes amado y apoyado por ellos, cuando parece que valen la pena el sacrificio, cuando te sientes bien al hacerlo; otra cosa es cuando no se siente el apoyo, cuando no parece que valga la pena y cuando no siente otra razón para hacerlo que la verdad y los principios.

Estos contrastes capturan, en esencia, lo que hizo Jesús en el Huerto de Getsemaní y en la cruz. Su pasión fue un drama del corazón, no una prueba de resistencia corporal.

¿Qué hizo que el sacrificio de Jesús, y su entrega, fuera tan especial?

Creo que nos hemos centrado demasiado en los aspectos físicos de la crucifixión en detrimento de lo que estaba sucediendo más profundamente, por debajo.

¿Por qué digo eso? Porque ninguno de los Evangelios enfatiza los sufrimientos físicos, ni tampoco en los miedos que expresa en las conversaciones antes de su muerte, Jesús lo hace. Lo que enfatizan los evangelios y Jesús es su soledad moral, el hecho de que estaba solo, traicionado, humillado, incomprendido, objeto de los celos y la histeria de la multitud, que estaba a tiro de piedra de todos, que los que lo amaban estaban dormidos para lo que realmente estaba sucediendo, que él era unanimidad-menos-uno.

Y esta soledad moral, de la que se burlaron los que estaban fuera de ella, lo tentó contra todo lo que había predicado y defendido durante su vida y ministerio. Lo que hizo que su sacrificio fuera tan especial no fue que murió víctima de la violencia (millones mueren como víctimas de la violencia y sus muertes no son necesariamente especiales) ni que se negó a usar el poder divino para detener su muerte (como él mismo enseñó, que no hubiera probado nada). Lo que hizo que su muerte fuera tan especial es que, dentro de toda la soledad, la oscuridad, los celos, la incomprensión, la histeria de la multitud enferma, la frialdad y el asesinato, resistió, se entregó, sin amargura, sin autocompasión, sosteniendo sus ideales. intacto, amable, respetuoso, perdonador, sin perder el equilibrio, el significado o el mensaje.

Esa es la prueba definitiva y la enfrentamos a diario en muchas áreas de nuestras vidas.

Hace algunos años, estaba participando en un foro en el que se debatía un libro sobre castidad. El libro, escrito por una mujer que tenía poco más de veinte años, era muy idealista e instaba a los jóvenes a no tener relaciones sexuales antes del matrimonio, sino a mantener su virginidad como un regalo especial para sus cónyuges. Una de las panelistas, una mujer muy sincera, tuvo esta reacción: Me gusta lo que dice esta joven y cuando mis hijas sean adolescentes les haré leer este libro, pero lo que dice tiene mucho más sentido cuando tienes 20 años y sabes lo que estás esperando que cuando tienes 39 años y ya no sabes para que estás esperando!

El sacrificio de Jesús fue tan especial porque, mucho después de que el tiempo se agotara en todo y parecía que no quedaba razón para esperar nada, él todavía se aferró a sus ideales, a su equilibrio, a su perdón bondadoso y a su amor.

La lucha para hacer eso, para permanecer fiel, es el verdadero drama dentro de la muerte de Jesús que al final es una lucha del corazón, no del cuerpo.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Do you ever catch yourself being bossy? That is a mistake grown-ups make, too. It is no fun to work or play with bossy people. They don't honor God when they order people around. In today's Gospel, Jesus told his friends to be kind, not bossy. God wants us to help and serve other people.

PRAYER

Dear God, when I want to get my own way, help me to stop. Show me ways I can help other people instead.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Invite a friend over to visit, and think of ways to serve her. Hang up her jacket, offer her something to eat, and ask her what she would like to do. Share your best toys with her, and let her have the first turn.

Lemonade Wars

This summer, our 4th grade students read the book, The Lemonade War by Jacqueline Davies. Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Martin challenged their 4th grade students to have their own Lemonade War for a good cause! The goal was $300.

Students sold lemonade, juice, cookies and/or chips during dismissal.

All proceeds went to Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation, which helps to fund research for pediatric cancer.

They raised $1,875!
