Learning and Living Our Catholic Faith

My dear Brothers and Sisters, sons and daughters of our Heavenly Father,

Happy Father's Day!
Today in a special way we honor and thank our fathers, our Dads.
May God bless them!

No one of us is perfect. As we make our pilgrimage through life and try to live in accord with God's laws and seeking out and trusting in his Mercy, we strive for Christian perfection. We honor, forgive and pray for our fathers. To be a Christian Dad is not easy. The devil strikes at them with glee, because they represent and share in God's fatherhood and if he can get them to be even a little less than what they're meant to be to their wife and children, the evil one can more easily get the whole family. So as we honor and rejoice in the great gift of fatherhood and our Dads, we pray for them. This is the year of St Joseph, and below find an excerpt from Pope Francis' letter on St Joseph, "With the Heart of a Father." Here he speaks of St Joseph, a tender and loving father. May we all, and especially Dads, know the tender and loving heart of our Heavenly Father and St Joseph and be models of both to us all!- Happy Father's Day! God love you. - Fr Jeremy OMV

"2. A tender and loving father
Joseph saw Jesus grow daily "in wisdom and in years and in divine and human favour" (Lk 2:52). As the Lord had done with Israel, so Joseph did with Jesus: he taught him to walk, taking him by the hand; he was for him like a father who raises an infant to his cheeks, bending down to him and feeding him (cf. Hos 11:3-4).

In Joseph, Jesus saw the tender love of God: "As a father has compassion for his children, so the Lord has compassion for those who fear him" (Ps 103:13).

In the synagogue, during the praying of the Psalms, Joseph would surely have heard again and again that the God of Israel is a God of tender love,[11] who is good to all, whose "compassion is over all that he has made" (Ps 145:9).

The history of salvation is worked out "in hope against hope" (Rom 4:18), through our weaknesses. All too often, we think that God works only through our better parts, yet most of his plans are realized in and despite our frailty. Thus Saint Paul could say: "To keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me: 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness'" (2 Cor 12:7-9).

Since this is part of the entire economy of salvation, we must learn to look upon our weaknesses with tender mercy.[12]

The evil one makes us see and condemn our frailty, whereas the Spirit brings it to light with tender love. Tenderness is the best way to touch the frailty within us. Pointing fingers and judging others are frequently signs of an inability to accept our own weaknesses, our own frailty. Only tender love will save us from the snares of the accuser (cf. Rev 12:10). That is why it is so important to encounter God's mercy, especially in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, where we experience his truth and tenderness. Paradoxically, the evil one can also speak the truth to us, yet he does so only to condemn us. We know that God's truth does not condemn, but instead welcomes, embraces, sustains and forgives us. That truth always presents itself to us like the merciful father in Jesus' parable (cf. Lk 15:11-32). It comes out to meet us, restores our dignity, sets us back on our feet and rejoices for us, for, as the father says: "This my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found" (v. 24).

Even through Joseph's fears, God's will, his history and his plan were at work. Joseph, then, teaches us that faith in God includes believing that he can work even through our fears, our frailties and our weaknesses. He also teaches us that amid the tempests of life, we must never be afraid to let the Lord steer our course. At times, we want to be in complete control, yet God always sees the bigger picture."

If you have submitted a name for prayers in the bulletin they will remain for one month. If you would like to ask the parish to continue praying, please let the parish office know by calling (618) 465-4284. Thank you for your prayers!

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Focus: Jesus' power is greater than anything on earth.

Nature is a powerful force, and yet with three simple words, Quiet! Be still! Jesus showed that his power was greater. Jesus is here for us, too, to calm the storms in our lives and to draw us closer to him. We do our part by nourishing our faith and strengthening our relationship with Jesus as we journey with him toward the kingdom of God.

In the first reading, the Lord speaks to Job from the storm, asking him who it was that took control of the stormy sea. Paul writes to the Corinthians that whoever is in Christ is a new creation. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus calms the storm with a simple command and asks them why they are terrified saying, Do you not yet have faith?

PART ONE - THE PROFESSION OF FAITH

SECTION TWO – THE CREEDS – GOD REVEALS HIS NAME

IV. THE IMPLICATIONS OF FAITH IN ONE GOD

228. "Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God is one LORD..." (Dt 6:4; Mk 12:29). "The supreme being must be unique, without equal. . . If God is not one, he is not God"

GOD, OUR LOVING AND MERCIFUL FATHER

"It is very important that we understand deeply how good God is, and not measure him by our own limitations or think that he tires of our wavering, weakness, and negligence. Our God is not such. Let us think of him as he truly is, filled with goodness, mercy, and compassion, and let us know him as the loving Father he is, who raises us when we have fallen, who never tires of forgiving us, and to whom we give great joy and honor when we seek forgiveness."

JOURNEY INTO FAITH

HOW DO PEOPLE FIND OUT ABOUT OUR R.C.I.A. PROGRAM?

The answer is: YOU!

Our bulletin is read mostly by our own parishioners. Fellow Catholics and their love for Jesus and their neighbor, not bulletin articles and announcements, draw people to the Catholic Church and RCIA programs.

This autumn, we look forward to receiving another group of inquirers on their faith journey through our Rite of Christian Initiation Program (R.C.I.A.). Each member of our parish is called to draw others closer to Jesus and His Church. Prayerfully this summer ask God to SPEAK to you, to CALL you to a deeper walk with Him, and then SEND you to your friends, neighbors, and family to DRAW them closer to Him also.

Please contact our RCIA email address or the parish office if you or anyone you know is interested in becoming Catholic or simply interested in knowing more about the Catholic faith, no strings attached: rcia@stmarysalton.com; 618-463-1793. Please leave your name, your email address, and your phone number.

Let us all pray: Speak to me, Lord. Call me closer to you, Lord. Send me, Lord, in charity to others. Draw those I encounter and myself closer to you, Lord! Amen.

HEY FATHER! WHY DO WE...??

Q When do we say the Our Father at Mass? Why?

A When Jesus' disciples asked Him how they should pray, He gave them (and us) the Our Father. It is a model for the 4 principal kinds of prayer: praise/adoration, petition/supplication, contrition/sorrow for sin, and thanksgiving. But more importantly, during the Mass and any other structured prayer (liturgy), in which there are various kinds of prayer and spiritual experiences very particular to each person present (contrition, listening to Scripture and reflecting on it, professing the Creed, uniting ourselves to Christ's sacrifice on the altar, etc.), the Lord's Prayer serves to gather everything into one common prayer to present to our Father in heaven. It also mirrors Jesus crying out to the same heavenly Father from the cross, seeking to understand what He is going through in His humanity and beseeching the Father for forgiveness of His executioners. It also helps us look forward to our resurrection, just as Jesus called out to His Father at Lazarus' tomb and brought him back to life. As the priest's prayer indicates: "Deliver us, Lord, we pray from every evil..." we really are praying for interior peace amid the swirling storms of temptation and doubt that make it hard to maintain and grow in our relationship with our Heavenly Father. Pray it like you mean it!

PRAYER CORNER

A Prayer for Fathers

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect fathers and all who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them.

You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done. Amen. - Adapted from Pope St John XXIII
