VOCATION VIEWS

"The harvest is rich," Jesus tells the seventy-two in today's Gospel, "but the workers are few." The situation is the same today. How can I help with God's harvest? Am I called into the field? Am I one who could provide food or shelter or wages to those who toil in the fields of the Lord?

Prayer for Independence Day

Dear God,
as we celebrate today with fireworks and festivals,
help us never to forget the reason for our joy.
Help us remember that our rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness were signed into our heritage with the willing blood of American patriots.
Most of all, help us remember that the rights of all people are more than words on a document, and that all people have rights
because you have given us the dignity of human life.
Grant freedom to all,
and give us the strength to protect the rights of others.
Amen

School News

Summer Scrip News!

The scrip box is now located at the cluster office since the St. John Students are out of school. Please stop by Monday-Friday from 8:00 am - 3:00 pm to pick up scrip, or before/after weekend Masses. As a reminder, during the summer months, we will be placing our scrip order on Tuesday mornings, so if you'd like to place a special order, please make sure it is in the cluster office no later than 8:00 am on Tuesday. Those orders will be ready for pick up on the following Friday or during weekend Masses. Thank you!

Coach Wanted

We are looking for a volleyball coach for the upcoming season. Practices begin during the second week of school and the season lasts for 2 months. If you are interested in coaching our 4th through 6th grade girls (it is a paid position) please contact Mrs. Rhonda Bussan at bussanr@sjs.pvt.k12.ia.us for details.

Lunch Program 2022-23

During the 21-22 school year, free lunch and breakfast were available to all students due to the Covid 19 Pandemic. The USDA has decided that Breakfast and Lunch will resume being full price for the 22-23 school year. We appreciate your understanding as this was not a local decision, but a decision made by the USDA and Federal Government. Your student(s) may qualify for free or reduced-price meals by filling out the 2022-2023 Iowa Application for Free & Reduced-Price School Meals/Milk. If qualified, the reduced price is $.30 for breakfast and $.40 for lunch.

Eagles Nest

Did you know that we have quite a collection of slightly-used to new dress-code compliant clothing? We've named it (actually the PTO named it) the Eagles Nest. This collection of clothing has been organized and is sitting on a two-sided bookcase just inside the main entrance. Please feel free to take whatever you wish from the shelves. If you'd like to donate practically new clothing, please drop it off in the office.

From the Desk of Fr. Beckman:

Archbishop Jackels has asked us to continue to reflect on the Eucharist as the source and summit of our Catholic faith Tradition. The Eucharist is celebrated in what we call the Mass. So, for the next four weeks we will try to gain a deeper understanding of this most sacred mystery. Please pray and reflect with me more deeply.

The Third Commandment tells us to keep one day a week holy. The Jews do that on Saturday, the Sabbath. Muslims, another monotheistic faith, regard Friday as their day of worship. Catholics do it on Sunday, to honor the day Jesus rose from the dead. We keep Sunday holy by not working (unless we really have to), by doing good deeds, and by worship at Mass. The heart of our worship at Mass involves gift-giving between God and ourselves; in fact, "the holy exchange of gifts" is a traditional way of referring to the Mass. In the first part of Mass, called the Liturgy of the Word, in the readings and the homily, we listen to a proclamation and an explanation of God's unconditional, unbounded love for us.

In exchange, in the second part of Mass called the Liturgy of the Eucharist, we give the gift of like-minded love to God. And after that, a series of changes take place: We reach into the collection basket to change our gift of love to God into an offering of money, time in prayer, or service to the poor. Those offerings are then changed into, and collectively symbolized by the bread and wine that are brought to the altar.

And at the altar, God works through a priest to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus, making mystically present his sacrifice on the cross for our benefit. We call this the Paschal Mystery. The Eucharist is given as spiritual food at Holy Communion to change us to be like Jesus, imitating his mind and heart, his humility and charity, his forgiveness and service.

And if we live that way after Mass, outside of church, on weekdays, towards any and all people, even an enemy, especially an enemy, with God's help we will change the world. All of the above makes up the worship we offer God at Holy Mass. It is right and just, our duty and our salvation to give God thanks and praise at Mass.

Next week we will delve more deeply into the "substance" of it all.

Fr. David

July 3, 2022 - 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.
