The Pastor's Two Cents

Called to be a light to others

Today the Church celebrates the feast of the Presentation of the Lord which occurs forty days after the birth of Jesus and is also known as Candlemas day, since the blessing of candles is included in today's liturgy. According to the 1962 Missal of St. John XXIII the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite, today is referred to as the "Purification of Mary." This is known as a "Christmas feast" since it points back to the Solemnity of Christmas. Many Catholics practice the tradition of keeping out the Nativity creche or other Christmas decorations until this feast.

Also, on February 2nd a quaint tradition unfolds, known well to school children and adults alike. As we all know, the fate of Spring hangs in the balance as a burrowing animal looks for its shadow.

Apart from Punxsutawney Phil seeing his shadow, which was probably not around in Jesus time; "According to the law of Moses," the Lord Jesus, the first-born, was presented in the Temple by his Blessed Mother and his foster father. This is another 'epiphany' celebration insofar as the Christ Child is revealed as the Messiah through the canticle and words of Simeon and the testimony of Anna the prophetess. Christ, being proclaimed, "the light of the nations," explains the blessing of candles on this day. This Light of revelation to all nations would later came back to the Temple precincts as a grown man to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. On a festive autumn evening, while the Temple plaza was ablaze with torches and full of Jews dancing in celebration of their special relationship with the Almighty, Jesus echoed the words of Simeon and boldly proclaimed "I am the light of the world" (John 8:12).

Anyone who has ever been involved with the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) should be aware that to become a Christian in the early Church meant to have the darkness of error and despair scattered by this radiant light of revelation. In his light, everything looks different. What was formerly drab grey suddenly becomes dazzling technicolor! What had been murky becomes clear. What was a conundrum now finally could be understood. This was so much part of the early Christian conversion experience that baptism was called "the enlightenment" and the newly baptized, who wore white robes for the entire week after Easter, were called "the enlightened ones."

To this day, the ancient rite of the Easter Vigil begins with a dark Church and the congregation waiting in anticipation. The Easter Candle is then lit from the new fire and, as the deacon proclaims "Christ our light," smaller candles held by the faithful are lit from the Paschal candle and the flame rapidly spreads from candle to candle. The formerly darkened sanctuary now becomes ablaze with many hundred points of light.

On this feast of the Presentation of the Lord, as we bless candles, we can often miss the point. Yes, Christ is our light. But he has ignited us with the fire of his Spirit, and he calls us "the light of the world" (Mat. 5:14). We are not meant, any more than He was, to keep our light under the bushel basket of the home or the church. The light we have received is meant for an entire world languishing in darkness. The Presentation is a feast of mission, a reminder of the call to commit ourselves wholeheartedly to what our last three Popes have called "The New Evangelization." The candles which we so enjoy in our liturgies and devotions are a reminder that we must not rest while there is even one left who remains in the valley of the valley of darkness; or in the shadow of death.

Don't forget, "The Lord is with you! Fr. Stan

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

On Saturday February 15th Father Stan will be offering the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick following the 4:30 PM Mass. This Sacrament will be offered at various Masses in our parish again in subsequent months.

The 1972 ritual indicates that this Sacrament is for "Christians whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age" "In the case of a person who is chronically ill, or elderly and in a weakened condition, the Sacrament of Anointing may be repeated when in the pastoral judgment of the priest the condition of the sick person warrants the repetition of the sacrament." People of all ages, including children, who suffer from a serious illness or are facing major surgery can be anointed.

Please remember to call the office to have your friends and loved ones removed from the sick list when the need is past.

A Sunday Gospel Reflections

February 2nd. – Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 5:1-12a

Gospel Summary

The beatitudes are the content of this Gospel and they begin what we commonly call, "The Sermon on the Mount." Jesus' words surely turned upside down the understanding his listeners had of the world and society. Jesus told them that the poor would be rich, the hungry would be filled, and the persecuted would be rewarded. In all, there are eight statements that give the people a new understanding of Moses' law and a clearer image of God's Kingdom.

Reflection for Families

Living the beatitudes is nothing new for parents. We often set our needs and desires aside in order to care for others, especially our children. Our greatest challenge, however, is to be a living witness to the first beatitude. If we understand and live out being "poor in spirit," the rest falls into place. For to be "poor in spirit," we rely completely on God. We know what the present situation holds, but recognize that there is a greater glory to come in God's Kingdom.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Make a list of some (or all eight) of the beatitudes described in today's Gospel. In words every family member can understand, give an interpretation of each beatitude's meaning. Go through a family photo album and point out how people in your immediate and extended family live out these beatitudes.

Discussion Starters

It's not always easy to do what's right. Once in particular I remember . . .

One thing that brings me great happiness inside is . . .

I hope to help others (or myself) find true happiness by . . .
