(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorma

Within Thy Wounds

The prayer I love best in the world is the Anima Christi. This private, devotional litany of supplication, begins with the phrase “anima Christi, sanctifica me” (“soul of Christ, sanctify me”) and continues on to appeal individually to each aspect of Our Lord’s crucified flesh: “Body of Christ, save me; blood of Christ, inebriate me; water from Christ’s side, wash me; passion of Christ, strengthen me; Oh good Jesus, hear me.”

Then comes my favorite part: “within thy wounds hide me.”

The Anima Christi is a prayer traditionally said after receiving Holy Communion. The ancient Celts spoke of liminal places, where the veil separating this world from the next is particularly thin, and I believe the moments immediately following the reception of Holy Communion, when the Host is dissolving on my tongue, create a liminal place. When I am in that place, I am as intimately connected to God as I can be while my heart is still beating.

And when I am there, holding God within me, what are the words that I speak? It’s overwhelming to think about. What could possibly be right to say?

There is no right or wrong answer, I suppose. But the best words I can think of are these: “Within thy wounds, Lord, hide me.”

There is a reason Christ showed his wounds as he said the words, “Peace be with you.” It was not just a means of identifying himself — it was a catechism lesson. Here, he was saying. Here is the peace you will not find anywhere else.

Questions of the Week
Reflect and Respond to Scripture

1st Reading

In the immediate aftermath of Jesus' resurrection and ascension, the community of believers in Jerusalem experienced much joy and harmony. In what ways do you help build up your faith community?

2nd Reading

With Jesus' resurrection from the dead, Peter can now speak of an inheritance that awaits all believers and will one day be revealed to us. How should knowledge of this upcoming gift impact our living in the present moment?

Gospel Reading

Thomas needed concrete evidence before he would believe that Jesus had risen from the dead. What convinces you that Jesus is risen and alive?

Opportunities and resources to live your faith!

FAITH & FILM NIGHT ~ FRIDAY APRIL 17, 2026
CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION
6:30-9:15 PM

Please join us for our first “Faith & Film Night” on Friday April 17th, 2026. Enjoy a free film, faith sharing about the film and some light refreshments at Resurrection. We will begin this new program with the acclaimed 1989 film “Field of Dreams,” starring Kevin Costner as Ray Kinsella. Field of Dreams is more than a baseball movie—it’s a story about faith, obedience, reconciliation, and the quiet ways God calls us to trust Him. Like Ray hearing the whisper, “If you build it, he will come,” our Catholic faith reminds us that God often speaks softly to our hearts, inviting us to step out in trust even when the path makes little sense. It’s a beautiful reflection on forgiveness, healing between fathers and children, and the courage to act on belief rather than certainty. Please join us to watch Field of Dreams and explore how this beloved film echoes the Gospel message of faith, redemption, and hope. The movie is rated PG-13 for mild language and thematic elements.
