COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN

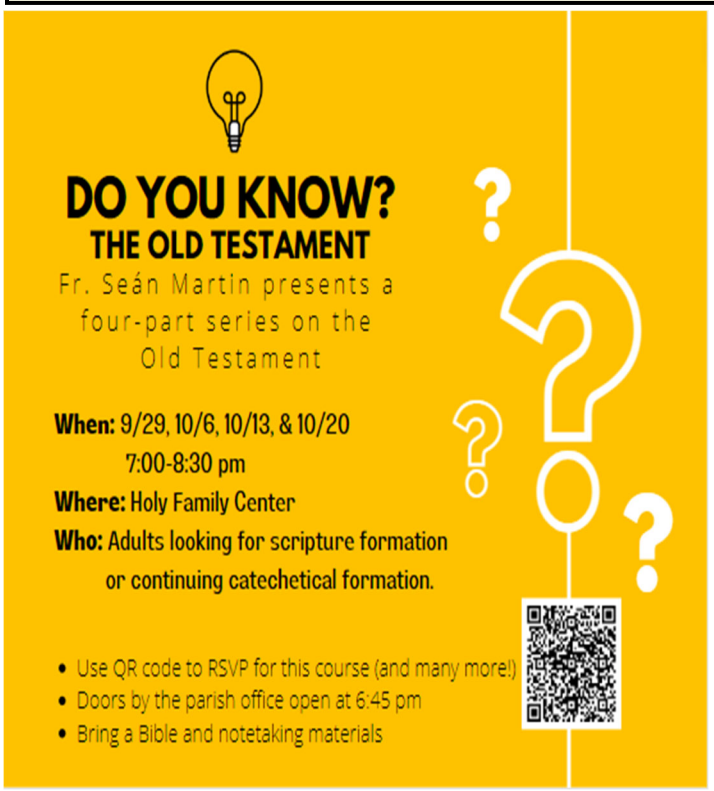
Come Join us!

Our next meeting is Thursday, Septem 22nd at 6:30pm in the Holy Family Center. Our guest speaker for the month is from the Serra Club of North Central Dallas.

Serrans are dedicated Catholics who pray for the increase and perseverance of vocations to the Priesthood and the Religious Life. Come learn about the Serra experience!
Light refreshments will be served.

Reminder: We will be collecting Feminine Hygiene products for the Helping Hands pantry.

See our page on our parish website for our calendar of events: OurLadyRockwall.Org, under "MINISTRIES AND FELLOWSHIP."



MARRIAGE MOMENTS

"Where do the conflicts among you come from?" (James 4:1) - Jealousy, fatigue, fear, misunderstanding... There are many sources but more important is to search for reconciliation, mercy. We all have our faults. Is there anything I need to ask forgiveness for from my beloved this week?

PARENTING POINTERS

"Taking a child, Jesus placed him/her in the [disciples'] midst....Whoever receives one child in my name, receives me." (Mark 9:36-37) Think of one thing you have learned from your child.

JOIN OUR HIKE FOR LIFE TEAM

We encourage all parishioners to join the Father Sean Martin - Our Lady of the Lake Team in this year's Hike for Life. The event will be held in Garland, at Audubon Park, on October 8 beginning at 8:30 a.m. The Hike is an annual fundraiser for area pro-life ministries and crisis pregnancy centers and is a family-friendly walk though a beautiful park.

Go to https://secure.fundeasy.com/ministrysync/event/website/home/?e=23768 or scan the QR code. Find the Garland Hike, register as a walker, and (most importantly) join the Father Sean Martin - Our Lady of the Lake Team today! For more information, email Todd White at twhite@thewhitelawfirm.com.

The Creed may not be the most boring part of Mass, but in many churches, it contends mightily. It's long. It's the same thing week after week. It's hard to understand. People mumble it. You may hear people praise their church for its great music, an insightful preacher, outstanding lectors, beautiful art, or even convenient parking. But no one brags that their church has a rip-roaring experience at the Creed.

What to do? Some places just skip it. Others take the bull by the horns and sing the darn thing. You can even hear it sung in Latin if you know where to go.

The liturgy itself offers a couple ways to break the monotony. During Lent and Easter and at children's Masses, for example, we may recite the Apostles' Creed instead. You probably know the Apostles' Creed as the one that begins the Rosary. It's shorter than the Nicene Creed. That's supposed to make it more appealing to children.

Legend has it that the Apostles formulated the one named for them. History has it that the Council of Constantinople (381) formulated the beliefs proclaimed by the Council of Nicaea in 325. The Nicene Creed found its way into the weekly liturgy between the fifth and the eleventh centuries.

One way to add variety to the Creed is by turning it into a question and answer device. This happens at the Easter Vigil, and, in the United States, on Easter Sunday Masses. This practice restores the Creed to its most ancient structure. Back in the second and third centuries, creeds took this form at the Baptism of new Christians. "Do you believe . . . ?" "I do." And down they'd go into the water. Ever since Matthew closed his Gospel with Jesus urging us to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, creeds have taken this three-part structure.

The purpose of the Creed is to express with conviction the heart of what we believe. It doesn't include Catholic issues the media like to chew on: celibacy, all-male leadership, and the Church's positions on morality. Some elements of Catholic life have changed over the years and could change again. The Creed stays the same. Sadly, the secular press never gives us Easter headlines boasting, "Thousands Profess Faith in Christ at Easter Vigil." That's not news.

We know better. It's good news. It's worth saying over and over again, week after week, in a long mantra that gives us unity, pride, and faith.
