From Fr. Robert. . .

This Wednesday is the feast day of St. Louis Marie de Montfort. Many of you will recognize him as the saint who popularized total consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary as a powerful means of growing in holiness and closeness to Our Lord, Jesus. He says, "This devotion is an easy, short, perfect, and secure way of attaining union with our Lord, in which union the perfection of a Christian consists." And, "It consists in giving oneself entirely and as a slave to Mary, and to Jesus through Mary, and after that, to do all that we do through Mary, with Mary, in Mary, and for Mary. We should choose a special feast day on which we give, consecrate and sacrifice to Mary, voluntarily, lovingly and without constraint, entirely and without reserve: our body and soul, our exterior property, such as house, family and income, and also our interior and spiritual possessions: namely, our meritis, graces, virtues and satisfactions." The goal of this spirituality is more perfect union with Jesus and does not take away from the supremacy and worship of Jesus Christ, but Mary is simply the key to Jesus's heart. Many of us have already made this consecration (if you haven't I plan on leading another one later this year) by means of "33 Days to Morning Glory" or "Mary's Mantle" or the "Total Consecration according to St. Louis de Montfort". How have you lived up to your consecration? Does it bear real fruit in your life or was it just another nice parish book study? Do you honor our Lady often? Do you pray the Rosary daily? Do you surrender everything to God through her, as she said, "Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done unto me according to thy word"? If not, this week might be a good time to renew your commitment to our loving, tender mother, so that she might wake us from our lukewarmness and set us back firmly on the superhighway to sancity. When I think of what Marian consecration means, I think of a priest who was my pastor at my first assignment. I told him I was going to rent a car to make a road trip to Oregon, since mine wasn't road-worthy. He said, "Don't rent one; take mine." I objected, "But that will put a couple thousand miles on your car, and, plus, you'll be without a car for a couple weeks." He said, "It's not my car; it's Our Lady's. Take it." May Our Blessed Mother direct all our actions to the praise and glory of her Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ!

Este miércoles es la fiesta de San Luis María de Montfort. Muchos de ustedes lo reconocerán como el santo que popularizó la consagración total a la Santísima Virgen María como un medio poderoso para crecer en santidad y cercanía a Nuestro Señor Jesús. Dice: "Esta devoción es una manera fácil, breve, perfecta y segura de lograr la unión con nuestro Señor, en la que consiste la perfección de un cristiano". Y, "Consiste en entregarse enteramente y como esclavo a María, y a Jesús a través de María, y luego hacer todo lo que hacemos a través de María, con María, en María y por María. Debemos elegir un día de fiesta en lo que damos, consagramos y sacrificamos a María, voluntariamente, con amor y sin restricciones, enteramente y sin reservas: nuestro cuerpo y alma, nuestra propiedad exterior, como casa, familia e ingresos, y también nuestras posesiones interiores y espirituales: a saber, nuestros méritos, gracias, virtudes y satisfacciones ". El objetivo de esta espiritualidad es una unión más perfecta con Jesús y no quita la supremacía y la adoración de Jesucristo, pero María es simplemente la clave del corazón de Jesús. Muchos de nosotros ya hemos hecho esta consagración (si no, planeo dirigir otra más adelante este año) por medio de "33 días para la gloria de la mañana" o "Manto de María" o la "Consagración total según San Luis de Montfort ". ¿Cómo has estado a la altura de tu consagración? ¿Da frutos reales en su vida o fue solo otro buen estudio de libros parroquiales? ¿Honras a nuestra Señora a menudo? ¿Rezas el Rosario todos los días? ¿Entregas todo a Dios a través de ella, como ella dijo: "He aquí la esclava del Señor; hágase en mí según tu palabra"? Si no es así, esta semana podría ser un buen momento para renovar su compromiso con nuestra tierna y amorosa madre, para que nos despierte de nuestra tibieza y nos devuelva con firmeza a la superautopista de la sanidad. Cuando pienso en lo que significa la consagración Mariana, pienso en un sacerdote que fue mi pastor en mi primera asignación. Le dije que iba a alquilar un coche para hacer un viaje por carretera a Oregón, ya que el mío no podría hacer el viaje. Él dijo: "No alquile uno, llévese el mío". Objeté: "Pero eso aumentará dos mil de millas en su automóvil y, además, estará sin automóvil durante un par de semanas". Él dijo: "No es mi carro, es de Nuestra Señora. Tómalo". ¡Que Nuestra Santísima Madre dirija todas nuestras acciones a la alabanza y gloria de su Hijo, Nuestro Señor Jesucristo!

"OUR RETURN TO THE LORD"

Last Weekend's Collection: $3,455

Building Fund: $18,661.78

We are grateful for your generosity and appreciate your loyalty to our parish. Thank you for embracing the biblical vision of stewardship and tithing.

Sunday May 2, will be the last Sunday Noon Mass.

Next weekend, May 1-2, the Diocese of Cheyenne 2021 annual appeal, Living and Giving in Christ: Unity through Diocesan Ministries, will begin. The purpose of the annual appeal is to acquire regular, yearly contributions to generate vital and dependable financial support to secure operational costs of the Chancery Office, which, in turn, provides the infrastructure behind every parish in the Diocese of Cheyenne. The bishop and his staff assist parishes to do what they cannot do alone, by providing critical support to parish leaders and their ministry. Please prayerfully consider making a gift in thanksgiving.

There will be Coffee and Rolls following each Mass on Sunday May 2.

Coffee and Rolls will be held outside.

The last Day of CCD is May 5.
