St. Cecelia's Roman Catholic Church

When Jesus saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them,

for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

Questions of the Week

Question for Children: How do you keep Sunday as a day of rest?

Question for Youth: Jesus was moved with pity for the people who were gathered. Who are the people you are moved with pity for? What can you do to help them?

Question for Adults: Why is rest important, and how do you make sure you get enough of it in your own life?

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JULY 18, 2021

THE APOSTLES REPORTED ALL THEY HAD DONE AND TAUGHT. JESUS SAID TO THEM,

"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

MARK 6:30, 31

COMPASSION

If we were to use one word to describe the scriptures for today, it would be "compassion." In Jeremiah, God rails against those who have scattered the sheep, and vows to "gather the remnant" personally. We also hear the prophecy about the coming Messiah. In Ephesians, Christ is breaking down the walls of division between peoples and drawing them to be reconciled with God in peace. In Mark, Jesus calls the tired disciples away to rest and have some "me time," but even then the crowds persisted. Jesus saw their spiritual hunger and neediness and was "moved with pity." All three situations involve looking beyond one's own agenda to see the needs of others and respond. God models how to empathize with others. May we continue to learn to be kinder, gentler, and more caring for each other.

TIME FOR A TEAM MEETING

In last week's Gospel, Jesus sent the apostles out two by two. Today we see him bringing them back together, reporting "all they had done and taught." A lot has happened between then and now and in this time the disciples experienced many things. They would have grown in their ministry and their ability to heal and preach, but they probably also ran into frustrating times and encountered their limitations as human beings. If human nature prevailed, their partners were driving them nuts! So now after all this sharing, Jesus called for some balance in their lives. It was time to come away and rest. Between family and friends and social media, many of us have lost this ability to "be by ourselves" as we have become accustomed to filling every day and every moment with distractions. Perhaps one of the gifts and challenges of "sheltering in place" these last months is that we celebrated moments of joy and hope and peace but were also forced to listen to and name those voices of anger, loneliness, and fear.

WELL-LAID PLANS

It is important to have balance in our lives, and Jesus was indeed trying to teach this to the Apostles, but when they got to their intended place of repose, they encountered so many people Jesus was filled with compassion. No doubt he went about feeding them spiritually and physically; it would have been important for him to be hospitable. But at some point in time, I'm guessing that he still pulled the apostles aside and told them "Okay, people are settled now, so let's leave all the excitement, delegate the job to somebody else, and find some peace and quiet." None of us is any good at our prayer, our ministries, our lives, unless we take the time to find the quiet and go back to replenish our own wells. There is no way we can give to others unless we do. That is why we return to church each week, to rest and be nourished and renewed. And none of us is so important that we can't take time away to take care of ourselves. So be gentle with yourself and with others this week.

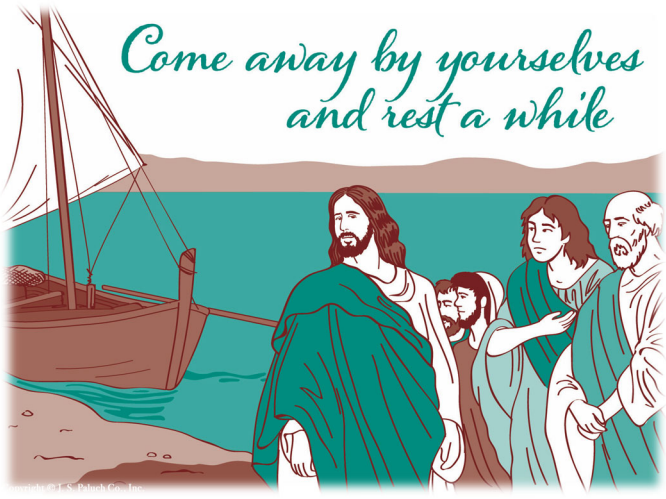
Celebrating Legion of Mary's 100th Anniversary with 100 Days of Adoration

Come join us in celebrating 100 years! You are cordially invited to spend time with Christ adoring the Blessed Sacrament.

The Legion of Mary at St. Cecelia's is holding 100 days of Adoration in honor of the it's 100th Anniversary.

Daily beginning May 31st from 3 – 4 pm, we will sponsor a 100 day offering to Christ through the powerful intercession of Mary's Immaculate Heart.



"The Vocation and Mission of the Lay Faithful in the Church and in the World"

This begins a series on an apostolic exhortation, CHRISTIFIDELES LAICI, given by St. John Paul II on December 30, 1988, the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. In this document, the Pope exercised his authority as the Successor of St. Peter to teach on a subject of fundamental pastoral concern: the laity's dignity and mission. It aims to foster "a deeper awareness among all the faithful of the gift and responsibility they share, both as a group and as individuals, in the communion and mission of the Church" (#2.13 - #2 refers to the paragraph in the introduction of CHRISTIFIDELES LAICI.)

John Paul points our two dangers to which lay people today succumb "the temptation of being so strongly interested in Church services and tasks that some fail to become actively engaged in their responsibilities in the professional, social, cultural and political world; and the other is the temptation of legitimizing the un-warranted separation of faith from life, that is, a separation of the Gospel's acceptance from the actual living of the Gospel in various situations in the world" (#2.9). The Holy Father takes up these two issues in this apostolic exhortation.

The Second in a Series

S.2 "The Vocation and Mission of the Lay Faithful in the Church and in the World"

The Apostolic Exhortation, CHRISTIFIDELES LAICI, of St. John Paul II is an appeal to the whole Church that she should come to a deeper understanding of the lay vocation and put this understanding into practice. Through the document's exhortation, the Pope strikes a tone of urgency and hope. He will repeatedly warn that the current state of affairs in the Church and in the world urgently calls for the action of the lay faithful. He will add: "It is not permissible for anyone to remain idle" (#3.2) and to emphasize it, he will cite Jesus words: "You go into my vineyard too" (Mt 20:4). John Paul's hope is based on the confidence in God's unfailing care for the Church. Despite adverse situations, the Church is not overcome, "because the Holy Spirit, who gives her (the Church) life, sustains her in her mission". And besides this, it is Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, who is the hope of humanity; he himself is "the 'Good News' and the bearer of joy" that the Church announces each day, and to whom the Church announces before all people" (#7.5).

The vivid unity and the theological force of the document depends on the many biblical images around which the exhortation is structured. This will be seen particularly in the image of the vine and the branches in the Gospel of John (Jn 15:1-5) and the image in the Synoptic Gospels (Mt, Mk, Lk) of the laborers in the vineyard (Mt 20:1-16):

The vine is both Christ and the Church and the disciples are the branches grafted on the vine: they are to bear fruit. The vineyard is the world to be transformed. The laborers are, for the most part, the lay faithful.

Venga a misa lo suficientemente temprano para no interrumpir y salga lo suficientemente tarde como para no insultar al Señor. La misa no termina hasta que se completa la canción final. Tenga cuidado de apagar sus dispositivos electrónicos y subir y bajar tranquilamente a los reclinatorios durante la misa. Vístase de manera modesta y apropiada como lo haría para una ocasión especial.

Decimosexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

18 DE JULIO DE 2021

LOS APÓSTOLES LE CONTARON TODO LO QUE HABÍAN HECHO Y ENSEÑADO. ENTONCES JESÚS LES DIJO:

"Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco".

MARCOS 6:30, 31

COMPASIÓN

Si tuviéramos que usar una palabra para describir las Escrituras de hoy, esa sería "compasión". En Jeremías, Dios reprende contra los que han dispersado a las ovejas, y promete "reunir al resto" personalmente. También escuchamos la profecía sobre la llegada del Mesías. En la carta a los efesios, Cristo derriba los muros de la división entre los pueblos y los lleva a reconciliarse en paz con Dios. En Marcos, Jesús llama a los discípulos cansados para que descansen y tengan algo de tiempo "personal", pero aún así las multitudes continuaban. Jesús vio su hambre y necesidad espiritual y se "compadeció". Las tres situaciones implican mirar más allá de los propios intereses para ver las necesidades de los demás y responder. Dios es un modelo de cómo empatizar con las demás personas. Que sigamos aprendiendo a ser más amables, más bondadosos y solidarios con los demás.

HORA DE UNA REUNIÓN DE EQUIPO

En el Evangelio de la semana pasada, Jesús envió a los apóstoles de dos en dos. Hoy lo vemos reuniéndolos, informando de "todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado". Muchas cosas pasaron entre ese tiempo y ese ahora en que los discípulos experimentaron muchas cosas. Crecieron en su trabajo misionero y la capacidad de curar y predicar, pero ellos probablemente también llegaron a tener momentos frustrantes y encontraron sus limitaciones como seres humanos. ¡Si la naturaleza humana se imponía, sus compañeros los estaban volviendo locos! Así que ahora después de todo el compartir que hubo, Jesús pidió algo de estabilidad en sus vidas. Era tiempo de alejarse y descansar. Entre la familia, los amigos y las redes sociales, muchos de nosotros perdimos la capacidad de "estar solos", pues ya nos hemos acostumbrados a llenar cada día y cada momento con distracciones. Tal vez una de las fortalezas y desafíos de "refugiarse en un lugar" estos últimos meses es que celebramos momentos de alegría, de esperanza y de paz, pero también nos vimos forzados a escuchar y nombrar esas voces de ira, soledad y miedo.

PLANES BIEN TRAZADOS

Es importante tener una estabilidad en nuestras vidas, y Jesús de hecho estaba tratando de enseñar esto a sus Apóstoles, pero cuando llegaron al lugar donde habían previsto descansar, se encontraron con tanta gente que Jesús tuvo compasión. Sin duda, se dedicó a alimentarlos espiritual y físicamente, tendría que ser importante para él ser hospitalario. Pero, en algún momento, estoy suponiendo que junto a los apóstoles se apartó y les dijo: "está bien por ahora, las personas ya están asentadas, dejemos este tumulto, deleguemos el trabajo a alguien más y hallemos algo de paz y tranquilidad". Ninguno de nosotros es bueno para la oración, nuestros apostolados, nuestras vidas, a menos que tomemos tiempo para encontrar la tranquilidad y volvamos a llenar nuestros pozos. No hay manera de que podamos dar a los demás a menos que lo hagamos. Ese es el porqué regresamos a la iglesia cada semana, para descansar, alimentarnos y ser renovados. Y ninguno de nosotros es tan importante que no pueda tomarse un tiempo para cuidarse a sí mismo. Así que, esta semana, sé amable contigo mismo y con los demás.

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Cómo reservas el domingo como día de descanso?

Pregunta para los jóvenes: Jesús sintió compasión de las personas que estaban allí reunidas. ¿De quién te compadeces? ¿Qué puedes hacer para ayudarlos?

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Por qué es importante descansar y cómo se asegura usted de descansar lo suficiente en su propia vida?
