The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Dear Parishioners of St. Margaret Mary,

The earthly life of Jesus is one big mystery from beginning to end: the Mystery of the Incarnation (His adopting our human nature) right up through the Paschal Mystery (His suffering, death, and resurrection). It should be no surprise, then, that His divine life would entail yet another mystery.

We believe in ONE God in THREE divine Persons, and this is the Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity, which we celebrate today. Indeed, we profess this belief every time we make (or pray) the Sign of the Cross: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." The mystery is simply this: How can three Persons, who are truly distinct from one another, form one single Godhead? We are monotheists and not tritheists, after all. Confused? You're not alone.

I can still vividly hear my professor in seminary telling the class: "God isn't the old man with the beard." God is each of the Three and all of the Three. Perhaps it helps to focus on the roles attributed to the Persons of the Trinity over the course of salvation history, as found in both Scripture and Tradition. God the Father is the great Creator, Jesus the Son is humanity's long-awaited Savior, and the Holy Spirit is our faithful Defender and Guider. But even this falls short, as they are all so intimately connected and involved in each other's work.

Or, perhaps, it's best to just stand in awe of a divine awesomeness far beyond our comprehension.

Wishing you all the blessings of our Triune God, I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Dan Darmanin
Pastor-Elect

Estimados feligreses de St. Margaret Mary,

La vida terrenal de Jesús es un gran misterio de principio a fin: el Misterio de la Encarnación (Su adopción de nuestra naturaleza humana) hasta el Misterio Pascual (Su sufrimiento, muerte y resurrección). No debería sorprender, entonces, que su vida divina implicaría otro misterio.

Creemos en UN Dios en TRES Personas divinas, y este es el Misterio de la Santísima Trinidad, que celebramos hoy. De hecho, profesamos esta creencia cada vez que hacemos (o rezamos) la Señal de la Cruz: "En el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo". El misterio es simplemente este: ¿Cómo tres Personas, verdaderamente distintas entre sí, pueden formar una sola Deidad? Somos monoteístas y no triteístas, después de todo. ¿Confundido? No estás solo.

Todavía puedo escuchar vívidamente a mi profesor en el seminario diciéndole a la clase: "Dios no es el anciano con barba". Dios es cada uno de los Tres y todos los Tres. Tal vez sea útil centrarse en los roles atribuidos a las Personas de la Trinidad a lo largo de la historia de la salvación, tal como se encuentran tanto en la Escritura como en la Tradición. Dios Padre es el gran Creador, Jesús el Hijo es el Salvador largamente esperado de la humanidad, y el Espíritu Santo es nuestro fiel Defensor y Guía. Pero incluso esto se queda corto, ya que todos están íntimamente conectados e involucrados en el trabajo de los demás.

O, tal vez, es mejor quedarse asombrado ante una maravilla divina mucho más allá de nuestra comprensión.

Deseándoles todas las bendiciones de nuestro Dios Triuno, estoy,

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Padre Dan Darmanin
Pastor-Electo

Our Family's Table…

Glad you're here! We especially welcome those living with physical, medical, mental, and other disabilities along with those who may care for them.

Last week we recalled and celebrated the great outpouring from heaven...Pentecost...when Christ sent His Spirit to the Church. In Our Family's Table we also remembered our Confirmation and the seven gifts the Spirit gave to each of us.

The focus of today's conversation is the Spirit's gift of Fortitude. Fortitude equips one to be courageous, possess stamina, resiliency, patient endurance, and moral strength. Whether you have a disability or care for one who does, let's consider these questions. Have particular aspects of fortitude helped you live your life? How? Would daily recognition, praying, and thanking the Holy Spirit for the gift of fortitude help you live your life to the full? If so, how? If not, why? Would your use of the gift of fortitude provide deeper insights into God's love for each of His children in St. Margaret Mary Parish's family?

Please join the conversation and share your thoughts and experiences. They're valuable. It's quite easy. Just leave a message or a text for Andrew Monteleone, St. Margaret Mary's Parish Advocate for Persons with Disabilities at (985) 259-0880. They'll be included in the bulletin.

La mesa de nuestra familia…

¡Me alegro de que estés aquí! Damos la bienvenida especialmente a aquellos que viven con discapacidades físicas, médicas, mentales y de otro tipo junto con aquellos que puedan cuidarlos.

La semana pasada recordamos y celebramos el gran derramamiento del cielo... Pentecostés... cuando Cristo envió Su Espíritu a la Iglesia. En la Mesa de Nuestra Familia también recordamos nuestra Confirmación y los siete dones que el Espíritu nos dio a cada uno de nosotros.

El enfoque de la conversación de hoy es el don de Fortaleza del Espíritu. La fortaleza equipa a uno para ser valiente, poseer resistencia, resiliencia, resistencia paciente y fuerza moral. Ya sea que tenga una discapacidad o cuide a alguien que la tenga, consideremos estas preguntas. ¿Te han ayudado a vivir tu vida aspectos particulares de la fortaleza? ¿Cómo? ¿El reconocimiento diario, la oración y el agradecimiento al Espíritu Santo por el don de la fortaleza te ayudarían a vivir tu vida al máximo? Si es así, ¿cómo? Si no, ¿por qué? ¿El uso del don de la fortaleza proporcionaría una comprensión más profunda del amor de Dios por cada uno de Sus hijos en la familia de la Parroquia de St. Margaret Mary?

Únase a la conversación y comparta sus pensamientos y experiencias. Son valiosos. Es bastante fácil. Simplemente deje un mensaje o un mensaje de texto para Andrew Monteleone, Representante de personas con discapacidades de la Parroquia de St. Margaret Mary para Personas con Discapacidades al (985) 259-0880. Se incluirán en el boletín.

SERVING MOMS IN NEED
LIVING THE GOSPEL OF LIFE

On March 25, 2020, the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord, the Church celebrated the 25th anniversary of the papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). This prophetic document, written by a great saint of our time, Pope John Paul II, reaffirmed the Church's constant teaching on the value and inviolability of every human life.

In this encyclical, the Holy Father explains that the Gospel of Life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world. Through the Incarnation of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, reflecting his glory and his imprint. We are therefore called to "respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life."[1]

Evangelium vitae highlights the special and particular role of women in bearing the gift of life to the world. Pope John Paul II offers heartfelt thanks to these "heroic mothers," who, placing their trust in God, "devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves."[2]

Pope John Paul II also outlines the many challenges that expectant mothers may face, including lack of support from the father, financial strains, concerns about her own health or that of her child, and pressures from family and friends. The Holy Father recognizes that an "unborn child is totally entrusted to the protection and care of the woman carrying him or her in the womb."[3] For this reason, it is particularly important that the Church come alongside mothers, offering them encouragement, assistance, and support.

Through Christ, we have received the gift of the Gospel of Life in its fullness. As members of the Church, we are the people of life and for life. It is our duty to proclaim the truth of the Gospel of Life to the world, for "to proclaim Jesus is itself to proclaim life."[4] Pope John Paul II tasked us with building a culture of life to combat the forces at work in the culture of death. He challenged us:

> With great openness and courage, we need to question how widespread is the culture of life today among individual Christians, families, groups and communities in our Dioceses. With equal clarity and determination we must identify the steps we are called to take in order to serve life in all its truth.[5]

In honor of Evangelium vitae's 25th anniversary and in answer to Pope John Paul II's call, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Pro-Life Activities launched a nationwide effort entitled, Walking with Moms in Need. Parishes, through the support of their bishops and pastors, are invited to join this effort to increase the Church's outreach and support to pregnant women facing difficult or unexpected pregnancies. This special anniversary has provided the Church with an opportunity to assess, expand, and better communicate resources to pregnant moms and families in need.

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods, but in desperation, they are turning to other places for help. We know the needs and challenges can be immense for women in difficult pregnancies, especially women in poverty, and the sources for help may not be apparent to those most needing support. Women facing challenging pregnancies should see the Church as a place where they can find help, especially with its extensive social services dedicated to meeting the needs of people in crisis.

Through Walking with Moms in Need the Church is being asked to respond to Pope John Paul II's call and honestly assess the pastoral and practical assistance that it currently provides to pregnant moms and families in need and how effective it is in communicating such help.

Pope John Paul II wrote that,

> "gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of man impel us to share [the Gospel of Life] with everyone."[6]

He said we need to bring this message "to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society."[7] By reaching out to lovingly support and care for pregnant women and their children, we witness to the sanctity of every human person, in every stage and every circumstance.

Evangelium vitae emphasizes that, "where life is involved, the service of charity must be profoundly consistent. It cannot tolerate bias and discrimination, for human life is sacred and inviolable... We need then to 'show care' for all life and for the life of everyone."[8] Pope John Paul II highlights the incredible history of service and charity that the Church has provided throughout the centuries to those abandoned and forgotten by society. He urges that "every Christian community, with a renewed sense of responsibility, must continue to write this history."[9]

We are called to reverence and love every human person as ourselves. It is our responsibility to care for and protect human life, especially the lives of the most vulnerable among us. Evangelium vitae teaches us that "the task of accepting and serving life involves everyone; and this task must be fulfilled above all towards life when it is at its weakest."[10]

Pope John Paul II wrote, "the Gospel of God's love for man, the Gospel of the dignity of the person and the Gospel of life are a single and indivisible Gospel."[11] The Gospel of Jesus is the Gospel of Life, and to love Jesus is to love and serve life. As followers of Christ, may we strive to continually respond to the needs of the poor and vulnerable entrusted to us by God.

As part of Walking with Moms in Need, the USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities is providing educational, pastoral, and action-oriented resources to help parishes go to the peripheries and bring hope and help to mothers in need. Through the combined efforts of parishes nationwide, we hope to move closer to the day when every pregnant mother in need knows where to turn for help, and abortion is unthinkable. Visit WalkingWithMoms.com to learn more and to pledge to prayerfully walk with mothers in need.
