Stewardship Reflections

"Blessed are you when people hate you,…exclude and insult you, and denounce your name…on account of the Son of Man." (LUKE 6:22). All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 13, 2022

BLESSINGS AND WOES

Today we hear once again of the deep connection between Jesus and Israel's prophets. In the reading from Jeremiah, God's curses at the opening are counterbalanced by God's blessings in the second part. In Luke's version of the Beatitudes, Jesus begins with blessings, then counterbalances with a "woe" section. The point is clear: the way we live our lives has a direct connection to whether we will experience curses and woes, or blessings instead. Of course, being among God's blessed ones (in Latin, beati, from which "beatitudes" comes) doesn't necessarily mean a life free of woe. Jesus, in his fully human nature, knew this. He also knew that when we seek happiness through our own devices, and trust only in ourselves, the woes are guaranteed to come. Let us follow the wisdom of Jeremiah and Jesus, along with the opening of the book of Psalms (echoed by Jeremiah today): "blessed are the ones who trust in the Lord."

I DON'T KNOW

There are times when the smartest, but most difficult, thing we can say is, "I don't know." While we often think of this as a sign of weakness, the amount of humility it takes to say this means that the word of God is alive and well in us. To say "I don't know" means that we look outside of ourselves to learn, and to find those who do know, and—ultimately—accept that we have to look to others and to God to help us, to guide us through life. To place our trust and hope only in this world, Paul tells the Corinthians (and us!), makes us people to be pitied. Jesus echoes this in the "woes" section of Luke's Beatitudes, when he points out that trusting in earthly wealth, full bellies, entertainments, and reputation will, eventually, not be enough when we are called beyond this life.

LOOK 'EM IN THE EYE

Prior to delivering the blessings and woes of his "Sermon on the Plain" in Luke, Jesus had been on top of a mountain in prayer, after which he selected the Twelve to go on his mission with him. Coming down from the mountain, the first thing Jesus does is show them what is at the heart of his—and their—mission: preaching to the multitude, healing all who were in need of it, no matter where they had come from. Luke then carefully notes that Jesus raises his eyes, not to look toward heaven again in prayer, but he raises his eyes to look directly at his disciples, to share the message of blessings and woes. This scene echoes Moses coming down from the mountain to give Israel its command as to how they should live in God's covenant. As followers of Jesus today, we are called to live out his mission to the world, while we also look beyond this world to trust in God, our only hope.

Salmo Responsorial

De todo corazón te damos gracias,
Señor, porque escuchaste nuestros ruegos.
— Salmo 138 (137):1

Reflexiones de corresponsabilidad

" Cuando oigo la voz del Señor diciendo « A quién enviaré? ¿Quién irá por nosotros?» dije 'Aquí estoy,' entonces respondí 'envíame a mí' " (ISAIAS 6: 8)

Cada día, en pequeñas y grandes maneras, Dios pregunta "¿A quién enviaré?" Bien sea asumir un nuevo ministerio, dar una sonrisa amable a un extraño, o decir una palabra de aliento a un amigo, Dios constantemente brinda oportunidades para ayudar a alguien que lo necesita. Dios nos está hablando constantemente; simplemente necesitamos prestar más atención. Cuando oiga la llamada de Dios tenga el coraje de caminar a través de la puerta y decir, "Aquí estoy, Señor".

Campaña Anual del Obispo 2022
Celebrando 40 años—
Continuar avivando la llama de la fe en el servicio

Los refugios operados por Caridades Católicas permanecieron con todo el personal durante la pandemia de Covid-19 y brindaron alojamiento, comidas, asesoramiento en caso de crisis y servicios de administración de casos a los residentes que de otro modo no tendrían hogar. Este es solo un ejemplo de los más de 100 programas en 20 sitios a lo largo de los condados de Middlesex, Somerset, Hunterdon y Warren que llegan con Obras de Misericordia a aquellos que luchan con las dificultades de la vida. Su donación a la Campaña Anual del Obispo ayuda a garantizar que nadie se quede sin hogar, con hambre o sin apoyo emocional en estos tiempos extremadamente difíciles.
