16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Return of the Twelve

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Mark 6:34

El Regreso de los Doce Discípulos

Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor, y se puso a enseñarles muchas cosas.

Marcos 6:34

Sacrament of Confession

Sundays/Domingos: 8:30 AM and 2:30 PM in the Main Church

Thursday/Jueves: 9:00 AM in The S.L.C.*, Immediately following the Mass

In the beginning, God created the Heavens and the Earth and everything in it in six days. On the 7th day He rested.

On the seventh day God completed the work he had been doing; he rested on the seventh day from all the work he had undertaken. God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work he had done in creation.

- Genesis 2:2-3

As the apostles return from the mission Jesus sent them, he noticed that they were tired and told them: "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." - Mark 6:31.

Just as God rested after six days of work, so he calls us to rest after long days of doing his work. He calls us to a silent place where we can rest and absorb all that has happened during the previous days. He calls us into the silence so we can listen to Him speak to our hearts. He calls us into an isolated place so we cannot be distracted when he is speaking to us. Through this passage, God tells us that to live is not about work, work, work. We must have a day to rest, a time for silence, a place to deepen our relationship with him without distractions. God wants us to not just to share the Good News, but also to meditate on all the good things we witness through his Mercy.

En el principio, Dios creó los cielos y la tierra y todo lo que contiene en seis días. En el séptimo día descansó.

El séptimo día, Dios concluyó la obra que había hecho, y cesó de hacer la obra que había emprendido. Dios bendijo el séptimo día y lo consagró, porque en él cesó de hacer la obra que había creado.

- Genesis 2: 2-3

Mientras los apóstoles regresaban de la misión que Jesús los había enviado, Jesús se dio cuenta de que estaban cansados y les dijo: "Ven conmigo a un lugar desierto, para descansar un poco."

- Marcos 6:31

Así como Dios descansó después de seis días de trabajo, de esta manera el nos llama a descansar después de largos días de hacer su trabajo. El nos llama a un lugar silencioso donde podemos descansar y absorber todo lo que ha ocurrido durante los días anteriores. Nos llama en el silencio para que podamos escucharlo hablar a nuestros corazones. Él nos pone en un lugar aislado, para no ser distraído cuando él nos está hablando. A través de este pasaje, Dios nos dice que la vida no se trata de trabajo, trabajo, trabajo. Debemos tener un día de descanso, un tiempo de silencio, un lugar para profundizar nuestra relación con él sin distracciones. Dios quiere que no sólo compartamos las Buenas Nueva, sino también que meditemos sobre todas las cosas buenas de las que somos testigos a través de su misericordia.
