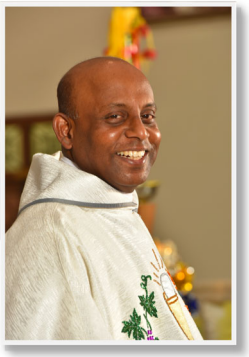
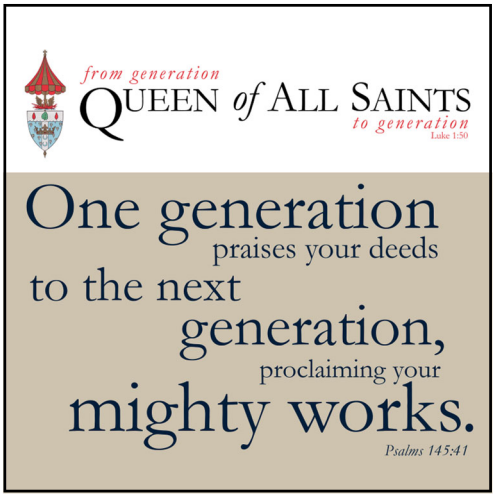
From Father Simon



On June 4th, fifty-nine eighth graders graduated from Queen of All Saints School. What made this graduation ceremony extra special was that all fifty-nine students were present (no quarantines) and the basilica was once again full given what we had to go through this year. While 81% of our graduates are going to Catholic high schools, most of the others are going to selective enrollment schools. It is a testament to the high academic standards we have for our students and the wholistic formation that our school provides. Congratulations to our graduates!

This past Friday, the rest of the school gathered in the basilica as one community to thank God for his protection and guidance throughout this school year. I am grateful to every single person, faculty and staff who, under the leadership of our Principal Mrs. Emily Carlson, planned, worked hard and made countless sacrifices to provide in-person learning for our school families. To put it in the principal's own words 'we just didn't survive, we thrived.' THANK YOU!

The end of the school year marks the beginning of construction, maintenance repairs and other tasks here at QAS. We will begin work on the final phase of our Capital Campaign Project as soon as the students leave school. The final phase includes returning the old library (Rose Room) to its former purpose – a parish center. This room will provide an opportunity for students to gather in larger groups for presentations, talks, retreats and other activities. Our religious education students will, especially those in the confirmation program be able to use the space. For the larger parish community, the space will be available for parent-meetings for the sacraments, formation days and trivia-night. The parish center will provide the much needed gathering space for the growing needs of our community. The entrances of the school building on Lemont Avenue will receive a face-lift to make it a more welcoming environment. Our goal is for this facility to be available to use by mid-October.



While this is going on, we will have some regular maintenance work on the rest of the property as well as finishing the work on the St. Joseph altar. We had to put off the work from last year due to COVID and we hope to finish it before the end of summer.

From Father Simon

This Sunday we return to the ordinary time of the year and I hope things will soon return to some semblance of pre-covid days. I had written the following section earlier this year as we began ordinary time in the Church's calendar and I think it is worth reprinting. So here it is.

Now that we are in the Ordinary Time of the year, the Church gifts us with the opportunity to spend some quiet time, not away from the Mass, but drawing closer as a family through the shared experiences of our faith. "Ordinary" comes from a Latin word meaning ordered, numbered, counted – but NOT boring. If "Ordinary Time" is ordered or numbered time, what are we ordered toward? What are we counting to? Ultimately, Ordinary Time is moving us, as a pilgrim Church, toward the return of Christ, but until then we move toward the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, Christ the King of the Universe.

These 33 or 34 weeks allow us a chance to experience the life of Christ and the life of the Church without the intense focus of an event. We can and should soak in this time. Through this season our readings lay out for us the journey Christ took in his life. We read about his miracles, his prayer time, his friendships and sorrows. We become immersed in his day-to-day life. This is our chance to grow closer to him in the "ordinary" events of life and to be continually converted. The appropriate liturgical color for Ordinary Time is green because green is the color of growth, and we are called to grow in our faith, grow closer to Jesus, grow deeper in love during this season. It's not stagnant. It's alive!

We are aware that life is what happens while we are busy making other plans. This is Ordinary Time. The time of life that passes, almost silently, while we are distracted with heat, vacations, summer and back to school planning, scheduling Thanksgiving meals with all the extended family, fretting over that post-holiday credit card bill…these are the weeks that God wants to spend some time with you, Jesus wants to give himself to you, the Holy Spirit wants to pour himself into you…even during this 'ordinary time!'

Blessings!!

Wanted - Catechists!

The Religious Education Program plans on returning in person in September and we need catechists!

Pope Francis tweeted on May 11, "Today, too, the Spirit is calling men and women to set out and encounter all those who are waiting to discover the beauty, goodness and truth of the Christian faith."

Queen of All Saints Religious Education program is asking you to hear that call from the Spirit and volunteer as a catechist for the 2021-2022 school year. Teaching materials, training and support throughout the year will be provided.

- We are in need of catechists from grades 3-6 on Saturday mornings (9-10:30am classes)
- We are in need of catechists for grades 3 and 4 on Tuesday afternoons (5-6:30pm classes)

If you are interested in volunteering your time, or would like more information please email Jenna Kaszycki, Coordinator of Religious Education at JKaszycki@qasparish.org.

Religious Education Registration

Registration for Religious Education 2021-2022 is now open!

The QASRE program begins at kindergarten and goes through eighth grade. Our program focuses on building a relationship with Christ as your children grow in their discipleship.

Students wanting to participate in the sacraments of First Reconciliation, First Communion and confirmation must attend a minimum of two years of religious education as per the archdiocesan requirement. First Reconciliation and Communion preparation begins at 1st grade. Confirmation preparation begins at 7th grade.

Information and registration forms can be found at https://qasparish.org/how-to-register. If you have any questions please reach out to the Office of Religious Education at qasreoffice@qasparish.org.

New Basilica and Rectory Hours

The Basilica - is now open Monday through Friday from 6am to 6pm, on Saturdays from 7:30am to 6pm and on Sundays for Masses. Please use the porte cochère doors to enter and exit. We will continue to wear masks until persons of all ages have had the opportunity to be vaccinated and protected. We are also advised to require registration for Masses and other liturgical services and to sanitize before receiving Communion until further guidelines.

Rectory Offices - The rectory offices will be open Monday through Friday from 9am to 4pm.

SR HELEN PREJEAN LIVE VIRTUAL TALK

Thursday, October 7th, 7pm via zoom

The legendary Sr Helen Prejean will leading a live virtual talk about her spiritual journey based off her book River of Fire.

For those who want to participate more in depth during the virtual talk, two River of Fire book studies will be held. An easy paced study will happen over the summer. A fast paced study will be during the month of September.

Participation in the book study is not required to participate in the virtual talk.

Keep a look out for registration information.

Illinois Bishops Letter Tax Credit Scholarship Program

The Illinois Catholic bishops have written a letter to the Catholic faithful urging them to contact their lawmakers and ask that the "Invest in Kids" act scholarship program not be cut but instead be expanded and extended.

The Governor's recommendation to lower the credit to 40% from 75% will effectively eliminate or reduce donations when demand for scholarships is high. The "Invest in Kids" scholarship tax credit program is working. Families are using it to send their child to a school of their choice during a pandemic. They were in school, safe and learning. The program needs to be extended and improved.

To learn more go to ilcatholic.org and click on "Read the Letter."

IDPH COVID-19 Requirements

If you attend Mass at Queen of All Saints, your name and phone number will be confirmed or taken at the door. As required by the Illinois Department of Health (IDPH), please notify the rectory if you test positive for COVID within two weeks of attending a liturgical service in the basilica. All personal info will be kept strictly confidential.

Institute for Diaconal Studies

Is God calling you to be a permanent deacon for the Archdiocese of Chicago? If you do feel the Holy Spirit's gentle nudge toward diaconal ministry, please contact Deacon Bob Puhala, Director at 847-837-4564 or bpuhala@usml.edu so your questions can be answered. It is a four-year formation program leading to ordination. If married, wives and family play a vital role in formation and discernment. Visit here for more info:

Stewardship

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

Planning on Being Away This Summer?

We all need time off to recharge and refresh, especially as we awaken from our COVID seclusion and stress. Enjoy your respite from your usual routine and then plan to rejoin our parish community with a new sense of joy and wonder at God's gifts to us.

Please support us with your prayers when you're away. And, if you can, please consider supporting us through GiveCentral when you're away as well.

Our bills continue all year long!

Click on the GiveCentral icon on our parish website at qasparish.org and follow the quick prompts to set up an account or to adjust your existing account.

It's safe, convenient and dependable!

Gratitude

We are extraordinarily grateful for the efforts of our teachers, our parents and our students who worked together as one team as we successfully completed a full year of in-person learning at our school.

Stewardship at its finest!

And so we pray:

God of wisdom, we thank you for all the gifts you have given us throughout this school year.

We praise you for giving us life, for saving us in Christ, and for choosing us to be your people.

At the end of this school year, we voice our gratitude for the good things you have done in us, and we praise you for all who have shared in the work of our school.

We ask you to bless them in your love and give them refreshment and peace. We praise you, God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

Today's Readings

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil."

- 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us - our time, our talent and our treasure - everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the sacrament of baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The sacrament of baptism for infants is celebrated on Saturdays. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. Please contact the rectory for further details. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the anointing of the sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
